VISION: ANSWER GOD'S CALL

Our 1995 North Carolina Annual Conference Emphasis

In his farewell commission to the disciples, Jesus encouraged them with the promise of new power and vision in the Holy Spirit. In the Upper Room he washed their feet and urged them to remember that "servants are not greater than their master..." Jesus challenged them to "abide with Him" and promised that they would do even "greater works" than he had done as they responded to God's call.

With such a crowning vision from our Lord, United Methodists across our Conference are urged to answer God's call to be servants. Remembering the commission of our Lord, the 1995 emphasis for Annual Conference is "VISION: Answer God's Call."

ANSWER GOD'S CALL...

- To be ordained and consecrated in ministry

- To serve faithfully in the community

- To empower ministry in the local church

- To be inclusive churchwide

- To raise up visionary leaders

- To run the race victoriously

- To reach out to the world with the good news of hope

Where such a plan is established for reimbursement of business mileage, equitable compensation support shall not be affected by payment of travel expenses. However, where a reimbursement plan is not implemented and a travel allowance is given, any travel allowance in excess of $2,400 will result in a reduction of equitable compensation support." LEGISLATION

CONFERENCE CLERGY LIVING COMMITTEE

A. A Parsonage Guide

INTRODUCTION

It is the policy of the North Carolina Annual Conference that every pastoral charge shall provide a parsonage (or an adequate housing allowance, on a temporary basis, set by the charge conference but recommended by the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee in consultation with the pastor) for the senior pastor and his/her family. Housing shall also be provided for associate pastors.

It is recommended that in each pastoral charge having a parsonage committee, which shall be elected by the charge conference upon nomination by the Committee on Nominations and Personnel, that said committee shall be amenable the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee and work closely with trustees in providing adequate housing for the pastor. (Reference is made to The Parsonage Committee in ¶ 2533 of The Book of Discipline, 1992.) This Committee should meet twice yearly at the parsonage. In charges of more than one church, each church should be represented on the Committee according to the percentage of ownership. Ex-officio members of the Committee should include the pastor, the pastor's spouse, chairperson of the trustees, and chairperson of the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee.

The following suggestions are standards toward which to work. They are given so that the pastoral charge shall know what is expected of it, and that the parsonage family may know what to expect.

REPAIRS, FURNISHINGS, AND/OR SALE OF PARSONAGE

1. Repairs and furnishings should be divided among churches on a multiple charge by percentage of ownership.
2. When no interest is owned in a parsonage on a multiple church charge by one or more churches, each church having no ownership should pay its pro-rata share of the fair rental value of the parsonage and furnishings. Rental money should be placed in a savings account for furnishings and repairs. The church or churches which own the parsonage should repair and furnish the parsonage.
3. When a parsonage is sold, the principal proceeds resulting from the sale may not be used for the operating budget. (¶ 2543, The Book of Discipline, 1992)

THE HOUSE

1. Minimum of three bedrooms (four are preferable) with ample closet space in each. One of the three bedrooms should be on the first floor.
2. A family room with book shelves, preferably separate and apart from the kitchen
3. Kitchen with ample built-in cabinets and large enough for family eating space, or a breakfast nook
4. Area large enough for washer, dryer
5. Two full baths
6. Living room, large enough for parsonage entertaining
7. A dining room is desirable, but where there is no dining room, the dining area should adjoin the living room in a living-dining room combination.
8. A home study in the parsonage is a desirable option in addition to the church office-study. It should have an outside entrance and be suitably equipped.
9. Garage with electric doors or a carport
10. Dry storage space
11. Adequate heating and air conditioning equipment and insulation, including storm or thermal pane windows and doors
12. Adequate rotary TV antenna or cablevision hook-up, if available. The purpose of this recommendation is to save the roof of the house from excessive wear due to moving antennas.
13. Uninterrupted utilities (electricity, water, gas, phone) in the name of the charge
14. The outgoing pastor is responsible for leaving the parsonage fuel tank full.

15. The chairperson of the Pastor/Staff Relations Committee and the chairperson of the Trustees are responsible for reviewing all items on the "So You're Moving Check Sheet" to be certain that each item has been completed.

THE FURNISHINGS

The pastoral charge should provide:

1. All heavy furnishings, including electric or gas range, refrigerator with freezer compartment, water heater, washer, dryer, and a dishwasher. (A garbage disposal and a freezer are desirable options.)
2. Bedroom, dining room, den and living room furniture. (One bedroom should be left unfurnished, so as to allow the pastor to have his/her own bedroom suite.)
3. Good mattresses, floor covering, shades, blinds, curtains or draperies in all rooms
4. Some lamps and occasional tables
5. Discarded furniture should not be used in furnishing the parsonage
6. The minister's family should provide linens, blankets, pillows, baby beds, dishes, china, crystal, silverware, cooking utensils, radio, TV, and other personal items which they desire.
7. The storage and payment thereof of unused parsonage furnishings and the pastor's furnishings is to be negotiated between the pastor and the charge.
8. An up-to-date inventory of furnishings which includes dates of purchases and costs. This should be reviewed and updated at each Committee meeting. Pictures or video tapes are recommended and should be kept in a safe place other than the parsonage.

PARSONAGE GROUNDS

Parsonage grounds should have foundation shrubbery, shade trees, adequate yard space for children, paved driveway and walks, and a power mower.

CARE OF PROPERTY

A clean parsonage is much to be desired by all. It is urged that a parsonage family keep the home clean and attractive.

Any abuse of the furnishings or house beyond normal wear should be the responsibility of the parsonage family.

The following pet policy consistent with the standard policy for rental property is established.

1. The pet owner is responsible for any property damage caused by pet(s).
2. The pet owner must conform to all state and local ordinances.
3. The pet owner is responsible for liability for any injury caused by the pet(s).
4. The pet owner is responsible for professional pest extermination of the parsonage when moving.

Walls, woodwork, and exterior should be painted as needed. The expense of painting, sanding and refinishing floors, repairs, periodic pest extermination, cleaning of carpets and draperies, are expenses to be borne by the church.

It is the responsibility of the parsonage family to leave the parsonage clean and in good condition when they move to another charge. As close to moving time as possible, each family should wash windows, screens and window sills, and leave curtains, draperies, carpets, shades, and blinds clean. Special attention should be given to closets, cabinets, and drawers. Bathrooms, kitchens, storage rooms, and attics should be clean. Refrigerators and stoves as well as all other appliances should be clean and in working order. Check light fixtures, exhaust fans, hot and cold air ducts to assure cleanliness. The parsonage yard should be well groomed.

The following information should be left by the pastor for his/her successor: All warranties, repair parts lists, instructions for use of equipment belonging to the parsonage, and an inventory including dates of purchase and cost of parsonage furnishings. The pastor should indicate when and from whom equipment was purchased, and whom to call for service. The pastor should leave, also, a list of persons to call for various reasons, where to find various items, and when and by whom various improvements are made.

THE PARSONAGE COMMITTEE

The persons responsible for the parsonage should have a current inventory of parsonage furnishings. A copy of the inventory should be given to the minister and the trustees of the parsonage property. This inventory should include date of purchase of each item listed, its cost, and dates of renovations and repairs.

The persons responsible for the parsonage should meet with the pastor and his/her spouse twice annually. Furnishings should be evaluated at this time to decide the condition of pieces, to discard unacceptable items, check for needed repairs, and replace items if needed. The charge shall maintain adequate insurance for the replacement of parsonage and furnishings. The pastor is responsible for insurance on the family's personal possessions.

The persons responsible for the parsonage should recommend to the Finance Committee an amount to be set aside each year, or included in the budget, for repairs and maintenance. A special parsonage maintenance fund should be established. A minimum of 1% per year of the replacement value of the parsonage should be placed in this fund, and this should continue to accrue until the fund reaches a minimum of 5% of the replacement value of the parsonage and then be maintained at that level. Each charge conference is urged to designate the chair of the Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee, chair of trustees, or chair of parsonage committee to make decisions for emergency replacements and/or repairs. The chairperson of the Committee on Pastor/Staff Parish Relations, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees, and the pastor shall make an annual review of the church-owned parsonage to assure proper maintenance.

BUILDING OR RENOVATING A PARSONAGE

In all matters pertaining to the location, renovation, and building of a parsonage, the Discipline should be consulted. The required legislation related to the above is found in ¶ 2536-2545 of The Book of Discipline, 1992.

Parsonage sites should be selected that will hold their value and be a wise investment, preferably in a sub-division. Whenever a new parsonage is built, its many uses should be considered.

Churches building new parsonages should be responsive to the handicapping procedures in the state building codes. Congregations receiving parsonage families with handicapping conditions should be responsive to their housing needs.

(Guidelines may be secured by writing: Director of Ministerial Relations, NC Annual Conference, P O Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.)

CONFERENCE STAFF RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee is composed of eight voting members, two of whom are District Superintendents: Jane Johnson, Chair; Belton Joyner, Vice Chair; Gwen Henderson, Secretary; Harold Kiser; Bernice Johnson; Douglas Jessee; Mabel Cummings; William Gattis; and Roger Elliott. Ex-Officio members (without vote) are: Resident Bishop; Conference Lay Leader; President of CF&A; Executive Director of the CCOM; Conference Treasurer; Director of Ministerial Relations; Conference Secretary; Executive Director of United Methodist Foundation.

The Committee is charged with the following responsibilities:

1. It shall confer and counsel with all members of the UM Building family to make effective ministry possible.
2. It shall receive reports concerning the work of the CCOM Program Staff and shall evaluate their effectiveness.
3. It shall make recommendations to the Program Staff members in consultation with the Executive Director of the CCOM.
4. It shall make nominations for Program Staff positions to the CCOM annually. Where Program Staff members are subject to Episcopal appointment, the Committee shall confer with the Bishop and Cabinet concerning the nominations.
5. It shall present its salary recommendations to the CCOM Budget Committee after consultations with the CCOM Executive Director and individual staff members.
6. It shall consider other items of staff support and concern, such as vacation, housing, continuing education, and other compensations.
7. It shall also function as a Personnel Committee in relation to the members of the Support Staff of the UM Building.

In fulfilling the responsibilities that the Committee is charged with, two meetings are scheduled each year to confer and counsel with the CCOM Program Staff. Interviews as well as written reports are used to evaluate their effectiveness and to make recommendations for their continued employment and monetary compensation for another year. These meetings are held in early Spring and late Fall. Additional meetings are held, if necessary, to accomplish this purpose. At a recent meeting, the Committee, and all Conference-related personnel in the Methodist Building gathered for a luncheon. This was a time of fellowship and establishing community with everyone who works for the Annual Conference.

In our responsibility to function as a Personnel Committee, whenever a vacancy has occurred in the CCOM Program Staff, we have duly advertised the position, received and reviewed the applications, interviewed applicants and have made recommendations for employment.

The Committee has developed and published a Personnel Policies Handbook for all Support Staff of the UM Building and is working to complete a Personnel Policies Handbook for the Program Staff.

REQUESTS OF THE 1995 SESSION OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE:

1. That the Information Systems Director be added to this Committee as an Ex-Officio, non-voting member.
2. That the Conference Treasurer be added to the Information System Committee as an Ex-Officio, non voting member.
3. That the tenure of the CCOM Executive Director be the same as that of a District Superintendent. (Presented to the CCOM and approved, February 21, 1995).

DIACONAL MINISTRY, BOARD OF

The Board of Diaconal Ministry is following with great interest the study on ministry being conducted by the Council of Bishops. We have taken part in reflection groups to react to recommendations on this study. A final recommendation is expected to be presented at the 1996 General Conference.

We continue to nurture, support, and recruit persons who have expressed a calling to a representative ministry within the NC Conference of The UMC. The Board also maintains an active relationship with certified lay professionals as well as diaconals within our Conference through the annual process of renewal of certification and request for appointment.

This year we are pleased to present to the Annual Conference Judith Olivia Jolly for consecration as a diaconal minister. She has completed the candidacy process, has been examined by the Board of Diaconal Ministry and has been found to be spiritually grounded, psychologically fit, and academically prepared for diaconal ministry.

Equitable salaries for diaconal ministry has been a topic for discussion with the Board for several years, and we continue to work with churches on recommendations for both certified professionals and diaconal ministers. Diaconal ministers and lay professionals must negotiate a compensation package and contract with their place of employment. The NC Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry, however, suggests and recommends that churches begin compensation for diaconals at the minimum equitable salary compensation level for ordained ministers which is $26,318 for 1996. It also is recommended that a written contract be provided at the beginning of employment. Additional suggested benefits to be negotiated are: 1) housing, 2) health and hospitalization insurance, 3) life insurance, 4) pension, 5) continuing education, and 6) travel.

The employing agency in which a full time diaconal minister is serving shall provide (¶315.1 1, 2, 3, The Book of Discipline, 1992): 1) Adequate salaries plus pension benefits, with an opportunity to participate in the UM pension and benefit funds, health care insurance, and continuing education. It is expected that these will be guided by the Annual Conference standards for ordained elders. 2) Social security benefits as required by Federal regulation. 3) The local UM church which employs a full-time diaconal minister shall provide the above mentioned benefits in entirety as part of the compensatory consideration.

DISABILITY, JOINT COMMITTEE ON

The Joint Committee on Disability acts as the advocate for those pastors in the North Carolina Conference who are forced by physical or emotional disability to seek temporary or permanent relief from their appointment. The committee is given the responsibility to study the problems of disability within the Conference, to provide a continuing personal ministry to those who are disabled, and to make recommendations to the appropriate agencies of the Conference for each pastor seeking Disability Leave, including the source of their disability income.

The following recommendations are presented to the 1995 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference:

1. The Joint Committee on Disability will make available upon request the necessary forms for any pastor to make application for Disability Leave. In all cases the applications must be completed by the pastor, the physician, and the district superintendent before the request for Disability Leave can be acted upon. It is the recommendation of the Joint Committee on Disability that such requests be presented before May 15 for inclusion in the committee's report to the Annual Conference. The medical form should be completed and acted upon by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits prior to the submission of the application.
2. The Joint Committee on Disability may require psychological examinations of those seeking disability when deemed necessary by the Committee. These will be done by a physician approved by the Committee, and in such a case the Committee will bear the expense of the examination.
3. The Joint Committee on Disability will study each new application for Disability Leave submitted by pastors of the Conference to determine the validity of the recommendation of the pastor's physician and district superintendent, particularly as it reflects the anticipated length of the pastor's disability. All materials will be sent to the medical consultant of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits, who will determine if the pastor is eligible for benefits paid through the Comprehensive Protection Plan.
4. We recommend that pastors who may not be eligible for benefits paid by the Comprehensive Protection Plan shall be placed on Disability Leave with benefits paid through the Joint Committee on Disability. The Ministerial Pension Plan, Comprehensive Protection Plan, Hospital Insurance and Life Insurance shall be paid also by the Joint Committee on Disability.
5. Those pastors on Disability Leave are reminded to investigate the penalties by the Social Security Administration if they do not elect to come under Medicare at age 65.
6. Disability requests are to be submitted ninety (90) days prior to Annual Conference except in life-threatening situations after that date, or when the disabling condition occurs after that date.
7. We recommend that a lump sum grant of $3,000 be made at the beginning of Disability Leave (effective July 1, 1993). This grant will be available only one time in a pastor's years of service.
8. The Joint Committee on Disability will review the progress of each pastor on Disability Leave at least annually. This review will include both recommendations from the pastor's physician and district superintendent as well as opportunities for continuing fellowship with the pastor to develop further possibilities of assistance in his/her disabled circumstances. Those receiving aid from the Joint Committee on Disability will be reviewed at the end of their first six months of Disability Leave.
9. We recommend the following pastors to be continued on Disability Leave.

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION, COMMISSION ON

The Book of Discipline gives the Commission on Equitable Compensation this mandate..."to support ordained ministry in the charges of the Annual Conference ..."(¶722.2) There are three broad areas of responsibility outlined in ¶722.2. These are "(1) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to district superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations."

The purpose of the Commission on Equitable Compensation is to seek fairness both for pastors and for churches. Fairness is a complex matter which involves the values of each ordained clergy person and the lay persons who constitute the membership of each local church. The Book of Discipline is clear that "the primary responsibility for payment of pastoral base compensation remains with individual pastoral charges." (¶722.4 and ¶248.13).

The Commission on Equitable Compensation has spent considerable time in examining the situation of our clergy and local churches in light of the mandates of the Book of Discipline. We have also considered with much prayer and thought these historical and theological foundations for our work:

1. Jesus says, "the laborer is worthy of his hire," (Luke 10:7) and Paul reminds us "you shall not muzzle the ox when it is treading out the grain," (I Timothy 5:18; Deuteronomy 25:4).
2. Wesley was concerned that clergy have a responsibility not to be "in debt so as to embarrass you in your work" (¶425).
3. The great commission to go into all the world, preaching, teaching, and baptizing brings with it a cost. Systems of clergy support which foster the use of the right pastor in the right place, hold up the hope of seeing the great commission bear its promised fruit.
4. The Commission on Equitable Compensation embraces the great commandment to love our neighbors as we love ourselves by wanting for each pastor what our members want for themselves - compensation adequate to free persons for the work of pastoral ministry.

Through our praying, thinking, and working together as laity and clergy from across this Conference, we make the following recommendations whose implementation, we believe, will help us move toward fairness for both churches and pastors as we support ordained ministry in the charges of the NC Annual Conference.

I. Recommended Schedule of Base Compensation for 1996.

A. Salary Schedule

1. We recommend that the minimum base compensation level increase be $848.00 for those serving full time for 1996 and 65% of this amount be set for student minimum base compensation.

PASTORS UNDER FULL-TIME APPOINTMENT (Full Connection, Associate, Probationary, Local Pastor)	1995	1996
Salary	$23,626	$24,474
Utilities	2,000	2,000
	$25,626	$26,474
STUDENTS (Local Pastors or Conference Members)
Salary	$14,657	$15,208
Utilities	2,000	2,000
	$16,657	$17,208

2. We recommend that the full-time minimum base compensation levels be adjusted annually by the percentage change in salary (salary, travel, utilities) for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the NC Annual Conference. We also wish to enter into dialogue with CFA regarding the issue of the percentage and/or dollar increase for equitable compensation verses DS salaries.

B. Travel Expense

Although travel is reimbursed by the charge as an item of pastoral expense, it is expected that the charge would provide at least $2,400 for travel expense. We encourage each charge to establish a plan to reimburse the pastor for all legitimate business mileage at the current rate established by the IRS. Where such a plan is established for reimbursement of business mileage, equitable salary compensation support shall not be effected by payment of travel expenses. However, where a reimbursement plan is not implemented and a travel allowance is given, any travel allowance in excess of $2,400 will result in a reduction of equitable compensation support.

C. Pension Program

Charges receiving Equitable Compensation Fund support are responsible for paying the total amount required for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan based on their pastor's cash salary (including funds from the Equitable Compensation Fund, Duke Endowment, and any other sources), and housing (percentage of cash salary designated by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits or housing allowance, if provided in lieu of parsonage). Cash salary plus housing is Plan Compensation.

II. Principles Governing the Use of Equitable Compensation Funds:

The Pastor's salary is the responsibility of the charge; therefore, the charges of the North Carolina Annual Conference should be so arranged as to be able to assume full salary support. The Commission urges each charge receiving Equitable Compensation Funds, its pastor, and the district superintendent responsible for that charge to administer the affairs of that charge to the end that it may move as rapidly as possible toward total self-support. To enable the Conference, the Commission, and the district superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, in harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

A. In considering the salary for the charge, all income, including salary, bonuses, and other benefits not specifically excluded, are included as salary in determining appropriations from the Equitable Compensation Fund. Salary support for retired supply, interim supply, part-time local pastors, less than full-time

Conference members, or associate pastors in other than larger parish arrangement of churches will not be available.

B. Charges must be so arranged that no more than one-third of the total salary will come from the Equitable Compensation Fund on the first application from the charge. Charges seeking more than one-third supplement must provide specific information with their application, indicating the reasons for their inability to meet these guidelines. Information shall be made available to the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the district superintendents regarding the term of Equitable Compensation support, giving the date of its inception and the present amount of support being received by the respective charges.

When the division of a charge is desired, Equitable Compensation Funds will be used only upon the recommendation of the Bishop, of the "Bishop's Task Force on the Division of Circuits," and the approval of the cabinet.

In the division of a charge in which one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such a church shall assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of all apportionments.

1. The remainder of the charge in such a division assumes full pastoral support and its proportionate share of all apportionments. In no case will the Commission on Equitable Compensation provide more than one-third of the salary required for such a division.
2. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, each newly created charge must pay initially two-thirds of the pastoral support established by the division.

C. Churches receiving Equitable Compensation Funds shall conduct an annual financial/stewardship campaign in the second year of receiving Equitable Compensation Funds to accurately gauge the level of financial support the local church can reasonably expect from its members.

D. The Commission on Equitable Compensation further recommends that each charge which is receiving, or shall hereafter receive, Equitable Compensation Fund assistance, shall reduce this aid by at least ten (10) percent each year until the charge has achieved full self-support in ten years. The Commission wants to be clear at this point that its intent in this recommendation is that the charge will accept in full whatever increases are made in the minimum salary for their pastor each year and receive ten (10) percent less each year in aid from Equitable Compensation Funds than granted the previous year.

E. Grants from the Commission on Equitable Compensation for Housing will be discontinued by the following method:

Date	Reduction
01/01/93	25%
01/01/94	25%
01/01/96	25%

F. Any Equitable Compensation Fund supplement will be terminated immediately upon information that the pastor has taken full-time secular employment. Such a charge may be reinstated at such time as its pastor returns to full-time or student status. Exceptions to this provision may be permitted only by the approval of the executive committee of the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon the recommendation of the district superintendent of the pastor seeking for emergency reasons to be employed outside of his/her ministerial responsibilities.

G. Equitable Compensation Funds are sent to charges who have applied for their use to provide their pastor with the minimum salary established by the Annual Conference. The monthly salary supplement checks sent by the Conference treasurer are to be deposited by the charge treasurer in the church or charge bank account. The checks are not to be endorsed and cashed by the pastor.

H. Ethnic Minority and Women Ministers: Each ethnic minority or woman minister, who is an associate member or a member in full connection of the North Carolina Annual Conference, serving full-time, and who, in the opinion of the cabinet is rendering unusually effective service, will receive an incremental increase of $200 per service year, not to exceed $2,000 per year, for ten (10) years of full-time service, when such clergy person's salary and utilities is equal to the Conference minimum salary, but less than the Conference minimum salary plus $200 per year up to ten (10) years of full-time service as an associate member or a member in full connection.

Said incremental increase is to be administered by the Commission on Equitable Compensation upon recommendation of the cabinet, approval by the charge conference, and the district superintendent. Further, the local church shall be responsible for MPP and CPP payments on any incremental increase. This policy does not restrict the Equitable Compensation Commission, upon the recommendation of the cabinet, from making additional grants in extraordinary circumstances.

I. Churches or charges applying for Equitable Compensation Funds shall submit a request on the appropriate form supplied by the district superintendent. The request shall be carefully analyzed by the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent. The form must have the signatures of the pastor, recording secretary of the charge conference, and the district superintendent affixed to it, and the request must have been approved by the Charge Conference.

The Commission plans further consultation and study with other Conference agencies and resources to seek ways to more adequately provide for the temporal needs of our pastors and churches.

Robert E. Bergland, Chairperson

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION, COUNCIL ON

III. FINANCIAL POLICIES

The United Methodist Church is a connectional church, and all local churches participate in the mission and service giving of the larger church. The outreach and mission giving opportunities of the Connection are distributed to the churches of the NC Conference by means of a formula based on the financial performance in each local church. Every effort is made to develop a computation which is shared with fairness by all. Church leaders are encouraged to interpret the work of the Connection so that each congregation understands these funds to be a necessary extension of the ministry and mission of the church beyond its local organization.

A. APPORTIONMENTS:

1. The funds to be apportioned are:
   - World Service and Conference Benevolences
   - Ministerial Support and Connectional Administration
   - Episcopal Fund
   - Interdenominational Cooperation Fund
   - Black Colleges
   - African University Fund
   - Mission Initiatives Fund
   - SEJ Missional Growth Fund
2. Formula Effective January 1, 1994 (for all except SEJ Missional Growth Fund): The Apportionments for each year shall be based on the average of the total monies disbursed by each church in the four years immediately previous to the apportionment year less the approved exclusions each year, or on the most recent year less the approved exclusions, whichever is lower. The change in apportionments from the previous year shall not increase or decrease in excess of 15%. The exclusions are: Payments on World Service and Conference Benevolences, Ministerial Support and Administration, and Episcopal Fund; principal and interest on indebtedness; buildings and improvements; local benevolences paid directly by the local church; General and Conference Advance Specials; Ten Dollar Club; up to $4,500 for travel paid by a charge for each pastor; United Methodist Student Day; Human Relations Day; Peace and Justice Sunday; Native American Awareness Sunday; One Great Hour of Sharing; World Communion Sunday; Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign; UMW Funds sent to district or conference treasurer; housing allowance paid in lieu of furnished parsonage to a minister serving under Episcopal appointment in a charge of the Conference; offerings taken for disasters as designated by the Disaster Preparedness Committee and the Resident Bishop.
3. Beginning with all new congregations started in the NC Conference after July 1, 1993, the following formula shall be used to determine a new congregation's base for setting apportioned contributions for mission and service giving:

BUDGET YEAR	BASE FORMULA	MAXIMUM % INCREASE
C	4A ÷ 4	No Cap
D	3A + B ÷ 4	No Cap
E	2A + B + C ÷ 4	No Cap
F	A + B + C + D ÷ 4*	No Cap
G	B + C + D + E ÷ 4	15% Cap

* Standard formula

 Maximum % increase cap shall be the percentage determined by Annual Conference

4. Upon action of SEJ, the SEJ Missional Fund shall continue based on a minimum goal of 50 cents per member per year ($2.00) over the four-year period 1993-1996 inclusive. This is based upon the membership at the close of the calendar year 1991 as reported in the 1992 Journal. For the 1997 - 2000 quadrennium, this apportionment will be based on membership at the close of calendar year 1995 as reported in the 1996 Journal.

5. Apportionments to the churches shall be made by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA) based on the current formula. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from funds received up to the amount fixed by the Annual Conference. In the event receipts shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata. In the light of possible unforeseen and emergency need within the Annual Conference, the CFA is authorized to make supplementary appropriations between sessions of the Annual Conference. Such supplementary appropriations shall be made only from available undesignated funds and shall be reported in the Conference Journal for purposes of information.
6. Apportionments will be delivered from the treasurer's office to the district superintendents by July 17, 1995.

B. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Apportionments: United Methodist Student Day, Human Relations Day, Peace with Justice Sunday, Native American Awareness Sunday, One Great Hour of Sharing, World Communion Sunday.

C. No Conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the Council on Ministries for program budget items or the CFA for all non-program budget items. All funds granted to a non-conference agency must be spent consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.

D. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another.

E. All General Church Funds (World Service, Episcopal, Ministerial Education, Black Colleges, African University, Interdenominational Cooperation, Mission Initiatives, General Administration) and College Sustaining Fund, College Debt Retirement, Past Service Liability Fund, Jurisdictional Conference, SEJ Missional Growth Fund, and Methodist Building Routine and Capital Maintenance Funds will be raised and paid out in the same year. All other funds will be raised and paid out in the subsequent year on a schedule determined by the CFA.

F. Investment Policy: The investment of the funds of the conference shall be such that funds available for mission are maximized in a manner consistent with the preservation of capital and with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.

G. Monies paid by the churches shall be reported to the statistician by the pastors at the end of the year on the Table II, Financial Report. The Table I and Table II reports for 1995 shall be due to the statistician no later than January 31, 1996.

H. The Council may enact its own bylaws governing meetings, quorum, and other matters of procedure as authorized in the Discipline, ¶ 709.5.b.

I. The Council shall maintain a central treasury for all Conference agencies as authorized by ¶ 710.11 of the Discipline, and the 1953 session of the Annual Conference. Annual Conference boards and agencies, including those separately incorporated, are required to maintain their funds on deposit in the central treasury unless exempted by the Annual Conference or the Discipline. Exemptions are granted to the Methodist Home for Children, the Methodist Retirement Homes, the Colleges, the United Methodist Foundation, Board of Missions, Inc., and Asbury Homes.

J. All new programs or entities which would not be funded by an existing approved budget shall be referred to the CFA for review of budget needs and supplemental funds available prior to approval by Annual Conference. If the item is approved, the next year's budget shall be amended to include the necessary funds based on the CFA recommendation.

IV. APPROVAL TO SOLICIT FUNDS

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the District or Conference. The CFA continues to recommend that a moratorium on Conference capital campaigns be declared and 100% "Missional Service Giving" be the quadrennial priority. The Council also recommends that stewardship continue to be a missional focus, Conference priority.

A. Christmas Offering for District programs and/or projects.
B. The Commission on Congregational Development for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.
C. The Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.
D. The State Commission on Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions of higher education.
E. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; Louisburg College; Methodist College; and North Carolina Wesleyan College for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto with the understanding that such solicitation or private campaign may not be taken directly into local churches of the Conference through solicitation in classes or other groups or by the use of membership lists (either partial or in entirety), or contact with pastors without approval of the CFA.
F. The United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
G. The Disaster Preparedness Committee upon joint decision of the committee and the Resident Bishop to respond to disasters within the bounds of the NC Annual Conference.
H. Asbury Homes, Incorporated, as provided in its charter.
I. Golden Cross Sunday observance for optional offering.

V. DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' SALARY

Although CFA continues to recommend that the percentage change in district superintendents' salary be the same as the average percentage change in salary (salary, travel, utilities) for the prior year for all full-time pastors serving local charges in the NC Annual Conference (4.8847% for 1995), the Cabinet has requested that for 1996 and 1997 salary increases for district superintendents be one-half the percentage increase in minimum salary as set by Annual Conference. With the report from the Commission on Equitable Compensation recommending that increase to be based on the Consumer Price Index -South (2.7% for 1994), the 1996 salary for district superintendents would increase by 1.35%, to $63,634.00.

VI. ORGANIZATION and PROCEDURE (presented for information only)

A. The CFA uses McGladrey & Pullen, Raleigh, NC, as auditors.
B. The president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of the CFA shall serve as the executive committee of the Council. The Council shall elect two additional members to the executive committee from its voting membership.
C. The Conference treasurer will include in his monthly financial reports, for any given month, all monies received in the office by 8:30 a.m. on the 5th day of the following month, except when the 5th day falls on a weekend or holiday the report will include the funds received by 8:30 a.m. on the following workday.
D. The treasurer may approve minor overexpenditures of a budget line item up to $1,000 or 5% of the line item, whichever is less. A request for such overexpenditure shall be submitted in writing in advance and shall state the reason for the request. The overexpenditure will be reported to CFA and will be listed in the Conference Journal.

E. Any Conference or non-conference agency which receives Conference funds in excess of $1,000 shall submit, with any budget request, an annual detailed audited budget report of all receipts, disbursements and assets. A statement in effect that "All funds granted have been spent consistent with the social principles of The United Methodist Church" will be furnished to CFA upon submission of the audit. Such reports received may be reported in whole or in summary form in the Conference Journal and shall remain on file in the treasurer's office. An agency may be exempted (for just cause) from this reporting requirement by CFA for non-program agencies, or in the case of program agencies, by CFA upon recommendation of the Council on Ministries.

F. A carry-over of budgeted funds remaining (not including any supplemental appropriations) of up to 10% of the amount raised for the subsequent year will be allowed for Conference budget line items.

G. Funds appropriated to a board or agency must be spent in the calendar year of the appropriation unless otherwise allowed.

H. Supplemental Appropriations: The Council will consider requests for supplemental appropriations in the following priority order:

First Priority

- Salary and benefit items previously approved according to the policies of the Annual Conference or General Conference (i.e. Equitable Salary Funds, COM staff salaries, etc.)
- Programs authorized and mandated by the NC Annual Conference which are not included in the Annual Conference budget for that financial year (i.e. Office of Planned Giving, Vision 2000, etc.)
- Amounts required by the Past Service Funding Plan adopted jointly by the Board of Pensions and the CFA which are not raised by the Board of Pensions annual budget requests.
- Funds appropriated to the Task Force on Hunger and Human Need to assist various ministries across the Annual Conference.

Second Priority

- New creative programs to respond to emerging needs and to expand the mission of the Annual Conference which are not included in the Conference budget for that year. Such programs will be funded through supplemental appropriations only on a short-term basis.
- Emergency needs and programs in the life of the boards and agencies of the Annual Conference. The petitioning group shall make such requests in writing to the treasurer's office at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.

Third Priority

- Any other type of funding requests.

Procedure for seeking supplemental appropriations:

1. All requests for supplemental appropriations shall be made to the CFA President and/or the Conference Treasurer's office in writing at least 15 working days before a scheduled CFA meeting.
2. The normal procedure for requests for supplemental appropriations will be a review by the CFA supplemental appropriations committee who will make a recommendation to the full Council.
3. If an emergency request for supplemental appropriations is received between scheduled meetings, the CFA supplemental appropriations committee will consider the request and direct the Conference treasurer to forward it to the membership via mail with a recommendation for action.

I. Interest shall be paid to/from the Board of Pensions, Insurance Fund, Blackburn Scholarship Fund, Spirit for Tomorrow Campaign (until they are authorized to be transferred to operational funds), Camps Endowment for Maintenance, Church Extension Redevelopment, and Church Extension Salary Endowment funds using the rate of the conference interest bearing checking account, compounded monthly, on monthly average balances held by the Conference treasurer.

J. Retroactive adjustments for transfer or posting delays will be made to the Board of Pensions and the Insurance Fund accounts for earnings calculations.

K. Funds in excess of operational needs for the Board of Pensions and the Insurance fund are invested in the United Methodist Foundation.

L. In order to prevent a loss of funds due to investment risk, and in order to have funds available for emergency use, the goal of the Council is to maintain reserve funds equal to 10% of the conference operating budget. Both cash reserves, realized, and unrealized gains/losses shall be considered as a part of the 10% reserve goal. Funds in excess of cash requirements shall be invested in the United Methodist Foundation in proportion to the percent of reserves on hand.

M. Mailing address labels will be available for a nominal fee to conference agencies, clergy and lay members of Annual Conference or other United Methodists for church related uses.

II. Blue Cross/Blue Shield

A. General

1. The Insurance Committee mails the health insurance proposal to the members immediately before each Annual Conference session. The rapid escalation in health care costs makes planning difficult. The committee considers the financial information that is available through April 20 before adopting their recommendations.

2. Insurance companies who make inquiries,for the purpose of submitting proposals, will be notified of a $200 processing fee. This fee will help cover the costs of preparation and processing of the information necessary for proposals.
3. Health Screening will be sponsored by the Insurance Committee on a biannual basis. The Insurance Committee encourages everyone to take advantage of this service in 1996. For each subscriber in the Conference plan who participates in the health screening, the Insurance Committee will donate $2.00 for handicapped camperships.
4. The Insurance Committee is to be made up of representatives from the following boards and agencies: 2, Board of Pension and Health Benefits; 2, Commission on Health and Human Services; 2, Joint Committee on Disability; 2, Board of Ordained Ministry; 1, Board of Diaconal Ministry; 2, Lay Members appointed by the Board of Laity; 1, Conference Treasurer (without vote); 1, Conference Controller (without vote); 1, Conference Group Administrator (without vote); 1, Director of Ministerial Relations (without vote). The representative should be elected at the organizational meeting of these boards and agencies.

B. Policy and Rules

1. The extent of the benefits provided by the insurance coverage is decided by Annual Conference action. Administrative rules and rates are adopted by the Insurance Committee. The specific carrier for insurance coverage is selected by the Insurance Committee.
2. Effective January 1, 1995, the insurance plan adopted a Preferred Provider Organization system with Blue Cross Blue Shield. Benefits will be paid at 90% for preferred hospitals and 70% for non-participating hospitals. Participants under the Medicare Supplement will not be affected by this change. Details may be obtained from the Treasurer's office.
3. Effective January 1, 1995, the yearly maximum benefit for out-patient psychiatric services increased to $6000. All other nervous and mental services remain the same.
4. Effective January 1, 1995, eligible clergy received disability coverage through the Basic Protection Plan of the General Board of Pensions. This benefit will equal 20% of the DAC. This benefit will be in addition to the 40% of the DAC now covered under CPP.
5. Pre-admission certification is required for in-patient hospital services. Contact Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC at 1-800-672-7897. Contact Blue Cross Blue Shield within 48 hours following an emergency admission. A brochure outlining the details of this program is available from the Treasurer's office. Subscribers covered by the Medicare Supplement are not subject to pre-certification.
6. The penalty for failing to obtain pre-certification of in-patient hospital admissions will be as follows: The co-payment rate for in-hospital charges will be increased from 20% to 50% for non-certified days.
7. When an active subscriber reaches age 65 (clergy or lay), he/she should sign up for the Medicare program. As long as he/she is actively employed, there is no change in benefits. Medicare is the secondary carrier until retirement. At the time of retirement, the participant must be enrolled in Medicare parts A & B to be eligible for the Medicare Supplement.
8. The Insurance Committee provides an appeal process for any participant who feels that claims have not been adequately satisfied. A written appeal with all pertinent information should be made to the Insurance Committee chairperson with a copy to the Conference Treasurer's Office.

9. A service fee of 1.5% per month for delinquent accounts is charged to help defray the cost of paying premiums for participants making late payments.
10. Payment for the church's portion of the insurance programs must be made by the church/charge treasurer. Clergy personal checks cannot be accepted as payment for the church's portion. The life insurance premium is paid by the church/charge.
11. Premiums for health and life insurance may be paid in ADVANCE on a monthly, quarterly, semi-annual, or annual basis.
12. When there is a change of address, or a change in family status, it is the insured's responsibility to notify the Treasurer's Office within 30 days. The toll free number to the Methodist Building in Raleigh is 1-800-849-4433 where a staff person continues to provide personal attention to insurance matters.
13. Health insurance for the subscriber may continue for 90 days after employment is terminated or credentials are surrendered provided that full payment of the monthly premiums is made in advance. The continuation of life insurance beyond the termination of employment is not permitted by the life insurance carrier.
14. Laypersons or clergy on maternity/family medical leave may continue their insurance coverage, as long as the premiums are paid.
15. The Insurance Committee may terminate the coverage for non-payment of premiums. Insurance payments which are 60 days late (from the date of the bill) will result in termination of benefits. Termination will take place on the last day of the month in which the 60th day has occurred. Benefits may be reinstated without lapse in coverage if full payment is made within 30 days of the termination date. Thereafter, insurance coverage may be reinstated upon full payment and coverage will be effective the first day of the following month. The one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply to all reinstatements where a lapse in coverage occurs.
16. Clergy or laypersons who choose not to join the group within 30 days of becoming eligible, or clergy, or laypersons who choose to terminate their coverage in the group, shall be required to submit in writing 2 years in advance, a request to re-enroll in the group. Adding family members or changing the type of coverage while enrolled is not subject to this rule. A one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions after enrollment will continue to be required. Appeals to the two-year rule will be heard by the Insurance Committee on an individual basis.
17. Eligible students are excluded from the two-year rule, but not the one-year pre-existing period. An exception to this rule would be possible (by 2/3 vote of the Insurance Committee) when a subscriber is transferring from another insurance plan to the Conference plan.
18. At the time of retirement, clergy become eligible for coverage under the Board of Pensions group insurance plan currently administered by Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC. The two-year rule does not apply to a retiring clergy who wishes to obtain coverage through this plan.
19. In case of termination of coverage, the church is responsible for the premium until the Treasurer's Office is notified in writing of such termination.
20. Effective January 1, 1996, the Two Year Rule will be abolished. The following rules will then apply to applicants to the Conference insurance plan.
    a. January 1, 1996 through January 31, 1996 the Conference will hold open enrollment for the Blue Cross Blue Shield health insurance plan. Those eligible participants who wish to enroll in the plan should obtain enrollment forms from the Conference Treasurer's Office. All completed enrollment forms must be received no later than the close of business January 31, 1996.

b. Effective February 1, 1996, participants applying at any time other than the initial enrollment period (thirty days from the date first eligible) would be subject to the one year pre-existing conditions clause. The exception to this rule would be possible by a change in life status causing loss of coverage: divorce, death of spouse, loss of spouse's employment, reduction of hours regarding spouse's coverage.

III. Statement of Intent

The NC Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired clergy. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.

IV. Eligibility Policies

If you enroll in this program, you are eligible for your coverage to begin on the first day of the month or following your first day of work.

Health insurance and life insurance through the Conference groups will be available to:

A. Clergy who are members in full connection of the Conference, probationary members, associate members, student local clergy, part-time local clergy, interim supplies (covered as lay employees) serving full time or part-time under appointment in:
   1. One of the churches or charges of the NC Conference.
   2. One of the institutions or agencies of this Conference receiving financial support from the Conference.
   3. An institution or agency established to provide a ministry or service provided that:
      (a) Clergy shall elect in writing within 30 days after the appointment to continue the coverage. If the coverage is discontinued, the two-year rule and a one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions will apply before re-establishing the health insurance coverage.
      (b) Clergy shall be responsible for payment of all health insurance premiums by the due date.
   4. Clergy eligible for life and health insurance through the Conference are entitled to these benefits.

B. Clergy on Leave of Absence provided that a written request to continue the coverage shall be filed with the Conference treasurer within 30 days after the beginning of the leave of absence.

C. Lay Employees:
   1. Each church/charge must apply for a group insurance contract with the Conference Treasurer's Office in order to offer insurance to eligible lay employees. An insurance administrator must be appointed at each church/charge to manage insurance policies dealing with lay staff. This contract may be obtained from the Conference Treasurer's Office. It is the responsibility of each local church/charge and its officers to be apprised of the parameters of the Conference insurance plan.
   2. Each local church must have at least 75% participation of the eligible lay employees to participate in the Conference plan. Those churches who currently have less than 75% participation will be allowed to continue their current coverage of lay employees now under the Conference plan. Diaconal Ministers are not subject to this rule.

3. The employee must work a minimum of 25 hours weekly and must be enrolled in the period specified for initial enrollment - this period being within 30 days of date first eligible. The two-year rule applies to late applicants with a one-year waiting period for pre-existing conditions.
4. The Committee recommends that the church provide this benefit to lay employees with the same premium payment policy as recommended for clergy.

MINISTERS' MOVING EXPENSE, COMMITTEE ON

Effective Date - January 1, 1996

The Ministers' Moving Expense Committee met to study moving expense needs and policies.

The Committee makes the following recommendations.

I. Eligibility
   - A. Pastors of local churches continuing under appointment to local churches within the Conference, district superintendents, and Conference ministerial staff whose salaries are paid from the Conference treasurer's office.
   - B. Pastors in section I.A. who become Conference Evangelists upon moving from an appointment to new residence. Their moving expense to return to any of the above categories will also be paid.
   - C. Pastors in section I.A. who retire from serving appointment or who assume approved disability leave or return into active service from approved disability leave.
   - D. Widows or widowers of ministers in section I.A. upon moving from place of appointment to new residence.
   - E. Pastors moving into an appointment in the North Carolina Conference to assume full-time or student appointments under section I.A.
   - F. Interim Supply pastors
   - G. Pastors being appointed to leave of absence are entitled to moving expense for one leave of absence.
   - H. Persons moving who are not defined above will not be eligible to make claim.

II. Payment of Claims
   - A. Payment will be granted to all who are eligible to make claims as follows:
     1. Active ministers in section I.A., I.B., I.F. and I.G. (except retiring ministers, widows, widowers, and clergy couples) will receive a base payment of $125.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,200.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expense.
     2. Retiring ministers, widows, or widowers will receive a base payment of $125.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,900.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. The retirement amount may be granted upon request when taking disability leave in lieu of receiving the retirement benefit at retirement.

3. Clergy couples will receive a base payment of $250.00 as well as reimbursement of costs up to $1,300.00 with submission of paid receipts for actual moving expenses. If only one minister of the clergy couple is re-appointed, section II.A.1. will apply.

B. Travel Allowance: An allowance of $1.00 per mile will be granted to all who are eligible to make claim. The mileage will be computed from appointment to appointment, or from the appointment to the Conference boundary, or the appointment to the residence/Conference boundary (in case of retirement) whichever is less. Clergy couples will receive $1.00 per mile as defined above.

C. The Conference treasurer will make payment to eligible ministers as soon as the district superintendents have received the completed document, "So You're Moving" checklist properly signed along with all appropriate receipts to substantiate expenses. This will fulfill the 1992 Discipline, ¶270.2f(4), which states The chairperson of the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations, the chairperson of the Board of Trustees, and pastor shall make an annual review of the church owned parsonage(s) to assure proper maintenance." Moving expense funds will be withheld by the Conference treasurer if the district superintendent determines that the parsonage was inadequately cleaned or was damaged beyond normal wear and tear. If an inspection by the district superintendent and the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee or the Parsonage Committee reveals monetary needs for cleaning or repairs, or for having the fuel tank filled, the remaining balance of the moving expense due said pastor shall be made payable to the respective district to pay for needed cleaning or repairs, or for filling the fuel tank. If the district superintendent or the moving pastor is NOT in agreement with said Pastor-Parish Relations Committee or the Parsonage Committee, the superintendent may request the Arbitration Committee of the Clergy Living Committee to inspect the parsonage involved and give an impartial recommendation.

D. The Conference treasurer will make an advance payment up to $600.00 to eligible ministers to cover the expense of deposit and fees for moving expenses prior to their move, upon approval by the district superintendents. Any money that is left over shall be refunded to the Conference treasurer.

E. No additional claim can be made against a local church, district, or the Conference for payment of moving expenses.

F. The base payment of $125.00 is intended to cover incidental moving expenses. Therefore, the cost of boarding and moving domestic animals, the moving of recreational vehicles, boats, mobile homes, etc., are not eligible for reimbursement.

III. Review Committee

A. There will be a Review Committee consisting of two persons appointed by the chairperson of the Council on Finance and Administration, one district superintendent appointed by the Bishop, the Conference treasurer, and the director of Ministerial Relations.

B. The Review Committee will consider and have final authority over any questionable or disallowed claim or special claim beyond allowances set in the approved plan.

MINISTRIES TO UNWED MOTHERS AND UNBORN CHILDREN, TASK FORCE ON

The Task Force on Ministries to Unwed Mothers and Unborn Children was established by action of the 1994 Annual Conference. This task force of nine persons was appointed to study the feasibility of establishing a NC United Methodist home and/or other type of viable abortion alternative ministry.

Based on our research of group homes and abortion alternative programs in NC, specifically our annual conference geographical area, we recommend the following:

1. Change the wording from "Unwed Mothers and Unborn Children" to "Women in Crisis Pregnancies and Their Unborn Children."
2. Develop and establish a group home. The task force will consult with the Methodist Home for Children in the establishment of this home. (This task force requests its continuance in order to bring a proposal to the 1996 Annual Conference. This proposal would be on how the group home may be funded and how it would relate to the Annual Conference structure.)
3. Encourage the concept of and the use of "Sheltering Homes" within local churches along with providing training on how to become a "Sheltering Home."
4. Provide a list of United Methodist and other Christian curricula on human sexuality and life planning courses as well as a list of qualified persons to teach these courses.
5. Provide training for pastors on how to counsel women in crisis pregnancies.
6. Have the districts develop community outreach programs locally to connect women in crisis pregnancies to those agencies and services they need for immediate and continued support.

Jimmie Shuler, Chairperson

MISSION AND SERVICE GIVING, TASK FORCE ON

Last year the Mission and Service Giving Task Force presented a detailed report in seven sections:

Section I	How to increase the sense of ownership in mission and service giving
Section II	The equitableness of the current apportionment formula
Section III	Current levels of giving and the effect of diminished contributions to Conference Institutions
Section IV	Anticipated Conference-wide fund raising
Section V	Pension Funding and Health Insurance Factors
Section VI	Computer model excluding equitable salaries
Section VII	Fiscal Responsibility by the Annual Conference

All sections of the report were adopted with the exception of Section III regarding Institutions. Essentially that section of the report gave information regarding the resources of each of the homes, colleges, and camps, and recommended that the amounts to be allocated to each of these institutions via the conference budget, not to exceed the amounts provided in the 1992 Conference budget.

After reviewing this matter in the ensuing 12 months, it is clear that the Conference Council on Ministries, the Council on Finance and Administration, members of this Annual Conference at the annual sessions, and the actual experience of amounts paid on apportioned funds already serve the purposes recommended by the Task Force in Section III.

Therefore, we make no further recommendation regarding restrictions on allocations to the various conference institutions.

Bishop Minnick, I move the adoption of this report. It is my understanding that this completes the work of this Task Force, and I request that the Task Force on Mission and Service Giving be discontinued.

Robert L. Wallace, Chairperson

ORDAINED MINISTRY, BOARD OF

Introduction: We, the members of the North Carolina Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, are pleased and privileged to present to the clergy session of the North Carolina Annual Conference our report for 1995.

Our board is a strong, representative body from the clergy and laity of this Annual Conference that wrestles constantly with its responsibilities outlined so carefully in The Book of Discipline, 1992 (¶733.2). These duties require the board to exercise strong care in its examination of candidates for ordination which is both fair and diligent, seeking always to encourage and sustain those in the process and to provide resources for growth with those already involved with ministry to local churches and other places of mission.

To provide this report, your Board of Ordained Ministry members have given nine (9) full days in meetings and interviews along with innumerable times for committee assignments. All of this is summarized in the names and recommendations found in this submission of our work for your approval.

The duties of the Board of Ordained Ministry include:

1) To assume the primary responsibility for the enlistment of ordained clergy, with due regard for the inclusive nature of the Church. It provides guidance for these persons in the process of education, training, and ordination.
2) To examine all applicants as to their fitness for ordained ministry and their election as a) Full-time Local Pastors, b) Associate Members, c) Probationary Members, and d) Full Members of the Annual Conference.
3) To interview and report recommendations concerning a) students to be appointed to attend school, b) candidates for ordination as Deacon, and c) candidates for ordination as Elder.
4) To interview applicants and make recommendations concerning changes in ministerial relationships: Leaves of Absence, Retirement, Sabbatical Leaves, Disability Leaves, Less-than-Full-time appointments, and Readmission to or the termination of Conference membership.
5) To provide support services for the ordained minister's career development, including personal and career counseling, continuing education, assistance in preparation for retirement, and matters pertaining to ministerial morale.
6) To provide a means of evaluating the effectiveness of the clergy in the Annual Conference.
7) To interpret the high ethical standards of ministry as set forth in The Book of Discipline, 1992, and to study matters pertaining to character.
8) To administer the portion of the Ministerial Education Fund for use by the Annual Conference.

For a number of years we have shared a concern for the number of persons who are entering into a variety of full-time positions in the Church, particularly in ordained ministry. The number of persons retiring, seeking a leave of absence, transferring to another conference, etc., has been increasing significantly in the last decade without an equally significant increase in the number of persons entering into the candidacy process. We have satisfied the need for pastors in our conference recently by transferring persons from other annual conferences and receiving persons from other denominations as a shortfall of available persons develops during the appointive process. Our Committee on Enlistment has become active in the encouragement of persons to attend well planned convocations that are designed to motivate individuals to be open to the Call of God to enter into the ordained ministry.

This year we are pleased to report that seventeen (17) persons will be ordained as Deacons, fifteen (15) as Probationary Members and two (2) as Associate Members of the North Carolina Conference. Our class for Full Membership numbers sixteen (16) with fifteen (15) being ordained Elder and another to be elected to Full Membership following a period on probation after having his orders recognized as Elder. However, twenty-one (21) will be retiring, leaving another gap in the available persons to serve.

Several reports published some ten years ago seemed to indicate that about this time we would be experiencing an oversupply of pastors for the churches that would be available. This condition may exist in some areas of our denomination and in others as well, but the past few years have seen the need to reach out to other areas of United Methodism and to other denominations to fill North Carolina Conference appointments. Some have said that our problem lies in the abandonment of a strong enlistment program among our youth for all full-time positions in the church in music and education as well as ordained ministry. In years past, the challenge for full-time service was offered at camping experiences, in college campus ministries, and at many youth gatherings. In whatever way these calls to commitment are still being offered, the response is not what we need to continue providing ministries to our churches in these vital areas--pastoral ministry, education, and music.

Renewed encouragement by pastors and laity of those who express an interest in committing their lives to service in the ordained ministry is the particular focus of our board. Some new opportunities for that focus will be developed in the coming year, and we invite your support...for the future of our Church!

Various committee reports follow this introduction and are significant for the various areas of concern they address. All of this material, as well as our supportive services during the year, have been provided through the Office of Ministerial Relations under the leadership of Dr. Kermit L. Braswell, Robbie Barrett, and Lynn Jefferson. We are indebted to all three of these individuals for their excellent work and dedication to the Ordained Ministry of our Annual Conference.

REQUIREMENTS FOR MINISTRY

The Board of Ordained Ministry reminds the Annual Conference and the ministerial candidates preparing for membership relationships to the North Carolina Annual Conference that several actions of past Annual Conference sessions have established requirements that go beyond the basic steps found in The Book of Discipline.

LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED FROM 1989-1993

The Board requires that ministers having completed the basic five-year Course of Study continue to attend the Course of Study School in the summer, enrolling in at least four years of Advanced Studies during any six-year period. These courses, offered on a seminary level, would increase the competency of our Local Pastors (1980).

LOCAL PASTORS LICENSED IN 1994 AND FOLLOWING

It is required that they complete the five-year Ministerial Course of Study and a minimum of sixty (60) semester hours toward the Bachelor of Arts or an equivalent degree in a college or university listed by the University Senate, or competency equivalence through an external degree program at a college or university listed by the University Senate (1988).

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

The academic requirement is a four-year Baccalaureate degree from a college or university listed by the University Senate. (1974)

PROBATIONARY MEMBERSHIP

CONFERENCE RELATIONS, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Conference Relations has as its primary responsibility the assisting of any clergy who seek to change or terminate their relationship with the Annual Conference. Changes in conference relationship may occur in any of the following ways: 1) discontinuation, 2) leave of absence, 3) retirement, 4) sabbatical leave, 5) termination of conference relationship (surrender of credentials).

The Conference Relations Committee meets with the person who is seeking a change in conference relationship upon the request of that person, or upon request of the Cabinet or the Board of Ordained Ministry. The committee attempts to determine what is appropriate in each case by posing questions, offering counsel, and providing support. The committee then discusses the request and acts upon it by making a recommendation to the Board of Ordained Ministry. In any event, the person requesting the change and the Conference Relations Committee acting on the request must follow the requirements in The Book of Discipline.

The Book of Discipline provides specific guidelines applying to each of the categories of conference membership. All those persons in the various categories of conference membership (other than the effective relationship) should remember to familiarize themselves with and adhere to the disciplinary guidelines which apply to that category. The Committee on Conference Relations issues a yearly reminder of these guidelines through a letter approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry at its annual meeting. Following the appropriate guidelines is particularly important for clergy on leave of absence; for these persons, exercise of any ministerial function is restricted to the Charge Conference in which their membership is held. The Conference Relations Committee would take this opportunity to reiterate that pastors on leave of absence cannot perform weddings, conduct funerals, or administer the sacraments outside the bounds (both geographical and membership bounds) of that charge conference.

Every Spring (since 1987) the Conference Relations Committee has hosted a luncheon for those who will be retiring from the North Carolina Annual Conference at the June session of that year. At this luncheon, the retirees and their spouses are informed about various matters relating to their retirement such as insurance, housing, and pension benefits. This year's retirement luncheon was held at St. Luke United Methodist Church in Goldsboro on May 2, 1995.

CONTINUING EDUCATION, COMMITTEE ON

The Continuing Education Committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry has the responsibility of developing continuing education programs that will enable ministers to fulfill the Disciplinary requirements. According to the 1992 Book of Discipline, ¶445.1, "Clergy shall be expected to continue their education and spiritual growth throughout their careers, including carefully developed personal programs of study augmented periodically by involvement in organized educational and spiritual growth activities." The Discipline, ¶445.2, further states, "In most cases the ordained ministers' continuing education and spiritual growth program should allow for such leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered as part of the ministers' vacations and shall be planned in consultation with their charges or other agencies to which they are appointed as well as the bishop, district superintendent, and Annual Conference Continuing Education Committee."

In providing the resources to enable pastors to meet the minimum requirement of the Discipline, the Committee on Continuing Education has edited a brochure that applies to all ministers of the NC Annual Conference. The brochure contains information defining Continuing Education, the role of the local church, and how the pastor's continuing education can be financed. The brochure is printed as part of this report.

Continuing Education for Ministry in the NC Annual Conference:

Rationale: A prime expectation of every minister of the NC Annual Conference is professional growth. In recent years, one of the major avenues through which such growth occurred has been continuing education. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church has recognized this by requiring annual participation in a continuing education program by each ordained minister seeking appointment. (1992 Discipline, ¶423.2).

Definition: Continuing education is defined as an organized structured program of formal study under competent leadership with clearly defined goals and objectives. Here the key words are "organized," "competent leadership," and "clearly defined goals and objectives." By this definition certain activities, though worthwhile, are not considered "continuing education"; e.g., degree programs, recreational programs, promotional meetings, worship services, entertainments, undirected reading, and study travel (except for limited lecture, seminar, or workshop time), and the like.

The Conference Program: The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, through the Committee on Continuing Education, performs three functions: 1) It sets minimum continuing education standards for ministry; 2) It establishes guidelines for continuing education; and 3) It seeks to insure their availability.

1. Minimum Standards: The NC Conference has established as a minimum standard one Continuing Education Unit (CEU) to be earned by each minister from an approved continuing education program each year. One CEU is defined as ten contact hours of participation in an approved continuing education program.

2. Guidelines for Continuing Education Programs: CEU's will be approved for those persons sponsored by organizations which are accredited by a) a regional educational agency (such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools), b) a professional accrediting agency (such as the American Medical Association), or c) the Council on the Continuing Education Unit. It should also be noted that only those programs which relate directly to ministerial growth and development will be approved.

3. Insuring their Availability: Efforts by the Board of Ordained Ministry to insure the availability of continuing education programs include encouraging conference-related and other colleges within the Conference bounds to offer courses for ministers, providing supplementary financial aid for ministers, publicizing approved programs, and identifying specific subject areas for needed programs.

Role of the Local Church: In addition to the minister, the local church has a significant stake in the success of continuing education programs. The local church, therefore, has an important role to play in continuing education. The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of the local church:

1. Confers with the pastor and the district superintendent in the development of a continuing education program which will enhance the total ministry of the church.

2. Provides study leaves at least one week each year and at least one month during one year of each quadrennium. Such study leaves are not to be considered vacation time. The Book of Discipline, 1992, ¶445.2.

3. Recommends to the church's Finance Committee budgetary funds to be applied toward the minister's continuing education program. In providing funds for continuing education programs, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee should insure that only those programs which meet both the definitions and specific guidelines above are funded.

Financial Aid to Minister: Funding for continuing education is the combined responsibility of the participant, the congregation, the sponsoring institution, and the Annual Conference. Conference funds for continuing education are derived as a portion of Conference acceptances. Thus, it is not possible (nor is it desirable) for the Conference to assume a major responsibility.

All persons under episcopal appointment to charges, Conference staff positions, district superintendencies, Conference Evangelists, and Conference-related agencies and institutions, retired supply, and ABLC categories C and D (with total funding for all category C and D applications being no more than $1500) are eligible for grants from Conference funds provided:

1. The program does not lead to advancement from one level of Conference relationship to another.

2. The program meets the definitions and Conference guidelines described above.

3. The applicant has documented his or her efforts to secure funding from other sources, including local church, Duke Endowment, and personal.

4. The application for a grant is filed on the appropriate form which furnishes complete information about the event and bears the signatures of the applicant, the Pastor-Parish Chairperson, and district superintendent.

In providing grants, the Conference will place limits as follows:

1. The maximum grant to an individual applicant over one conference year is $300.00.

2. For a one CEU event, no more than $100; a two CEU event, $200; a three CEU event, a maximum of $300 if the cost of the event merits it.

3. The event must involve some definite measure of intensive study by the participant and offer at least ONE Continuing Education Unit.

4. Grants for Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) can be given when the CPE program offers the required CEU credits. No more than $300 per CPE unit will be granted. Grants for CPE are given only for non-degree programs.

5. One CEU will be granted to interested persons who attend all sessions of the Bishop's Seminar. However, educational grants will not be available for this event.

6. Holy Land Trips - A grant according to the current policy may be made once in a pastor's career, provided funding is available.

Monitoring Continuing Education Units:

1. The district superintendent, in annual consultation, may suggest to the minister the area of continuing education he or she should take to facilitate his or her professional growth. The pastor's annual Continuing Education Report will be given to the district superintendent at the annual consultation.

2. Ministers shall have the responsibility for securing from the institution granting Continuing Education credit a record of earned credit and providing a copy of this record to his or her district superintendent.

3. It is the responsibility of each minister to determine, in consultation with the Committee on Continuing Education, if a proposed program meets the criteria prior to participation and funding.

IDENTIFICATION AND ENLISTMENT, COMMITTEE ON

The identification and enlistment of persons for ministry is a primary responsibility of the Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry (¶733.2a).

Identification and enlistment of prospective ministers for the church, specifically including ethnic groups and women, should be the result of continuous and intentional study of the short-, medium-, and long-term needs of the constituencies of the church. This responsibility necessitates a team effort by the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, the Bishop and Cabinet, the Conference Council on Ministries, the District Committees on Ordained Ministry, pastors of local churches, and the Committee on Pastor-Parish Relations in the local congregations. Imperative in this team work is the encouragement and support of pastors of local churches, who through sharing their story of call to ministry, might be instrumental in creating an awareness of such a call on persons in the congregations which they serve. Response from Conference ethnic caucuses will prove helpful in addressing the particular needs of the ethnic groups within the life of the Conference.

As a means of encouraging awareness of call to ministry the Division of Ordained Ministry of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry held a national gathering for youth and young adults in November, 1994 in Richmond, Virginia. The purpose of this meeting was to challenge participants to explore their gifts for ordained ministry as a vocation and to encourage them to respond to God's call upon their lives. Twenty-three people from the North Carolina Conference attended this gathering.

The intention of the Enlistment Committee is to raise the consciousness of our constituency that identification and enlistment is an ongoing concern that touches every dimension of our church. To that end this Committee shall be committed to the seeking of persons for ordained ministry throughout the year.

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND, COMMITTEE ON

"Are you in debt so as to embarrass you in your work?" That's one of the questions compiled by John Wesley and has been asked of every United Methodist elder prior to ordination. Sadly, more and more clergy have difficulty with indebtedness stemming from their education. The average United Methodist Seminary graduate will enter the ministry $20,000 in debt! The Ministerial Education Fund helps reduce that debt by supporting United Methodist Seminary students and our United Methodist Seminaries. MEF depends entirely on local church support. Here's what the MEF supports for Diaconal and Ordained ministers:

»Seminary aid & scholarships »Continuing Education »Enlistment

The MEF is funded by general church apportionment. Seventy-five percent of the apportionment goes to support the thirteen United Methodist Seminaries and the work of the divisions. Twenty-five percent remains in our annual conference and is used primarily for student scholarships. Some is used for Continuing Education or other programs developed by the Conference Boards of Ordained and Diaconal ministry. MEF's direct support to the seminaries and our conference's direct support to students in the form of grants mean that seminary education is affordable.

Next time you are in church, please remember that your pastor most likely received MEF support for preparation for ministry. Remember, too, that our own Duke Divinity School receives crucial funds from MEF, to provide for the training of our clergy and their continuing education. Encourage your local church to pay 100% of your church's MEF apportionment!

PASTORAL CARE, COMMITTEE ON

The Committee on Pastoral Care has, since 1971, served the North Carolina Annual Conference by providing financial aid for confidential professional counseling and marriage and family enrichment. The Committee is comprised of four members from the Board of Ordained Ministry (one of whom serves as chair); one member from the Board of Diaconal Ministry; one representative from the Conference Clergy Living Committee; one representative from the Clergy Partners Association; one Pastoral Counselor; and two members from the Commission on Health and Human Services. Funding for grants and expenses of the committee is included in the budget of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the awarding of grants is dependent upon the availability of funds.

Financial aid is available to both clergy and diaconal ministers and their families. The financial grants, of up to $400.00 per family, are provided to cover one-half of the cost of counseling sessions. Ministers under the NC Conference Blue Cross/Blue Shield Health Insurance Program should review the Health Care Benefit Program Book as up to 80% of financial coverage is provided for outpatient psychiatric care. The coordination of insurance benefits and Pastoral Care Grants should not exceed 100% of fees charged.

MARRIAGE AND FAMILY ENRICHMENT

The Committee on Pastoral Care encourages participation in marriage and family enrichment events, including those focusing on the needs of single as well as married ministers. Grants of up to $100 per individual, or $200 per family or couple are available. A schedule and/or outline of the events, leaders' names and credentials, and verification of participation should accompany a letter of application for the grant.

ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Whereas, conference clergy and diaconal ministers and their families are eligible for grants, a family is defined as dependents of the minister living in the minister's home or parsonage, including spouse, children, parents, and grandparents. Children of the minister are eligible whether or not attending college or living at home through the age of twenty-two.

Persons who qualify for financial grants:

1. Clergy who are members of the NC Annual Conference whose status is active, retired or on leave in accordance with ¶¶ 448, 449, or 450 of The Book of Discipline (1992), OR any person, regardless of conference relationship, who is serving a local church of the NC Annual Conference, or a dependent.
2. Diaconal Ministers, or candidates who are serving a local church, members of the NC Annual Conference, and whose statues is active, retired, or on leave in accordance with ¶ 313.1 of The Book of Discipline (1992), or a dependent.

Special circumstances:

1. Grant eligibility is provided when ministerial couples undergo marital separation or divorce. The amount provided is $400.00 for each spouse for a maximum of two years following the separation.
2. Grant eligibility continues for two years for persons who have terminated their relationship with The United Methodist Church, and for surviving spouses of ministers.

COUNSELORS AND THERAPISTS WHO QUALIFY FOR FINANCIAL GRANTS

Only counselors or therapists who meet the following criteria qualify to receive grants from the Committee on Pastoral Care:

Counselors: Clinical members of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists (AAMFT);

Pastoral Counselors: Members of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors (AAPC);

Psychiatrists: American Medical Association (AMA) Board Certification;

Psychologists (Clinical): Licensed Practicing Psychologists; and Social Workers: Association of Certified Social Workers (ACSW).

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

The counselor or therapist, at the request of the qualifying client who is receiving the counseling, is to make application for a grant to the Chairperson of the Committee on Pastoral Care in the following manner:

1. The counselor or therapist requests an application form, a Conference Directory, and instructions from the Chairperson of the Pastoral Care Committee. This request should be addressed in care of the Office of Ministerial Relations, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605.
2. Once the application, Conference Directory, and instructions for a Pastoral Care Grant are received by the counselor/therapist, and a determination is made that the client qualifies, the application should be completed and returned to the Office of Ministerial Relations. To protect the confidentiality of the client, the client's name shall never appear on the application. When more than one member of the client's family is involved in counseling, all family members shall be assigned the same case number.
3. The counselor/therapist will receive the financial aid grant on behalf of the client to apply to the client's account or to refund to the client if the account has already been paid. Clients should request from the therapist a statement showing the amount of financial assistance received from the Pastoral Care Committee and should request the therapist to contact the Chairperson of Pastoral Care to negotiate an acceptable procedure if any problems arise concerning this process. The client, not the Pastoral Care Committee, is responsible for all contracts, negotiated fees, and payment of services that are provided.

In 1994, the Committee on Pastoral Care granted over $10,487.44 for counseling sessions. This represents 528 sessions with counselors and therapists during the calendar year (almost 200 fewer than provided in 1993). Grants were processed for 43 client units during 1994, representing 391 sessions for ministers, 49 for spouses, 39 for families and 49 for dependent children. Of these 43 units, 9 (or 21%) received the 1994 maximum of $400.00 in assistance.

PSYCHOLOGICAL TESTING AND EVALUATION, COMMITTEE ON

The United Methodist Church recommends psychological evaluations for all who would be ordained. The NC Annual Conference requires and administers this assessment for all persons seeking ordination as a Deacon. Responsibility for testing is given to the Committee on Psychological Testing. Members of the committee during 1994-1995 are Carl Frazier, Peg Witt, Milton Mann, Mark Kennedy, and David Banks.

Psychological testing is only one component of a comprehensive process determining a person's readiness for ordination. The Board of Ordained Ministry uses the evaluation results to assist and not to determine the discernment process. In some cases, the process provides early detection of potential barriers to effective ministry. When this is the case, our Board seeks to benefit the candidates by providing them information, feedback, and guidance toward optimum adjustment for their personal well-being and effective ministry.

For all persons seeking Probationary Membership and for all those applying for transfer to the NC Annual Conference whose status after transfer will be Probationary Membership, the following tests are required: Personal Data Inventory, Incomplete Sentences, Personal Research Form (Values), Myers/Briggs Type Indication (Personality), Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (Pathology), and 16 PF (back-up to the MMPI). Probationary members of other annual conferences seeking to transfer into this conference must release information on their testing to the Transfer Committee of this board.

For persons from within the North Carolina Annual Conference, the cost of testing is borne by the Board of Ordained Ministry. When necessary for transfer, we will bear the cost of evaluation when such testing is done at the time our candidates are group tested. Those who choose testing other than through the above process will bear the expense themselves.

Testing services for 1994, 1995, and 1996 are provided by Dr. Gary Brown, a Full Member of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference. The Career and Personal Counseling Service at St. Andrews Presbyterian College in Laurinburg also provides occasional assistance. With the aid of these professionals, we hope to faithfully and effectively accomplish our work for the glory of God and the well-being of the Church.

David A. Banks, Chairperson

RESIDENCY IN ORDAINED MINISTRY, COMMITTEE ON

¶417.3 in the 1992 Book of Discipline states:

"Each probationary member shall have an elder in full connection assigned by the Board of Ordained Ministry as counselor during the period of probation."

The North Carolina Conference Residency in Ordained Ministry program meets this guideline. Probationers meet in small cluster groups throughout the probationary period. Every effort is made to keep each participant in the same cluster, and with the same leader, for the duration of the probationary experience. This arrangement provides a particularly important collegiality and support for the probationers.

In October, 1994 the committee sponsored an event at Duke Divinity School for candidates preparing for probationary membership. Phase I Probationers, those in their first appointment after receiving the M.Div. Degree, meet annually for an overnight retreat. A resource person, selected by the committee, leads the group in exploring issues such as call to ministry, spiritual formation, etc.

Phase II members are those in the second year of probationary membership with the Annual Conference, who work in their cluster gatherings to prepare for full membership. A retreat is held at Duke Divinity School each year to assist this group in their preparation. Phase III is designed to help probationers who must reappear before the board for Elder's orders and full conference membership. The Residency in Ordained Ministry committee is committed to helping candidates for ordained ministry in every way possible.

IX. Recommendations for additional service credit: NONE

Report B - Recommendations for the Pension Program

I. Past Service Liability

A. Past service will continue to be paid on the defined benefit concept (per service year rate) for all service rendered to the North Carolina Conference through December 31, 1981. This plan will continue until all pastors with past service benefits and their surviving spouses are deceased.

B. Goal of defined benefits (per service year rate) has been defined in the Book of Discipline for many years as 1% of the Conference Average Compensation. The 1996 CAC for the North Carolina Conference is $36,751.

C. The current rate is $336 per service year. Participation in the new Ministerial Pension Plan requires that an Annual Conference increase its past service rate as the Conference Average Compensation increases, to at least 0.9% of the CAC to continue to participate fully in the new pension program. We propose that the past service rate beginning January 1, 1996 be increased to $345 per service year, and that further increases will be presented to the Annual Conferences of the future as the Conference Average Compensation increases. This increase creates an unfunded liability of $27,664,579.

D. To increase any past service rate will always involve accepting an unfunded liability that must be satisfied by either a single cash payment, a series of planned payments, or a combination of both.

E. The Annual Past Service Deposit for 1996 required by the General Board of Pensions is $2,250,210 (Due Date December 31, 1996). The amount needed in 1997 to fund our total liability by the year 2021 is $1,300,000. Additionally, for other benefit plans; such as, health and life insurance, pension grants, administration, etc., the 1997 budget request is $1,475,000.

II. Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

Guidelines for the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan are contained in the 1983 and 1984 Journals of the North Carolina Conference. Thus we call to your attention only those guidelines that are relevant to these programs.

A. Service on and after January 1, 1982 will be funded on a new concept, called a defined contribution plan. This plan is basically deferred salary, and creates no unfunded liability because it builds an account of funds for a specific minister as his/her salary is paid.

B. Funding is based on a percentage of Plan Compensation. Plan Compensation is calculated as follows:

Take Cash Income (salary ONLY) e.g. $30,000.00
Add 25% of Cash Income or Housing Allowance 7,500.00
Plan Compensation will be $37,500.00

1. No travel or utility funding is ever used in Plan Compensation calculations since these are considered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits to be items of local expense.
2. Clergy couples housing (Effective January 1, 1988):
   a. When only one of the spouses is furnished a parsonage, the one furnished the parsonage includes the housing allowance.
   b. When one spouse is furnished the parsonage and the other a cash allowance, the one furnished the parsonage will use the 25% housing allowance, and the other will report the actual cash housing paid.
   c. When two parsonages are furnished and both are used, each spouse claims a housing allowance.
   d. When neither is furnished a parsonage, the actual cash housing allowance may be counted by the person/or persons receiving the allowance.
3. In accordance with the Plan Document, the housing allowance for those furnished housing is 25% times the cash salary.
4. Those furnished a cash housing allowance will report the actual amount in accordance with the Plan Document. (Effective January 1, 1988)

C. The Ministerial Pension Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)

D. These contributions are placed in the individual minister's Church Account to be available for benefits when the minister becomes eligible for payment in the retired relationship.

E. Each minister who is eligible for benefits will be required to designate beneficiaries for the benefits he/she is qualified to receive.

F. We recommend 12% as the level of participation in the Ministerial Pension Plan for the North Carolina Conference participants.

G. Unfunded Liability Actuarial Funding Study (Third Year Study, 1990 - 1993)
1. Interest assumption decreased from 9% to 8%.
2. Past Service Rate assumption continued at a 5% increase.
3. No change at the present is required in contribution pattern (new money).

III. Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP)

A. This part of the program contains provisions for a death benefit, disability income, and funding for the peerage portion of the Ministerial Pension Plan. In addition to the provisions of a death benefit for the pastor, there is a death benefit on the life of the spouse and dependent children under age 18 or who are dependent because of disability. The Comprehensive Protection Plan also includes educational benefits for the children of a deceased minister. This part of the new plan is only available to those ministers covered under the CPP.
1. Death benefits provide 150% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) as the benefit paid on the death of an active minister through age 46, dropping on a graduated basis to 20% of the DAC upon retirement at any age. (The DAC for 1995 is $34,832 and for 1996 it is $36,062.)
2. Disability payments are based on 40% of the Denominational Average Compensation in effect at the time the minister is placed on Disability Leave.
3. The peerage program provides for a contribution from the Comprehensive Protection Plan to the minister's Church Account of a sufficient amount to provide the minister with a total contribution for the year based on the Denominational Average Compensation at 12% of Plan Compensation based on the Denominational Average Compensation for those eligible.

4. The Comprehensive Protection Plan contribution from the local church is to be paid monthly by the Church or Charge Treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. (Effective January 1, 1990)

B. The cost of the Comprehensive Protection Plan is a 4.4% contribution of actual Plan Compensation (up to 4.4% of the Denominational Average Compensation). The pastor shall be required to pay 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of DAC) and the church or charge shall pay 3.4% of Plan Compensation (up to 3.4% of DAC). (Effective January 1, 1990)

IV. Implementation of the Program

The benefit Program adopted by your Conference Board of Pensions seeks to provide a wider range of support for the minister's family through death benefits for every member of the family, disability income for the minister in time of great stress, educational benefits for children of deceased ministers, minimum annuity benefits for surviving spouses, and the build-up of contributions to the Church Account of those ministers whose compensation is below the Denominational Average Compensation.

A. Costs of the Ministerial Pension Plan/Comprehensive Protection Plan will be borne by the local charge as an item of ministerial support according to the Plan Compensation of the minister and the category of the charge.

FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation for MPP and 3.4% of Plan Compensation for CPP (up to 3.4% of the DAC)

STUDENT (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation

LESS THAN FULL TIME (Conference Member/Local Pastor) - 12% of Plan Compensation

INTERIM OR RETIRED SUPPLY - no pension responsibility

B. The pastor will make regular monthly payments to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits through the local church treasurer for his/her 1% of Plan Compensation (up to 1% of the DAC) for CPP.

C. The pastor will make regular monthly payments through the local church treasurer to the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for his/her personal tax-paid or tax-deferred contributions of at least 3%.

V. Policies Related to Life and Hospital Insurance

A. Surviving spouses who are not covered under the minister's hospital insurance must request coverage within thirty (30) days after the death of the pastor to avoid the one year waiting period for pre-existing conditions.

1. When surviving spouses are employed and provided hospital insurance, the policy of the Board of Pensions will be the secondary carrier.
2. If the surviving spouse remarries, the hospital insurance will terminate until the said surviving spouse attains age 65 or the dissolution of the marriage.
3. A surviving spouse, who married the pastor after he/she retired, is not eligible to be covered by the Hospital Group Plan after the death of the pastor.

B. Pastors Insurance (to become effective at the conclusion of the 1988 Session of the Annual Conference.)

1. Pastors who retire from the North Carolina Annual Conference with twenty or more full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will have their hospital and life insurance paid by the Conference Board of Pensions when the minister attains age 62, or retires with thirty-five (35) years of service and receives pension benefits, provided at least twenty of the thirty-five (35) years of pension credit is in the North Carolina Annual Conference.
2. A pastor who retires from the North Carolina Annual Conference with less than twenty full-time years of earned pension credit in the North Carolina Annual Conference will pay, when he/she attains age 62, or earns 35 years of pension credit and receives pension benefits, a portion of the premium by the following formula:

Years of Service Earned in NC Conference at Retirement Time	Payment by the Conference Board of Pensions	Payment by the Retired Ministers
18	90%	10%
17	85%	15%
16	80%	20%
15	75%	25%
14	70%	30%
13	65%	35%
11	55%	45%
10	50%	50%
8	40%	60%
7	35%	65%
6	30%	70%
4	20%	80%
1	5%	95%

3. [Paragraphs noted are from The Book of Discipline, 1992] Effective August 1, 1992, Pastors who discontinue as Full-time Local Pastors, ¶410, or Probationary Members, ¶418, as well as Conference Members who are retired involuntarily, ¶452.3; who are granted Honorable Location, ¶453.1; who withdraw to unite with another denomination, ¶453.2; who surrender the ordained ministerial office, ¶453.3; who withdraw under complaints or charges, ¶453.4; and Conference Members who are placed on Administrative Location, ¶454.3 are ineligible to receive health insurance benefits or life insurance when payments from the General Board of Pensions begin.
4. Ministers not covered under medicare shall receive an amount equal to the premium of the Medicare supplement paid for those covered under Medicare, provided the ineligibility is not due to a refusal to come under Part B. Payments will be prorated according to the schedule in V B2.
5. Clergy Couples' Insurance
   a. When one member of a clergy couple retires, the insurance, medical and life, will be paid for the retired pastor according to schedule V B2.
   b. Medical insurance will be provided for the spouse and dependent children of the retired clergy partner according to schedule V B2.
   c. No life insurance is provided for the spouse or dependent children of the retired clergy partner.

C. The North Carolina Annual Conference established a Group Health and Life Insurance Plan with the intent of providing coverage for the active and retired pastors. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the health and life contracts, in whole or in part, at any time. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the health or life plan without the consent of individual participants.

VI. Dental Insurance
The Board of Pensions recommends that retired ministers covered under our Blue Cross supplement plan have dental insurance added. It is to be paid by the North Carolina Conference Board of Pensions and to become effective July 1, 1987.

VII. Maximum Lifetime Benefit Under Medicare Supplement
Maximum benefit under the Medicare Supplement for retired pastors and spouses is $1,000,000.

VIII. Special Provisions
The North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pensions for active participation in the MPP and/or CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as active participants. (MPP Section 3.2 and CPP Section 3.2)

IX. Conclusion
Our constant aim is to provide our retired families with their needs for an adequate income to purchase essentials for living as well as to insure adequate care in case of illness. To these ends our recommendations are directed, and their satisfaction is found in the acceptance of the North Carolina Conference and its membership.

Report C - Housing Exclusion Allowance (For Income Tax Purposes Only)
RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THIS CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through ministers of the gospel who are duly ordained or licensed; and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service, and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the North Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to desisgnate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference; and

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister (including amounts received in this respect from the Duke Endowment), or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the year of 1995 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of the United Methodist Church, who is or was a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension or benefit funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.
NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rul. 71-280, 1971 C.B.92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

Report D - Ministers' Transition Fund Constitution

THE PRINCIPLE OF THE FUND

The Ministers' Transition Fund is established to assist the minister to more easily make the transition from the active relationship in which a furnished parsonage has usually been provided, to the retired relationship in which the minister provides his/her housing. The fund is established by apportionments to each local church in the Outreach Ministries - Fair Share Apportionments and by assessments to each minister who has membership in the Fund. Since all churches contribute to this Fund, it is the desire of the Annual Conference that all ministers participate in the Fund. We do not interpret the churches' support of the Ministers' Transition Fund as an additional benefit for their ministers, but as a benefit for all ministers of the Conference. Therefore, the only funds to which a minister can make personal claim are those which he/she contributed to the Fund. We vigorously emphasize that the purpose of this Fund is to assist the minister's retirement transition, and not to be an emergency fund available for any other purpose. All participant elections available in the constitution shall be irrevocable.

The treasurer of the North Carolina Conference shall serve as treasurer of this Fund. He/she shall promote this work, receive funds from pastors and charges, and keep permanent records of assessments received and benefits paid.

ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP

Membership in this Fund is certainly in the minister's best interest, but it is not mandatory. Each ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full time local pastor) who is serving full time in a charge or as a district superintendent, a Conference ministerial staff person, or others who are appointed to serve at a North Carolina Annual Conference institution (Methodist Retirement Home, Inc.; Methodist Home for Children, Inc.; Louisburg College; Methodist College; North Carolina Wesleyan College) shall be eligible to join. In order to remain an active, participating member, the ministerial member of the North Carolina Annual Conference (associate, full, probationary, or full-time local pastor) must continue to serve full time in a charge or other appointment. A full time local pastor may continue as a member of the Fund only during the time he/she is serving under episcopal appointment. Students under episcopal appointment who have previously served full time and who intend to return to full time service are eligible to continue. Those ministerial members on disability leave, leave of absence, or Conference members with less than full time service, may continue to be active, participating members by meeting the provisions discussed hereafter.

Ministerial members who transfer into the Conference or new ministers receiving appointments for the first time are eligible to join the Fund in January of the year following the Annual Conference session in which their credentials were recognized. Ministers in these categories applying for membership will be assessed on the basis of their total salary and utility allowances for the six months between July 1 and December 31 computed to a twelve month amount.

Each new member of the Fund shall file an application form. Upon filing of application for membership and paying the recommended assessment for one year, his/her membership becomes effective. The deadline for enrollment for all ministers is January 31 of each year.

APPORTIONMENTS AND ASSESSMENTS

Funds shall be placed in the Conference budget annually equal to an amount of one percent (1%) of the total salaries and utilities paid to all pastors and associates of the Conference based upon the Conference Journal figures for the year preceding the year in which the budget request is made to the Annual Conference. This budgeted amount will be apportioned to charges on the same basis as all other Conference budget items. Each minister in a pastoral appointment shall be assessed and pay into the Fund one percent (1%) of all salary and utility allowances he/she receives each year from the charge he/she is serving and/or Conference sources. (Salary also includes Equitable Salary Fund payments, Duke Endowment Funds, and missionary sources).

The Council on Finance and Administration shall make provision for payment equal to one percent (1%) of salary and utility allowances usually paid by the charge for district superintendents and ministers appointed as Conference staff. District superintendents and Conference ministerial staff shall be assessed and pay one percent (1%) of their salary and utility allowances.

All other ministers who participate in the Fund shall be assessed and pay a sum equivalent to two percent (2%) of their annual salary and utility allowances or two percent (2%) of the Conference average salary, whichever is greater.

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF ASSESSMENT

The fiscal year of the Ministers' Transition Fund shall be the same as that of the Annual Conference fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. No later than November 1 of each year, the Conference treasurer shall notify all members their assessment is due. Each member of the Fund shall submit payment for the required assessment no later than January 31 of each year. Assessments received after January 31 will be returned to the minister. If he/she has been a member less than ten (10) years, this lack of payment extends the period for one additional year before dividends can be received. If the minister has been a member over ten (10) years, he/she will receive no dividends for the year involving lack of payment. If any member of the Fund fails to pay his/her required assessment for three consecutive years, he/she shall be required to withdraw from membership in the Fund.

DIVIDENDS

After ten years of membership, and beginning with the eleventh year, the base benefit to be paid is increased by dividends credited to his/her account

Any funds remaining after benefits have been paid to eligible members shall be divided into equal parts and credited to the accounts of those who have been participating members for ten years or longer and are not in arrears for the previous year(s).

DEATH BENEFITS

When a participating member of the Fund dies, the treasurer shall pay to his/her designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, otherwise to his/her estate, the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the dividends added to his/her account. In the event that a minister dies prior to the time that dividends are earned, the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries, or otherwise the estate, shall receive the full amount of the basic benefit payments plus the assessments contributed by the participating member. In no case would the beneficiary/beneficiaries or estate receive less at the time of the minister's death than the member's assessments plus passbook interest.

DESIGNATION OF BENEFICIARY

Each member shall provide the Conference treasurer the name(s) of the beneficiary or beneficiaries to whom these funds are to be paid in the event of death. The designation shall be indicated on a form provided by the Conference treasurer. In the absence of a designated beneficiary, benefits shall be paid to the member's estate.

IRREVOCABLE ELECTION REGARDING DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS

Members actively serving must make, prior to attaining age 59 1/2, an irrevocable election to either terminate from the Ministers' Transition Fund beginning with the Annual Conference following the attainment of age 60 or to defer termination from the Fund until retirement, as defined in the Book of Discipline, 1992, paragraph 452.1,2a,2b,and 2c. Such irrevocable election is the responsibility of the member and must be made in writing to the Conference Treasurer by age 59 1/2. Forms can be obtained upon request from the Conference Treasurer. Should the member fail to make the irrevocable election, the member will not terminate from this Fund until retirement.

PAYMENT OF BENEFITS

At retirement or early fund termination as defined above, members who have accrued the same years credit in the Fund (during the same years) will receive exactly the same benefit regardless of their total individual contributions.

A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with less than ten (10) years credit in the Fund shall be paid immediately following the session of the Annual Conference at which he/she retires or terminates, the base benefit as prescribed in the table for retired members.

A minister who retires or terminates from this Fund with ten (10) or more years credit in the Fund must make an irrevocable election to receive benefit payments under one of the following options. This irrevocable election must be made no later than ninety days prior to the retirement month. For either option selected, total benefit payments shall be the base benefit as prescribed in the table plus the dividends credited.

A. Two payment option: The first payment shall be the cumulative amount which the member has paid in assessments. The second payment shall be the balance in the member's account and is subject to income tax.

B. Six payment option: The first payment shall be the cumulative amount which the member has paid in assessments. The remaining payments shall be five equal annual installments of the remaining principal balance and will be subject to income tax.

Under either option, the first payment shall be paid within 15 working days following the adjournment of Annual Conference. The second and subsequent payments shall be paid between January 1 and January 10 of the year following the year in which the minister terminates or retires. The second payment will draw simple interest from July 1 to December 31 computed at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., average quarterly dividend yield for the four quarters ending September 30 of the year in which the minister terminates or retires. Any remaining payments will draw simple interest annually at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., average quarterly dividend yield for the four quarters ending September 30 of the year prior to the January payment.

In no case would the member receive less at retirement than the member's assessments plus interest computed at the United Methodist Foundation, Inc., average quarterly dividend yield for the four quarters ending September 30 of the year in which the member terminates or retires.

DISABILITY LEAVE

A minister who is approved for and placed on Disability Leave may elect to:

1. Continue as an active member and pay two percent (2%) of the disability pay received from all sources. Should Disability Leave be granted between sessions of Annual Conference, 2% of the disability pay received from all sources computed to a 12 month amount shall be paid.
2. Be treated the same as a transferring member.
3. Receive benefits the same as a retiring member.
4. Receive all benefits within thirty (30) days following the granting of Disability Leave.

The minister shall notify the Conference treasurer in writing of his/her choice of option within ten (10) days following the granting of Disability Leave. In no case would the member receive less than the member's assessments plus passbook interest.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

A minister who is approved for and placed on Leave of Absence may elect to:

1. Continue as an active member by paying 2% of the Conference Average Salary while on leave.
2. Be treated the same as a transferring member.

LESS THAN FULL TIME SERVICE

A Conference member who is approved for less than full time service may elect to:

1. Continue as an active member for no more than three years by paying 2% of the Conference average salary while serving less than full time.
2. Withdraw from the Fund according to the provisions discussed hereafter.

MEMBERSHIP TRANSFERRING

Any ministerial member who leaves the North Carolina Conference by transfer to another annual conference of The United Methodist Church cannot make any further payment to the Fund. He/she may leave his/her account (including dividends, if any) in the Fund until retirement. If this is done, the transition benefit will be computed as of the date of transfer from the North Carolina Conference with passbook interest added from that date to the date of retirement. If the account is left, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he/she may reinstate his/her payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of transfer back into this Conference.

WITHDRAWING

If a member desires to withdraw from the Fund prior to retirement, upon a written request to the Conference treasurer, he/she shall receive the amount he/she has paid into the Fund, plus simple interest computed at the "passbook rate" which was in effect each year he/she was participating in the Fund.

Each member whose membership is terminated in the Fund in any way will provide the Conference treasurer with a statement indicating that he/she has received funds for which he/she is eligible, and that he/she is no longer a member of the Fund. Any minister leaving the North Carolina Conference to join another denomination will be required to withdraw from the Fund and payment will be made to the minister according to the above formula.

REINSTATEMENT

A member who has withdrawn from the Fund may not be reinstated, but is required to begin anew as though he/she were a new member. A minister shall not be permitted to rejoin the Fund more than two (2) times during his/her ministerial career.

HEARING COMMITTEE

The chairperson of the Board of Pensions shall annually nominate and the Board shall elect a committee of five (5) persons, keeping a balance between clergy, laity, ethnic origin, and gender, to have authority to arbitrate on behalf of the Board of Pensions between Annual Conference sessions concerning matters that relate to, but are not specifically covered by, the Constitution of the Ministers' Transition Fund.

NEW RULES AND CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS

At the time these rules and guidelines are adopted, all previous legislation regulating this Fund shall be null and void. The Annual Conference, at any time or from time to time, may amend any or all of the provisions of the Constitution without the consent of individual members of the Fund. No amendment shall have the effect of modifying any benefit election of any member in effect at the time of such amendment.

The Annual Conference established this Fund with the intent that it will be maintained for an indefinite period of time. However, the Annual Conference reserves the right to terminate the Fund, in whole or in part, at any time. No amendment, modification or termination of the Fund shall adversely affect the member's benefits accrued for his or her retirement at the time of termination of the Fund.

STAFFING AND STRUCTURE, TASK FORCE ON

The Into The 21st Century Committee report to the 1992 NC Annual Conference, among other items, called for "redefining the roles and responsibilities of district superintendents, annual conference staff, and conference boards and agencies so that major attention can be given to resourcing and equipping local congregations for their ministry and mission." The Annual Conference approved the following recommendation related to district superintendents and annual conference staff: "We recommend that the Bishop initiate a task force to study the total effect of changes in the roles of district superintendents and conference staff persons on the ministries of local congregations and to make recommendations to the 1995 session of Annual Conference concerning the number of district superintendents and staff persons needed to fulfill the mission of the NC Annual Conference." Bishop C.P. Minnick formed the Staffing and Structure Task Force to address this recommendation.

It should be noted that the committee was asked specifically to determine the optimum number of district superintendents and staff persons without regard to cost.

Information was collected from current and former district superintendents, all persons at the conference office, local churches, and other conferences. The task force has reviewed various numbers of districts, centralized staff, deployed staff, combinations of centralized and deployed staff, both fewer and more, and has approached the process with complete openness. We gained valuable information from other conferences with various models of staffing. Our recommendations are presented as a result of much experience and resources.

Our interviews with district superintendents and staff persons, in conjunction with our study of many related issues, have brought to our attention a number of matters which are submitted here, not for Annual Conference action but for information and possible action of others.

The recommendations in the sub-sections designated "A" are submitted for Annual Conference Action. The insights, concerns and recommendations in the sub-sections designated "B" and all items in Section V are for information to the Annual Conference and for further consideration and possible action by the appropriate persons and agencies.

I. Concerning the District Superintendents

A. For Annual Conference Action

In order to achieve the "redefined" roles for district superintendents, as requested by the Annual Conference with the approval of the Into the 21st Century Committee's report, we recommend that the conference continue to have 12 (twelve) districts.

B. For Consideration By Appropriate Persons and/or Agencies

1. District superintendents and local churches have been surveyed to determine their current feelings about the plan requiring "one hundred twenty days directly in local congregations of the district..." We all know that ministry is an individual enterprise. Even within a system as well defined as the UM Connection, heterogeneous approaches are to be anticipated.

   Consensus with regard to the implementation of the 120 days plan is not much in evidence. However, consensus was highly evident with regard to the time demands of the 120 days. All are obviously burdened under enormous administrative work loads. All feel strongly that the local church should be a priority. The question is whether or not this particular plan is the best way to strengthen it.

   It is encouraging to see the wide range of applications for the 120 days. Great creativity has been exercised in implementing this area of work. The 120 days plan requirement and the administrative duties required by the Discipline seem to be competing for the same available time.

   We believe it to be clear that district superintendents have been very faithful in attempting to implement the 120 days plan but question its validity. While the intent is good, implementation has been largely untenable.

It seems to this task force that district superintendents continue to experience a significant problem with the dilemma of administrative time required by the Discipline versus the pastoral time mandated in the 120 Days plan. Therefore, we recommend an immediate, prayerful review and decision regarding the continuation, modification or dismissal of the 120 days plan endorsed by the Annual Conference in the Into the 21st Century Committee report.

2. Our study convinces us that the districts need to be realigned and we strongly recommend that the Bishop (¶515.4 1992 Book of Discipline) realign the districts of the NC Annual Conference taking into consideration the following:
   a. The number of charges in a district, because this relates directly to the amount of time required in consultation or pastoral care.
   b. The number of churches in a district, because each church, even in a multiple church charge, requires some time from the district superintendent.
   c. The number of student or part-time pastors, because they require more time by the district superintendent than do other clergy.
   d. Information related to projected church growth, whether in current churches or new churches, together with projected church closures, and the expectation that there will be an average of 52.5 charges per district by the year 2003.
   e. Missional types that exist among the churches, whether now or projected for the future, as well as geography, mileage and travel time for each district.

II. Concerning Conference Staffing

We have worked with our goal to determine the most appropriate staffing structure for the NC Conference. As trying as this task has been, we have been blessed with the candor and cooperation of the majority of those involved. We have been pleased by the positive philosophies of all staff interviewed and surveyed and are particularly struck by the commitment and cooperation with which the program staff serves all branches of our church's structure. They are and will continue to be the vital link in maintaining the constant continuum of our connectionalism.

A. For Annual Conference Action
   1. Against the background of intensive study and reflection by our committee, we recommend that the ideal program staff is the current number of 7 (seven).
   2. We recommend further that the program staff continue to be centralized in location. We believe that the needs of local churches can best be met in this manner, and that this is a wise stewardship of talents, time and finances.

B. For Consideration By Appropriate Persons and/or Agencies

Our study and interviews have led us to make the following recommendations to the appropriate persons or agencies for consideration and possible action:

1. We recommend that the program staff be structured according to the administrative council format (if CCOM and CFA use this model in the NC Conference) but should the previously mentioned model not be used, we recommend that the Executive Director, CCOM, structure the staff taking into account the emerging needs of local churches as a result of Vision 2000 and with serious consideration given to the NOW and A Model.
2. We recommend that job descriptions be revised to accurately reflect the responsibilities resulting from changes made in recommendation 1 above.
3. We recommend that the program staff be assigned to two specific districts to serve - with these assignments to rotate. Staff will function as a point of referral, resource, and most importantly, a known connection to the conference. This function will not supersede their serving as resource staff for any other district.

4. We recommend that the program staff have clerical or support staff who are equipped to perform administrative tasks. This will increase the amount of time and energy that they can efficiently direct to local congregations and district needs, and will result in a better utilization of their time and gifts and graces.
5. We strongly recommend that program staff be utilized only as resource consultants rather than clerical support for boards, commissions, committees, etc. To this end we call on the CCOM to emphasize to the chairs of these groups that they have responsibility to insure that this is followed.
6. We recommend that the Executive Director, CCOM, and in consultation with the appropriate body or individual if needed or deemed appropriate, assist each program staff member in setting portfolio priorities. This is intended to minimize the feelings of staff that they are constantly and continuously overwhelmed by a multitude of assignments.
7. We have been overwhelmed by the struggle of some of the staff to perform the expected portfolio responsibilities and to fulfill the 120 days in the field as mandated by the Into The 21st Century Committee report. While some staff, due to the nature of their work, have little difficulty in meeting this mandate, it is exceedingly clear that its achievability and practicality are not uniformly resulting in optimal or desired impacts on conference staff, particularly program staff.

   Certainly, we concur with the intent and desirability of having staff concentrate their time and efforts on local congregations; however, we believe that the rigidity of the mandate unfairly burdens many and adds expectations that are both unrealistic and non-attainable in many situations.

   We recommend that a range of days, up to 120, be suggested as a goal for each staff person in consultation with the Executive Director, CCOM. This will allow for the particular demands of each staff portfolio, both in connection with local congregations and in responding to agencies, boards, etc. This change will allow staff persons to focus on connecting and serving rather than counting and scrimping.

   Concerning Support Staff, we would make the following recommendations to the Staff Relations Committee of the CCOM for their consideration:

   a. We recommend that job descriptions for support staff be revised to reflect, among other things, the need for more administrative expertise and duties.
   b. We recommend that all support staff be utilized for attendance at some agency meetings on behalf of the program staff.
   c. We recommend that all support staff receive uniformly standard training in business communications etiquette and procedures.

III. Concerning the Conference Treasurer's Staff

A. For Annual Conference Action

We recommend that the present number and configuration of this group remain the same (six persons).

B. For Consideration By Appropriate Persons and/or Agencies

We recommend for consideration by CCFA the addition of one staff person to focus on bookkeeping as suggested by the conference auditors in order to maintain proper checks and balances of funds if an alternate mechanical procedure is not implemented.

IV. Concerning Other Staff
This category includes the Ministerial Relations Office, Conference Secretary's Office, and the Information System Coordinator's Office.

A. For Annual Conference Action
We recommend that "Other Staff" remain the same in number.

B. For Consideration By Appropriate Persons and/or Agencies
We recommend that one staff person be designated as a full-time receptionist and trained as a member of the conference staff and that other support staff be trained to fulfill these roles in a professionally uniform manner.
Based on our studies and interviews, we recommend that the duties of "other staff" remain the same unless there is a future need to decrease in number due to financial or other considerations.

V. Other Items for Consideration by Persons or Agencies
In the course of our work since July 1993, we have observed and been told of areas needing review and possible improvement. During the time of our work, some information not in our area of responsibility, was passed on to the CCOM or others for their action. While some other areas are not specifically covered by our directive, they do affect the final responses listed above. For example, the number of persons required in certain areas might be affected by situations not normally associated with the decision making process.
Therefore, the following should be considered as important to this overall report.

A. We recommend that the appropriate body of the church explore the possibility of establishing an equalized salary structure for the program staff, both clergy and lay, with a minimum-maximum pay range for each position and flexibility to reflect experience and education.

B. We recommend that there be no guaranteed salary for future staff appointments. (Our group is concerned that the present process may lack justice and equity. We must ensure that Christ's church models fairness and quality for all. To do less is to mock our Master and to fail in our efforts to live and to work with love and equality.)

C. We recommend that the salary scales for all support staff be reviewed to ensure that they are competitive with community compensation rates so as to attract and retain motivated and efficient administrative support staff. This should be done after job descriptions are reviewed/revised as requested above.

D. Because the employment process should always be one of openness and equity, and there could possibly be a situation in the future which, correctly or incorrectly, might be viewed as not meeting those criteria, we appeal to the appropriate body to take whatever steps necessary to ensure that the process is clearly identified and the procedure faithfully followed.

The recommendations listed above for action by this Annual Conference and those recommendations listed for assignment to the appropriate persons or agencies have been prayerfully developed and are presented for consideration.

RESOLUTIONS

REFORMING THE BOOK OF DISCIPLINE'S PARAGRAPH ON ABORTION (71H)

(Note:In this resolution, boldface type indicates insertion, and strikeout indicates deletion.)

WHEREAS, the Church through the ages has witnessed and worked to protect the lives of the unborn and their mothers; and

WHEREAS, Paragraph 71H of the 1992 Book of Discipline identifies The United Methodist Church with an ethnic that esteems both "unborn human life" and the mothers of those lives; and

WHEREAS, the current wording of Paragraph 71H on abortion is morally ambiguous and conflicted, and therefore incapable of rendering the moral guidance that derives from Christian teaching;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the 1995 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church hereby petitions the 1996 General Conference to alter Paragraph 71H of The Book of Discipline to read:

"The beginning of life and the ending of life are the God-given boundaries of human existence. While individuals have always had some degree of control over when they would die, they now have the awesome power to determine when and even whether new individuals will be born. Our belief in the sanctity of unborn human life makes us reluctant to approve abortion. Indeed, we cannot affirm abortion as an acceptable means of birth control, and we unconditionally reject it as a means of gender selection. ~~But~~ We are equally bound to respect the sacredness of the life and well-being of the mother, ~~for whom devastating damage may result from an unacceptable pregnancy~~. In continuity with past Christian teaching, we recognize tragic conflicts ~~of~~, where the life of the unborn ~~with~~ directly and immediately threatens the life of the mother , that may justify abortion, and in such cases encourage clergy and congregations to pray for and support such mothers and their families ~~support the legal option of abortion under proper medical procedures. We cannot affirm abortion as an acceptable means of birth control, and we unconditionally reject it as a means of gender selection. We call all Christians to a searching and prayerful inquiry into the sorts of conditions that may warrant abortion~~. Furthermore, we call for the Church to provide nurturing ministries to those persons who have obtained abortions for whatever reasons ~~terminate a pregnancy~~. Also, we call ~~encourage~~ the Church to provide a full range of welcoming, nurturing ministries to those giving ~~who give~~ birth - especially to those in the midst of 'crisis pregnancies.'

Governmental laws and regulations do not provide all the guidance required by the informed Christian conscience. Therefore, a decision concerning abortion should be made only after thoughtful and prayerful consideration by the parties involved, with medical, pastoral, and other appropriate counsel."

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR DEALING WITH CLERGY SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

WHEREAS, "persons accused of sexual misconduct are to be considered innocent until the accusation has been substantiated." (Assumptions Underlying Procedures, hereby referred to as Assumptions, as listed on page 257 in the 1994 NC Conference Journal); and

WHEREAS, the wording in Item 2 of the Procedures "After a Complaint is Formally Filed: For Ordained Ministers and Local Pastors" (on page 257, hereby referred to as Complaint) imply the guilt of a person accused of sexual misconduct;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that Item 2a under "Complaint" be amended to read as follows (with word changes underlined):

a. "in sharing the nature of the charges, care shall be taken to protect both the alleged victims and the accused."

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Item 2b of the same section be amended to read as follows (with word changes underlined):

b. "The explanation of the charges involved shall be sufficiently complete to provide a clear understanding of the charges and to protect both the alleged victims and the accused from further alleged misconduct."

And

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an Item 4 be added to Assumptions, written as follows: "The North Carolina Annual Conference recognizes the importance of finding the truth when sexual misconduct is alleged. False accusations of sexual misconduct, or deliberate behavior which falsely implies sexual misconduct, is morally wrong. A false accusation may be a chargeable offense."

WHEREAS, the accused, innocent or guilty, are in need of ministry as well as the accuser; and

WHEREAS, in the Procedures, the section on "Responsibilities for Children and Others" (on page 259, and hereby referred to as Responsibilities) does not mention the above;

WHEREAS, this seems to either imply the guilt of the accused minister, or to imply that ministers guilty of sexual misconduct are not in need of ministry, or are unworthy of it;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the last sentence of the second paragraph of "Responsibilities" be amended to read as follows (with word changes underlined):

"The Bishop and district superintendent shall do all possible to see that pastoral care is provided to all involved in both alleged and actual incidents of clergy sexual misconduct."

REPORTS

BOARD OF INSTITUTIONS, INC.

In 1992 the NC Annual Conference authorized the creation of a new corporation, the NC Annual Conference Board of Institutions, Inc. ("BI"). The purpose of this action was to define more accurately the relationship between the Conference and its affiliated institutions, which include the three colleges, retirement home, children's home, group homes for the handicapped (still in the planning stage), and Conference camps. It presupposed that the Conference wanted to maintain its past close ties with those institutions whose programs remain consistent with the Conference's policies and The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church. However, the Conference also wished to protect its broader objectives by modifying its legal relationships with the institutions by the creation of the new corporation, BI. This corporation was designed to provide technical and legal oversight concerning institutional governance and the financial health of the affiliated institutions.

This past year the trustees of BI have functioned smoothly to accomplish the purposes first set forth by the 1992 Annual Conference, while attempting to minimize the intrusion into the activities of the affiliated institutions. Based upon the amended articles of incorporation and by-laws of each institution, BI continues to elect forty percent of the board of each institution on the Conference's behalf. BI has also explored a number of other issues with the presidents of the affiliated institutions, including the adequacy of each institution's directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, the institution's use of the name and logo of the Conference or The UMC, and any language in deeds which could in any way be construed as affecting the institution's relationship with the Conference or the Conference's liability.

In carrying out its purposes, the trustees of BI have also established a Financial Review Committee of BI, which includes members of the BI Board of Trustees and independent certified public accountants. This committee will meet again in May with the chief financial officer, accountant or other representative of each affiliated institution (which has finances independent of the Conference) to review its audited financial statements for the preceding fiscal year. The findings of this committee regarding the financial status of the institutions are shared with the institution's president and with the appropriate Conference commission. The affiliated institutions have been most cooperative in this regard and where appropriate have taken action based upon the recommendations of this committee. The Financial Review Committee and institutions appear to agree that this dialogue was beneficial to all parties concerned.

The Board of BI has also worked with the appropriate Conference and camping personnel in attempting to clarify the respective roles of the Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries of the Conference and the NC UM Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc. Forty percent of the members of the latter corporate board is elected by BI. In order to be consistent with the spirit of the original Conference action creating BI, however, BI believes that the corporation needs to be more analogous to the other affiliated institutions and serve more as the agency responsible for the programs than has been true historically. After considerable discussion, those camping bodies have over the past year moved to a structure whereby the corporation, as opposed to the Conference commission, has assumed principal responsibility for the operation of the camping program. The committee structure which formerly operated as part of the Conference commission is now answerable to the corporation board, which has the primary role in policy and financial oversight of the camping program. On the other hand, the Conference commission now serves largely as a public relations instrument with the communities and churches and as liaison with the Conference Council on Ministries.

Unlike the other institutions affiliated with the Conference, the camping program remains heavily dependent upon not only Conference funding but also on Conference staffing by Council on Ministries and Treasurer's Office personnel. This Conference support continues to be necessary for the overall success of the camping program. Yet this relationship tends to blur the distinctions between the camping corporation and the Conference and could foster the impression with the general public that the camping program is merely an agency of the Conference. Such appearances obviously increase the Conference's potential liability for the actions of the camping program.

BI has studied this issue and recommends that the Conference enter into an Affiliation Agreement with the camping corporation, renewable annually, which sets forth the rights and responsibilities of each party based on current practice but establishes the corporation as an independent contractor rather than an agency of the Conference. The duties imposed upon the camping corporation by this agreement are no greater than those already imposed on the other institutions by the 1992 Conference action, which reordered the legal relationships between the Conference and its affiliated institutions. This agreement would not diminish in any substantial way the current role of Conference staff or other support in assisting the camping program, and it would cost the camping corporation only one dollar per year. It represents a compromise position which, although not fail-proof, will help to protect the Conference from potential liability for the camping program with a minimum of disruption or expense to that program.

Consequently, at the meeting of the trustees of BI on March 8, 1995, the trustees moved that the 1995 NC Annual Conference adopt the following:

RECOMMENDATION

That the Secretary of the NC Annual Conference be directed to execute on its behalf an Affiliation Agreement with the North Carolina United Methodist Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries, Inc., negotiated by the North Carolina Annual Conference Board of Institutions, Inc., which sets forth the rights and responsibilities of each party while affirming the Conference's continued support in the form of personnel, equipment, supplies and services to assist this important ministry.

The trustees of BI have appreciated the privilege granted to them by the Conference to serve as members of this Board and have attempted to be faithful to the intent of the Conference in creating BI. The Board will continue to assist in protecting the Conference from potential legal liability, while monitoring the appropriate stewardship of resources by those institutions supported in part with Conference funds.

1994 COMPENSATION OF CLERGY IN APPOINTMENTS BEYOND THE LOCAL CHURCH

When this information is not furnished, the appointment of the clergyperson shall be subject to review by the resident bishop and the Cabinet."

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES REPORTS

ARCHIVES AND HISTORY, COMMISSION ON

This has truly been an exciting and rewarding year for the members of our Commission. We were busy making plans for the Bicentennial Celebration of the Camp Meeting in NC at Annual Conference on Thursday night, June 9, 1994. We had a called meeting on March 17, 1994 at the UM Building and our regular spring meeting on April 23, 1994 at the same location to complete our plans for the celebration.

The night of the celebration was more than any of us could have hoped for. The choral music led by Cordova UMC Choir, Branchmen Quartet - Branch Street UMC and John Wesley UMC Mass Choir helped to get the mood set for the evening. Rev. Denny C. Wise, our Worship Leader, did an outstanding job of interpreting the camp meeting from his own research and written script. Rev. Wise would share about an aspect of the camp meeting and then we would experience it through a dramatic reenactment. Some of these were "Lining Out" Songs, Preaching, Spiritual Songs, Testimonies, and The Exhorter. Rev. Wise then shared how we might learn from the past to enable living out our faith today. We will long remember the wonderful time we shared at our camp meeting celebration. Our Commission wishes to thank the host of people who helped to make this a special celebration for our Commission and Annual Conference.

On Friday afternoon at Annual Conference, we participated in the "Avenues of Opportunity." We shared pictures of past events in our Conference and within our Commission with those who passed by our tent. We had materials used in the preservation and storage of archival holdings and information on how to obtain them. Miss Pat Bailey prepared handouts and many interesting items to share with people and to support our theme, "Guiding our Future by Guarding our Past."

Rev. Simeon F. Cummings is to be thanked for his support in the promotion of our Native American history book, The Lumbee Methodists, Getting To Know Them. We encourage everyone to purchase this outstanding work by calling the UM Building at 1-800-849-4433 and ask for Mrs. Evelyn Lane.

The 1994 SEJ Historical Society met on July 12-15, 1994 at Emory & Henry College, Emory, VA, with the theme "Methodists Mark The Mountain Empire." Those in attendance from our Annual Conference were Rev. and Mrs. C. Maness Mitchell, Mr. John Mitchell, Miss Pat Bailey, and Rev. and Mrs. Denny C. Wise. Everyone in attendance had a great time and enjoyed sharing about our Camp Meeting experience with the other Commissions. The next meeting is to be held at Huntingdon College, Montgomery, AL, July 1995.

The NC Conference UM Historical Society held meetings at University UMC, Chapel Hill, on April 9, 1994 and Wilson Temple UMC, Raleigh, on October 29, 1994. The fall meeting was a joint meeting with our Conference Commission. Annual dues to the Society are $7 and include a subscription to the newsletter, Saddlebags, edited by Rev. C. Frank Grill, 330 Azalea Road, Southern Pines, NC 28387. Dues may be sent to the Rev. Bill Cummings, POBox 3411, Lumberton, NC 28359 or at our display table at Annual Conference. The Society and the Commission wish to express our heart felt appreciation to our past editor of Saddlebags, Mr. Grady L. E. Carroll, Sr. During the past 10 years, he has provided us with an enriching newsletter. He now serves on our Commission.

I had the privilege to attend Preservation North Carolina's 1994 Annual Conference, October 14-16, in Winston-Salem. The theme this year was, "Sacred Trusts: Preserving NC's Religious Architecture." Discussion of the Wachovia Tract and touring Old Salem were highlights of the event for me. The Rev. Dr. William Jennings Bryant III, pastor, Grace UMC, Dallas, TX, gave an outstanding keynote address, "Mission and Maintenance: The Stewardship of Religious Properties."

We continued our support of two historic churches with grants of $125 each to Whitaker's Chapel of Enfield and to Rehoboth Church of Plymouth. The next meeting of our Commission will emphasize training of our membership as consultants to the local church in the area of preservation and recording of church history. We are always blessed when visiting congregations to see their work of preservation and sharing of their history. We hope to facilitate your work and interest in historical preservation.

CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Congregational Development began its first year with enthusiasm as it attempted to embrace the scope of work placed before it by the Annual Conference. The Into the 21st Century report affirmed the need to start a number of new congregations each year to equal 1% of the total charges in the Conference. That translates to the challenging goal of six new congregations per year! An equal number of existing churches identified as redeveloping congregations are to be assisted as well.

In order to address these goals a number of initiatives have been undertaken. The Commission first began to see its work concerning New Congregational Development being divided into three major categories: I. Leadership, II. Location, and III. Funding.

I. Leadership. The first priority in successfully starting a new congregation is the appointment of a pastor who possesses the skills, experience, and sense of call needed for this unique ministry.

* A search has been undertaken to identify pastors who wish to be considered for such an appointment. A number of pastors are currently enrolled in a new church leadership identification group.

* Several pastors will be sponsored each year to attend the Duke Institute for New Church Pastors. The idea is to develop a cadre of pastors who are willing and trained, from which appointments could be made.

II. Location. A number of communities and locales across the Conference are being identified as likely sites for new churches.

* The Percept Program continues to provide demographic profiles of the locales around the Conference that show sufficient numbers of under-served, unchurched people that call for new church mission.

* Three locations have been recommended to the Bishop and Cabinet which offer excellent opportunities to reach unchurched persons for Christ in 1995. Extensive study has illustrated the viability of these locations in Pinehurst, Chapel Hill and Fayetteville. A number of other locations in the Conference are on a priority list, and studies are being carried out in these areas. When monies are available, these projects will go forward.

III. Funding.

* The Emerging Church Salary Support Fund is currently providing partial compensation for the pastors of ten new congregations. Monies are available for the appointment of three additional pastors in July of 1995.

* The Ten Dollar Club added a new dimension this year. A fifth call was added, and Ten Dollar Club members were invited to purchase multiple shares of ten dollars each. Interpreted with posters and new publicity materials, the changes have received a remarkably positive response.

* An endowment policy and a plan for endowment growth are being developed to promote long term investment in the ministry of new congregations in the North Carolina Annual Conference.

The work of the Commission on Congregational Development is to support the establishment of new communities of faith across the Conference whose core commitment is to welcome new persons into the Church of Jesus Christ, enabling them to become mature disciples.The Commission's members are grateful for the opportunity to participate in such a sacred ministry.

DISASTER PREPAREDNESS, COMMITTEE ON

This past year fun, fellowship and wonderful persons gathering pledges and then walking or running two miles made disaster a very happy word! The 1994 walk-run collected funds and good will for the Disaster Preparedness Committee. We are pleased to say that this year we had no major disasters and our financial base has been restored.

We thank all the good people of the NC Conference for your love, support and energy. Special thanks goes to Bishop C.P. Minnick for finding a way to continue our ministry through the walk-run for funds event. Special thanks also goes to The Reverend Randall Maynard for the excellent work organizing the event.

We have a very good committee and stand ready to help should a disaster strike the Conference. We also look forward to working with and through the Conference committees and commissions whose talents can aide in disaster relief. We continue to prepare and pray, prepare to meet needs in a disaster, and pray our preparations will not be needed. Our training event, March 24 and 25 was ably led, and helped us better understand our ministry. Special thanks to The Reverend Dennis Levin, chairperson, the Interfaith Disaster Relief Committee, Dick Cheek, Emergency Management Planner for the State, Mrs. Ellen Dorsett and The Reverend Jerry Jackson of our Committee for being the trainers, organizers, and host for the training event.

Continue to pray for our Committee and for our Conference. We all join together in prayer and preparation for the 1995-1996 conference year. May no disasters befall us.

EDUCATION, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Education responds to God's call to provide more leadership for local congregations in developing stronger Christian Education ministries. In 1993 our commission had a vision of twelve District Directors of Christian Education in our conference. In June of 1995 the Elizabeth City District will have the first District Director of Christian Education.

Each district will envision and tailor make a "job description" based on the needs of the district contemplating hiring a full-time District DCE. Possibilities for ministry include: quarterly church school teacher training; annual curriculum overview; maintain a current "resource center", etc. The initial purpose of such a position is to educate and empower lay leadership in local congregations. The needs of the local church have been heard. Each year we dream of adding at least two District Christian Educators.

Our Ministry Training Teams continue to provide excellent leadership for local congregations. The Vision 2000: Sunday School Growth Module is using the MTT to follow up with the Evangelism Module: Reaching Out Through the Sunday School. Our Curriculum Consultant Teams provide local churches with helpful ways to use the resources of the Methodist Church.

A task force has been appointed to strengthen our relationship with the Methodist Home for Children. The addition of a staff person as Child Care Consultant has offered much guidance to communities regarding alternative day and after school programs.

The Singles Task Force continues to offer successful events throughout the year. A Spring Fling For Singles was held May 5-7, 1995 at Camp Don Lee entitled: Celebrating God's Gifts.

The Commission on Education sees a vision as "focus hope." God works in and through the church to imagine possibilities. It is our hope that God will engage Methodists in prayer and teachings that will nurture our lives and quicken our hearts to faithful discipleship. We desire to reclaim Scripture as the foundation of Christian Education and spiritual formation. The Commission on Education makes a plea for the Church to exercise prayer and basic Bible teaching so that God can transform the lives of the people of NC Conference.

ETHNIC MINORITY LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS, COMMITTEE ON

The Ethnic Minority Local Church Concerns Committee is pleased to report that Clark Street UMC has a very rich ministry under the very able leadership of the Reverend Gregory J. Bronson. Clark Street UMC is located in the Rocky Mount District. The Clark Street Ministry brings to the Rocky Mount District its first African American ministry; we thank God for God's grace in bringing racial ethnic inclusion to the Rocky Mount District.

As a Conference committee, we have been active in the struggle for inclusiveness this conference year in a supportive role. Following is a list of ministries we have supported and grants we have donated:

- Grant for The Asian American Federation of the SEJ of The UMC
- Grant for SEJANAM
- Grant for 2 NC Conference attendees to SEJ BMCR
- Publicity for t-shirts for Raleigh Open Christian Center for Knowledge
- 2 Scholarships for Black Pastors' Retreat
- Host expenses for Black College Fund Intern

- Grant to Marcus UMC for Multi-racial Youth Ministry
- Grant to Anderson UMC for Music Team Ministry
- Faith Sharing Event,
  "A Positive Christian Witness: Talking the Walk & Walking the Talk"

Our major work for this conference year will take place on April 7-8, 1995. On those days, we will update and revise the Comprehensive Plan for presentation to the 1995 Annual Conference. Representatives from the Vision 2000 and Church Growth Ministries will be a part of our two-day meeting.

We thank you for your prayers and support and ask you to join us as we struggle to make Paul's writings in I Corinthians 12:13 a reality in our Annual Conference: "In the same way, all of us, whether Jews or Gentiles, whether slaves or free, have been baptized into the one body by the same Spirit, and we have all been given the one Spirit to drink."

William E. Cummings, Chairperson

EVANGELISM, COMMISSION ON

The 1994/95 conference year began with a wonderful celebration at Annual Conference. The Rev. Chip Webb from the WNC Annual Conference spoke about his experiences with VISION 2000 on the Sid Charge. His animated preaching style and enlightening message brought a renewal of energy and vision to the conference. This one experience set the tone for the year's work by the Commission.

The Commission has continued its work in emphasizing the ministry of evangelism in churches of all sizes in all settings. The Commission participated in a training session for pastors serving their first appointments and in a major cross-racial faith sharing event sponsored by the Commission's Ethnic Minority Local Church Committee. The Commission sponsored 44 participants from local churches throughout the Conference to attend the February Church Growth Seminar at Frazer Memorial UMC in Montgomery. Members of the Commission have also played an integral role in bringing VISION 2000 to life.

The Commission on Evangelism takes seriously the teachings of Christ that call us to respond to God's great love for us by reaching out in love to others. The Commission seeks to enable that spirit of outreach in every local church.

Ecwood C. (Eckie) Lancaster, Chairperson

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, COMMISSION ON

New opportunities, new challenges, new avenues of service, and new ways to meet the commission of our Lord to go forth and minister to those in need mean that the way we do ministry must ever be changing. The work of our commission is undergoing constant growth and change as it seeks to find new ways to minister to people with differing situations and needs in an ever changing world.

Every church is encouraged to elect a Health and Human Services chairperson, who has a vital role in helping the congregation reach out to those in need in the community. This person is to be the contact for Golden Cross Fund aid, both to receive applications and to promote this ministry. Golden Cross has become increasingly important as an outreach to help those in need of financial assistance with medical expenses. The number of applications for assistance in the past year increased dramatically. Last year The Golden Cross Fund was exhausted before the end of the third quarter, which demonstrates the growing need for, and awareness of, this source of help. The maximum grant for aid is $1000.00. Churches are encouraged to receive a voluntary offering to enable us to increase the number of grants which we can award.

Church accessibility continues to be a pressing need. The Americans with Disabilities Act exempts churches from having to comply with the ADA requirements. However, we are commanded by Christ to reach out to all persons, including those with handicapping conditions. SEMAR, Southeastern UM Agency for Rehabilitation, Inc., P.O. Box 129, Lake Junaluska, NC, 28745, has a packet of information and guidelines to help churches do an accessibility audit to determine how accessible the church and buildings are. SEMAR has awarded grants to several churches to help them become accessible to persons with hearing difficulties. We are being encouraged to make our own grants to continue to lift up the need of accessibility and ministry to persons with handicapping conditions

We are excited about a joint venture now being studied between Asbury Homes, an outreach ministry to older adult persons with mentally handicapping conditions, and The Methodist Retirement Home, Inc. A joint ministry would benefit both the Retirement Homes as well as the Asbury Homes.

The Chaplaincy Program at The Duke Medical Center is one which benefits both the local church as well as patients and staff. A UM Chaplain is available to make pastoral calls and for counsel when the local church pastor is unable to be present. All churches and pastors need to be aware of this opportunity for ministry.

The Methodist Home for Children is currently in the midst of the New Century Campaign. This will help to prepare MHC for an expanded ministry. The MHC was recently recognized as an EAGLE organization at the Health and Welfare Convention in Kansas City. We rejoice in the ministry of MHC in family preservation and in the fact that it is recognized as a leader in innovative ministry and therapy for families in need. This ministry continues to flourish as the needs of families and their children continue to grow.

The MRH, Inc., is currently expanding its ministry. There is mounting excitement about the planned relocation of the Durham Campus, and groundbreaking at the Croasdaile Village site was held on Sunday, March 19. There is also an expansion underway at Cypress Glen to provide much needed space and additional facilities. The MRH has also entered into a management agreement with Quail Haven Retirement Home in Southern Pines. There is much excitement over the potential for expanded ministry across our conference. MRH is currently working on the EAGLE designation with a goal of being recognized as such in the near future. Churches are urged to support the MRH, Inc., and The MHC, through special offerings and through the Food Lion Days program.

There is a new opportunity now available through the Commission on Health and Human Services in the form of "The One Who Is Loved," a fund established with United Methodist Foundation to give a special love gift to benefit children with special needs. The first gift from the fund, which is managed by UMF and awarded by the Commission on Health and Human Services, was made this past spring. We look forward to sending additional special love gifts from "The One Who Is Loved" fund.

There are many opportunities for churches to be in ministry right where they are. Children and old adults needing day care, those trapped by drug abuse or alcoholism, persons with special needs, senior citizens, persons with handicapping conditions, and others needing a healing touch in the name of Christ are all valid ministries of Health and Human Services. Other conferences utilize programs such as: parish nurses, community based day care, adult day care, medicine box program, hospice volunteer ministry, and other ministries which directly minister to people in need. Celebrate these ministries as truly being love in action.

The ministry of Health and Human Services is one which is growing and changing in a world that is growing and changing. May God continue to guide us, both as a conference and as individual churches, as we minister in the name of Christ.

The Asbury Homes, Inc.

The Asbury Homes, Inc. was created by the NC Annual Conference as the agency which would develop, operate, manage and maintain homes for adults with mental retardation. At the time of the agency's creation, the State of NC was eagerly seeking the church's involvement in providing residential services through small, family sized, community based, residential homes.

The Asbury Homes, Inc. Board has worked to locate property in communities where there was clearly identified need for such services. When property finally was available, the State had placed a moratorium on funding for this type of residential alternative. This meant that there was a limited amount of available state money with which to purchase these services. It did not mean that there was any less of a need than there had been before. So, the Board of Trustees of The Asbury Homes, Inc. began to examine other types of residential alternatives that would enable the agency to help provide the kind of quality care that United Methodist and other church related families are seeking for their family member.

One of the greatest needs which we discovered that is not being met by the State of NC in any effective manner is residential care for the geriatric adult with mental retardation. Requirements for living, housing, care, and program are all special and different from the other community type residential facilities.

The Asbury Homes, Inc. Board has begun a dialog with Dr. Reginald W. Ponder and members of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. concerning the possible development of a retirement type program and residential facilities for the geriatric adult with mental retardation.

The MRH, Inc. Board has offered to The Asbury Homes, Inc. Board a home in Tabor City that had been given to them and was not readily marketable as a retirement home. The Asbury Homes, Inc. Board is currently negotiating with the Southeastern Area Mental Health and Mental Retardation staff and the Durham County Area Mental Health and Mental Retardation Staff concerning contracts for the operation of a high quality geriatric program.

The Asbury Homes, Inc. Board of Trustees is committed to its ministry and may well emerge as a pioneer and a leader in the field of providing services for a target population that no one else in the State of NC has adequately addressed or provides for - that of the geriatric adult with mental retardation.

Golden Cross

The Golden Cross Ministry is one means by which our Conference reaches out in love to the laity within our Conference who are experiencing difficulty in meeting the demands of excessive medical expenses. Through Golden Cross we United Methodists care for members of our local church families in times of great emotional stress and financial need.

1994 was another record year for Golden Cross. Once again, we received an "avalanche" of requests. By August we had exhausted our "promised" funds! We had budgeted $27,336 for 1994 and spent it all. During 1994 we assisted 34 families from 11 Districts in our Conference. This could have been much higher if we had had more funds available. If your church chooses to take a special offering for Golden Cross, please send it to Golden Cross, %Caroline Buckland, PO Box 10955, Raleigh, NC 27605. Golden Cross is a very special ministry.

Therefore, as you encounter those in need of financial assistance to help meet medical expenses, encourage them to contact their pastor for additional information and an application form. With God's help, and your generosity, we will meet every eligible request with the funds we have. In the past, we United Methodists in the NC Conference have been most gracious in making these funds available to all United Methodists.

The church and its members are grateful for your support in times of extreme need. God bless you.

The Methodist Home for Children

Every now and then in this work, there occurs an event which sort of captures the total meaning of what Methodist Home for Children (MHC) - Child & Family Services does. Such an event happened in December. The scene was the Raleigh Area Foster Care Christmas Party. Some 200 persons including foster children, foster families, some natural families, staff and friends gathered at Gregory's Restaurant. It was a happy time and the children were excited.

After a delicious buffet, the children gathered on the carpet for a story told by foster parent, John Kelley. The children were grouped close together and one little foster child, a lad about 9 years old, sat close to John with his elbow propped on John's knee.

John chose to tell the story of the first Christmas. He told the children how Joseph and Mary made their way to Bethlehem. Mary was expecting a baby. He said the time had come for the baby to be born and he told how Mary wrapped the baby boy in cloth and laid him in the manger. He began to read from Luke, Chapter 2, how there were shepherds in the field keeping watch over their flocks by night and how the angel of the Lord appeared to them and how they were filled with fear.

He continued to read how the angel said, "Fear not, for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people," and John explained that means, the good news was for every person.

At that moment, the little boy at John's knee said in a clear voice filled with amazement: "Even for me?" And John said, "Yes, even for you!" All of us present were profoundly moved by the power of that moment.

That event captures what MHC is about. MHC stands ready to give the affirmative response to the eternal question, "Even for Me?"

CERTIFICATION

1994 was significant for MHC. The agency did an exhaustive self study and submitted itself for certification review. A joint panel of site reviewers visited in June, representing the Council on Accreditation of Services for Children and Families (COA) and the UM Association of Health and Welfare Ministries' EAGLE Program (Educational Assessment Guidelines Leading Towards Excellence). MHC was awarded COA re-certification in September and the EAGLE recognition at the National UMA meeting in April in Kansas City. MHC is also a Certified Sponsor Site of the Teaching-Family Association. These certifications assure quality measures by national guidelines and serve to position MHC well in this developing age of managed care.

SERVICES

MHC served a record number of children, youth and families in 1994. 421 children were served in out-of-home placement. 344 were new admissions (compared to an average of 30 new admissions per year for the first 80 years of MHC history). We served 98 families through in-home services encompassing 242 children where a child was at eminent risk of placement and only 13 children had to be placed because problems could not be resolved. In all, we served 669 families in clinical services. 178 workshop sessions were held in family life education for 2376 participants. Over 7000 persons attended interpretation events.

STRATEGIC PLAN

A Strategic Plan was developed in 1994. The Plan is a landmark document. It sets forth a collaborative model of care so that every child or family can easily access all services through one portal of entry. It sets forth a vision of program service dissemination which will extend the quality of care models MHC uses to other agencies. Most particularly, the Plan sets forth a vision of intentional family-centered services provided by local Churches. MHC's experience in providing family life education and counseling indicates that the local church is a superior community-based setting for family-centered services. The Strategic Plan calls for MHC facilitation of this development.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE SUPPORT

The support of the Annual Conference is critical to the existence of MHC. The contribution of each local Church through their apportioned giving is deeply appreciated. The $250,000 contributed in 1994 is the financial platform on which all services are built. Others have given through second-mile contributions. These gifts, together with income from the endowment, provided more than $2,000,000 in benevolent services as part of an $8,000,000 annual budget.

NEW CENTURY CAMPAIGN

The New Century Campaign seeks to raise $7,000,000 investment in MHC Child and Family Services by the Centennial celebration of the agency in 1999. This investment is essential to enabling MHC to meet the demand for services and to provide leadership in human services into the new century. $1,400,000 has been received in cash and pledges. The Campaign is progressing slowly, community by community.

"EVEN FOR ME?"

All who have asked the incredulous question, "Even for me?", and been assured of the grace of God, are invited to invest resources in the assurance work of MHC. There are many, many children and families in need.

Rufus H. Stark II, President

The United Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated

Many exciting things took place at The United Methodist Retirement Homes during the last year, and I would like to share some of them with you.

Leadership is always a key ingredient in any enterprise. The Leadership Team, which is comprised of the President/Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer/Chief Operating Officer, Assistant to the President, Director of Development, Director of Public Relations, and the five facility administrators, meets monthly. This team represents the committed service of more than 400 caring staff persons; I appreciate the work they do. I believe that this Leadership Team will provide stability, skill, and superlative supervision for this ministry for years to come.

Deep appreciation is expressed to the vitally-committed Board of Trustees who serve with unparalleled devotion to give guidance and support to this ministry.

During the year, staff, residents and trustees have worked on the EAGLE (Educational Assessment Guidelines Leading toward Excellence) accreditation program of The United Methodist Association. This exhaustive effort is but another indication of the intention of The UMRH to achieve a standard of excellence in our caregiving.

One of the major steps undertaken during the year has been the addition of Quail Haven Village in Pinehurst to the number of facilities through which we serve. We began managing this facility on September 1, 1994 under a three-year management contract.

Another major accomplishment achieved during the year has been the improvement of the census at each of the facilities. We are now serving in the four facilities approximately 620 persons. We anticipate, with the completion of the expansion in Greenville and the relocation and expansion in Durham, that the number of persons we serve will approach 1,000 by the end of 1996. This will mean that our ability to serve the aging population within the bounds of the NC Annual Conference of The UMC will have more than doubled in the span of just three years. We anticipate that the capacity will double again early in the next century.

Expansion is always exciting! Certainly that is the atmosphere that pervades Cypress Glen in Greenville and the Methodist Retirement Community in Durham as the residents, staff and future residents wait for the completion of the new facilities. I can assure you that everyone is working as diligently as possible to see that these projects are completed and that the quality of service is not compromised in any manner. Our goal is to offer the very best in facilities and service at an affordable price.

While I am reporting on the expansion plans, I want to assure you that this expansion will not jeopardize our corporation's ability to serve. A preliminary financial feasibility study indicates that the projects can be completed with a favorable cash-to-debt ratio.

Benevolent care is a vital part of our overall ministry to the senior adults in eastern NC. From the beginning of the retirement homes in the conference 40 years ago, the availability of benevolent care has been integral and is still a key ingredient of our ministry today. The total amount of our benevolent allowances/allocations over the past eight years has averaged approximately $1,000,000 per year. Our Board of Trustees and our administration are committed to maintaining and even increasing this level of benevolent care. This is crucial for the fulfillment of the mission statement of the corporation and is important to our sense of Christian mission as a ministering arm of the NC Annual Conference and The UMC. Your support and contributions help make this ministry possible.

We take our mission statement "to serve United Methodists in the North Carolina Annual Conference and others who desire to live within a Christian Retirement Community and to extend support services beyond our campuses. . ." as a "high calling." Our primary mission is to operate, expand and develop Christian retirement communities. The predicted growth in the senior adult population over the next 40-50 years challenges us to the limit. However, we realize that many seniors will live in their own homes and not in a retirement community. Therefore, our plans are to initiate "Home Care" in the very near future. Home Care is licensed by the state and will enable us to provide nursing, therapy, housekeeping, yard/home maintenance to senior adults in eastern NC. It is anticipated that the retirement communities will serve as bases for Home Care. Another projected "support service beyond our campuses" is the possibility of making durable medical equipment available for our constituents. This would include hospital beds, wheelchairs, walkers, etc.

The needs of the elderly in our conference are great. We are committed to meeting as many of these needs as our limited resources will permit.

Thank you for all that you do to support and enhance the ministry of The UMRH.

Reginald W. Ponder, President/Chief Executive Officer

HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY, COMMISSION ON

One of the first actions of the 1784 Christmas Conference which founded the Methodist Church in America was to establish Cokesbury College in Abington, MD. The Church's historic concern for higher education is reflected in the fact that 122 schools, colleges and universities in the US are related to The UMC. The NC Conference can be proud of its involvement in higher education both through its church-related colleges (and theological school) and its support of campus ministries on other public and private campuses.

A majority of the Conference's financial support for higher education goes to Methodist, Louisburg, and NC Wesleyan Colleges. Lesser amounts go to Duke Divinity School, High Point University, Greensboro College and Bennett College.

Methodist College, our host for annual conference, continues to expand its facilities. A new dormitory was opened in August of last year and another dormitory is to be ready for occupancy by the fall of this year. Also under construction is the Golf and Tennis Learning Center. Further evidence of the College's diversity of its curriculum is the establishment of a "physician's assistant program."

NC Wesleyan College is pleased to announce that Dr. John White will assume the presidency of the College on July 1. Dr. White, a graduate of Emory and Henry College and Duke University, served as Dean of Academic Affairs at De Pauw University before coming to Wesleyan. The Wesleyan College community also anxiously awaits the completion of the Charles Kelly Dunn, Jr. and Inez Dail Dunn Center for the Performing Arts. The auditorium, gallery, recital hall and other facilities will greatly enhance the College's service to students, the Church and the region.

Louisburg College, to evidence its commitment to serve UM students from across NC, has established the Cecil and Eloise Robbins Methodist Student Grant Program. Each pastor in the NC and WNC Conferences will be able to nominate one (1) student each year to receive a $1,000 renewable grant. It is the College's goal to increase the number of UM students enrolled. As a Church we also can celebrate such programs as WAVES (Workers Actively Volunteering Energetic Services) and the College's Christian Life Council. Both are involved in outstanding campus and off campus volunteer ministries.

Though much more could be said about each of the UM related institutions, these highlights remind us that these are exciting times in the lives of our colleges.

The Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry also recognizes the importance of our campus ministries and encourages you to read the report of the State Commission on Campus Ministry. We celebrate a new campus ministry at UNC-Asheville and commend the State Commission for launching a long-range planning process.

On behalf of the campus ministry units, church related colleges and divinity school, I express appreciation to the Annual Conference for its support of this historic ministry of The UMC.

Edward F. Hill II, Chairperson

Campus Ministry, State Commission on

Listed below are some of the examples of the vitality of UM Campus Ministry in the State of NC. (There are 16 campus ministries represented by the Commission.)

1. 12 of the 14 seniors at one of the Wesley Foundations this past year chose after graduation to enter either some form of the ministry and/or human service field. One of these graduates started an orphanage in Bolivia.
2. 30 students from across our campus ministry units attended Explore '94, a UM conference for exploring the call to ordained ministry.
3. Another campus ministry unit has established a covenant relationship with a seminary in Mexico where students can exchange visits and observe new areas of mission and ministry.
4. One campus unit has initiated a coffee house ministry and is finding it an effective outreach to students.
5. NC, along with the state of Texas, had the largest representation of students at the quadrennial ecumenical national student conference held in St. Louis. Also, approximately 200 students attended the most recent state student conference.
6. Other campus ministry units annually are sending mission work teams either within or outside the country. One campus ministry at a community college has targeted ministries to handicapped students and provides a Bible study for children of college employees. Another Wesley Foundation, through its student intercessory prayer group, has become a center for receiving prayer requests from persons across the campus including faculty and administration.

In addition to the support given to the student work on campus, the Commission completed the revision of the Handbook (the guidelines and policy for campus ministry) and adopted a model/proposal for a campus minister's exchange with other campus ministers from across the country.

In 1995 the Commission initiated a long range planning procedure, starting with listening sessions at campuses across the state. This effort is being assisted by the General Board on Higher Education and Ministry, with Reverend Dr. James Noseworthy as consultant. The plan will set forth the vision for campus ministry into the turn of the century. It is anticipated that it will be completed by Annual Conference in 1996.

A Campus Review, a two-to-three day on-site ministry evaluation, authorized by the Commission will be conducted in the spring of 1995 at NCSU and UNC-Greensboro, with two new sites identified in 1996.

In order to assist campus ministry units in securing local financial support, a statewide stewardship event on fundraising strategies will be conducted in October 1995.

Due to increased funding needs at each unit, the campus ministers are working in conjunction with the Commission to assess the current budgeting procedure for making appropriations to the respective campus units.

The Wesley Foundation building at Appalachian State University currently is undergoing some capital improvements. Other needed repairs will have to wait until sufficient funds have been raised.

Our newest campus ministry unit at UNC-Asheville seems to be developing nicely around the Covenant Discipleship model for small groups.

At this moment there appears to be only one ministerial change among our campus ministers. Reverend Kathy Campbell at UNC-Charlotte will be leaving as of July 1 to assume the position of college chaplain at Pfeiffer College. Kathy has given outstanding leadership to both the Charlotte campus and to the State Commission. The Commission has been involved in the prescribed search procedure which we are confident will fill the vacancy by July 1.

I am pleased to report that UM Campus Ministry in NC remains at the heart of our denomination's commitment to spiritual growth and disciple-making.

The Candler School of Theology

As the largest of the 13 official UM seminaries, Candler School of Theology at Emory University helps men and women prepare for faithful and creative leadership in the 21st century church. With 80 percent of our graduates engaged in local church ministry, Candler's chief focus is enabling our students to lay the groundwork for lifelong learning through a curriculum that offers academic and practical preparation for the challenges of parish life. Candler students also are aided in their preparation through their relationship with members of the Candler faculty, a community of scholars whose faith commitment, church leadership, research, and teaching are unsurpassed in theological education.

New to the Candler faculty this year are five persons. With the addition of Robert Kysar as Bandy Professor of Preaching and New Testament and Teresa Fry as Instructor in Homiletics, there are three full-time faculty in preaching for the first time in Candler's history. Other new faculty members include: Dr. M. Patrick Graham, Librarian and Margaret A. Pitts, Associate Professor of Theological Bibliography; Dr. W. Stephen Gunter, Arthur J. Moore, Associate Professor of Evangelism; and Dr. Steven J. Kraftchick, Assistant Professor of New Testament.

These new faculty members have added fresh insights to the first year of a three-year conversation among the faculty about theological education. Laity, students, and church leaders also have been invited to become conversation partners for the process which has focused on culture (1994-95) and will continue with topics of church (1995-96) and education (1996-97). Faculty hope to enhance their understanding of educating persons for ministry by addressing four focal areas (pedagogy, globalization, spiritual formation, and diversity) during each of the three years.

The support of local churches for theological education through the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF) has never been more important for our students. We deeply appreciate your support through prayers for our faculty, students, and staff as well. As we conclude the Agenda 21 programs, which has provided opportunities for dialogue among seminary faculty and administrators, clergy, and laity, we seek new ways to talk about how we can work together to assure that churches are served by persons who are committed and effective. We are grateful for the trust that you have placed in Candler School of Theology at Emory University as with you we share the work of preparing creative and faithful leaders for the churches of this conference.

R. Kevin LaGree, Dean and Professor of Divinity

The Divinity School of Duke University

As the center of theological inquiry and learning within Duke University, the Divinity School has continued its mission of service to The UMC through research, teaching and service. This past year the School completed a self-study and review by the Association of Theological Schools for its ten-year accreditation. The School was cited for its exceptional strengths in field education, theology, church history, and biblical studies.

The Divinity School's student body remains strong, representing a total enrollment in the fall 1994 semester of 484 students (370 M.Div., 9 M.R.E., 49 M.T.S., and 22 Special) from 36 states and 7 foreign countries. The Graduate Program in Religion, a joint program between the Divinity School and the University's Department of Religion, totaled 103 students (4 M.A., 99 Ph.D.). The graduating class this year will serve the church across the world. More than 85% will be involved immediately in parish ministry.

A major study of United Methodism and American Culture has continued into its second year under the direction of Dean Dennis M. Campbell and Associate Dean for Academic Programs Russell E. Richey. The study, consisting of research and leadership development components, is funded by the Lilly Endowment. In May, the project conducted a session for the leadership component and began production of a monthly publication, Leadership Letters, which raises questions concerning church polity and leadership. The first three of these letters addressed such issues as the election of bishops, the state of connectionalism, and clergy recruitment. A second conference was held in September for all participants. A final, public conference will be held at Epworth-by-the Sea, St. Simons Island, GA, in conjunction with the Third Historical Convocation of the Methodist Church.

Two faculty promotions and one new appointment were made by the Board of Trustees. Stanley Hauerwas was named Gilbert T. Rowe Professor of Theological Ethics.

Mary McClintock Fulkerson was granted tenure in the Divinity School Faculty as associate professor of theology. Keith Meador, M.D., comes to the School from Vanderbilt Medical Center and will have a joint appointment between the Divinity School and the Medical School's Department of Psychiatry. He will be associate professor of the practice of pastoral care.

The Divinity School perseveres in its Wesleyan commitments to ecumenical relationships. The Duke Divinity School Canterbury Course continues in its third year. Students, faculty and staff as well as alumni can spend three weeks at Canterbury studying Anglican spirituality, theology, and history. As part of the ongoing ecumenical dialogues between the Episcopal Church and The UMC, a Divinity School-funded videotape study guide featuring Professors Geoffrey Wainwright and Patricia Page was made for the NC UM-Episcopal ecumenical dialogue.

Kimberly W. Pair has been appointed director of general administration and finance, filling the position left vacant by Mrs. Clara Godwin, who retired from the School after twenty-four years of service. Among Ms. Pair's priorities is the installation of a new computer network that will link the School to the University and the Internet. Wesley F. Brown, who has served the School in the areas of development and alumni affairs for thirteen years, has been named associate dean for development and alumni affairs.

LAITY, COMMISSION ON

There has been unusual excitement in our Annual Conference this year mainly due to the "Vision 2000" emphasis. Laity and clergy have continually voiced their hopes, dreams and visions for the move toward the year 2000. The Commission on Laity shall remain true to its efforts of equipping persons in our local churches to lead, work and celebrate God's grace. The Commission encourages local churches who have not yet realized the vision that God has for them to continue to seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

The Commission has been planning prayerfully and diligently for the first Transformation 2000 Laity Event with it's focus on "equipping emerging laity." This event will take place November 17-19, 1995 at the Sheraton Hotel, Atlantic Beach, NC. One of our most precious resources in the church is lay people who are willing to serve. There are new persons (emerging leaders) in our churches who will need and will want to enter the lines of leadership and they bring fresh ideas. We must be open to new approaches and new persons, and therefore, we invite local churches to nominate individuals to attend the above gathering.

Our lay leaders have taken their responsibilities seriously and have tried to get the message out, so that all might hear and respond to the call of Christ to indeed be servants and share the good news. This has been accomplished through January Workshops, Lay Rallies, Laity Sunday observances, Mission Fairs, and Lay Speaker Training, to name a few.

In order that we may continue to carry out the mission of the Annual Conference, "to help prepare and empower local congregations to be strategic centers for ministry and mission," the Commission on Laity will continue to provide training and support for laity of the Annual Conference through the following:

JANUARY WORKSHOPS: Excellent opportunities for leader Development. We will continue to listen for suggestions/recommendations for new programming.

The SEJ LAITY CONFERENCE at Lake Junaluska, also a time for fellowship, sharing and an opportunity to become "spiritually recharged."

LAY RALLIES: Featured speakers/preachers, outstanding mission saturation events, recognition of outstanding high school students. offerings for scholarships for ministerial students, interpretive liturgical dances, and mass choirs.

LAY SPEAKER OPPORTUNITIES: We give thanks to God for the outstanding support and direction provided by Tom Walden, Conference director for lay speaking.

Laity Sunday 1994 was observed in our districts and the theme was "Rejoice, God's People Serve with Conviction." During this observance our churches recognized and celebrated lay persons who had given significant service throughout the year.

There was a greater emphasis during this year to lift persons other than those who were ultimately selected as "Lay Persons of the Year" in our districts.

Laity continue to serve in all facets of our Annual Conference, particularly UMM, UMW, and UMY.

Mrs. Barbara Ricks Thompson, general secretary of the General Commission on Religion and Race, reminds us, "As we await the vision...there is a need for three things: 1) To seek the vision in this time and this place as lay and clergy, 2) to share the vision as broadly as possible, and 3) to recommit to making the vision a reality."

We are grateful to God for the visionary leadership of laity and clergy in the NC Conference who bring great strengths/resources and continue to seek, share, and recommit themselves to be "partners in ministry" as we proclaim the vision far and wide.

Thanks be to God!

Gwen C. Henderson, Conference Lay Leader

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

The NC Christian Advocate has continued to evolve and grow since I started as editor in June of 1994.

Funded by subscriptions, an endowment and contributions by both conferences, the paper is beginning to take shape as a viable UM voice across NC. The intent has been to offer a blend of national, state and local church news, commentaries, features and columns that will inform and enlighten the general UM audience. Subscriptions are gradually rising each issue, and general satisfaction and positive feedback is being heard about the new shape of the paper.

That reshaping includes the switch-over to desktop publishing, larger type, larger photographs, the inclusion of new columnists like Harold Bales, Bob Baldridge, Jacquie Mishoe, Elizabeth Holbrooks and Paul Lowder while maintaining those columnists like Bob Dodd, June Medlin, Bishop Stokes and Brenda Wills.

Just as importantly, we have formatted the paper to gather similar articles and themes - Arts and Leisure, Happenings, Church Life, Reader's Response, Commentaries/ Editorials, National and State News - so that the reader could detect a flow and shape in each issue.

The Advocate will continue to evolve, with two or three major promotions that target specific church groups, and a gradual reshaping of the pages in an effort to attract a younger audience without sacrificing the loyal audience. The inclusion of a youth column or page, a concentration on age level ministries and a concerted effort to build the Advocate as a tool to deliver supplements and information from UM-related agencies (such as a recent supplement detailing the activities of UM-related colleges) are part of the immediate overall plan.

We expect the Advocate to experience slow but steady growth. As part of the Connection, our task is to try and make a link to the pew and tell the story of the Church. As an outreach ministry, the Advocate is fulfilling its Christian mission.

Kevin Rippin, NC Christian Advocate Editor

MISSIONS AND OUTREACH, COMMISSION ON

The Commission on Mission and Outreach celebrates the compassionate work of the UM Christians in local communities, in our annual conference, in our nation, and around the world. In 1994, the work of the Commission included:

Education and Cultivation. Promoting understanding of the missional outreach of our connectional church and encouraging generosity to people in need. Churches are invited to grow in generosity as they become Rainbow Covenant Churches-paying apportionments in full and participating in giving through the five lanes of the Advance (Missionary Salary Support, UM Committee on Relief, World Division, National Division, and Annual Conference Advance). Giving to the General Advance in 1994 totaled $501,153, and giving to the Conference Advance in 1994 totaled $163,125. Rev. Jesse Staton, conference missionary secretary, and the 12 district missionary secretaries are ready to educate and cultivate generosity. Contact your district secretary with questions and requests!

Volunteers-in-Mission, a partnership endeavor between groups in our Annual Conference and groups in many parts of the world. Workteams, organized on the local, subdistrict, district, and conference level have visited and assisted Christian friends in many locations, including Costa Rica, the Dominican Republic, Haiti, Mexico, Jamaica, Armenia, Liberia, Peru, Appalachia, Robeson County, inner cities in the US. Workteams have continued to work in areas affected long-term by natural disaster, including southern Florida and the coastal Carolinas. At the 1994 fall Volunteers-in-Mission rally in Goldsboro, workteam leaders were trained, workteam friends re-united, and helping and learning experiences celebrated. The Volunteers-in-Mission committee invites you to listen for God's call to short-term missionary service. As we visit with those in need, we are strengthened, inspired, and renewed.

Church and Community, assisting and encouraging the mission of local churches. Grants were made in 1994 to local churches and to locally-based helping agencies accomplishing significant missions to people in need. Financial grants in 1994 included assistance to Interfaith Hospitality Networks, the Society of St. Andrew, and Good Shepherd UMC English as a Second Language program. The church and community committee invites your applications for financial assistance effective helping ministries.

Construction Assistance to Local Churches. Gary Smith conference construction coordinator, continues to give direction and expertise to the building needs of small-membership churches and missional building needs. In 1994, nine construction projects yielded an estimated savings of $444,200 to these local congregations and ministries: Hispanic Mission (Siler City), Locust Hill, Stanhope, Wrightsboro, Evergreen, Bethlehem (New Bern), Wesley Chapel (Greenville), Camp Chestnut Ridge, Eureka, and Rehoboth. As your local congregation plans its building or expansion project, consider this valuable resource offered through the Commission.

Special World Mission Emphases: Armenia, Liberia, and Peru. Partnerships with Christian friends in these three areas of the world have grown, following the initiative of ones among us who have heard the call of God and preserved in helping ministries.

The Liberian Church. We continue to support the work of this church, working with Herbert and Mary Zigbou, Operation Classroom, and the Ganta Mission School. Despite receiving hostilities within Liberia, the Zigbou family courageously and faithfully leads us forward and our churches generously respond.

The Peru Covenant, established and renewed annually by our Annual Conference and the Methodist Church in Peru, is a source of helping and strength to our Conference and to our sisters and brothers in Peru. The Peru Covenant Task Force requested connection with the Commission on Missions rather than continued existence as an independent task force of the Annual Conference. The request was granted by Bishop Minnick, and Peru is now a priority missional relationship for our commission.

Project AGAPE, a partnership of the NC and WNC Conferences with the church and people of Armenia, continues to expand. Rev. Charles Davis is serving effectively and creatively in Armenia, developing ministries and receiving volunteers-in-mission. Project AGAPE, under Rev. Davis' leadership, is expanding ministries in the areas of pastoral care, theological education, health care, and vocational education. The NC Conference has responded generously to the needs of Armenia, surpassing the goal set by the commission for 1994.

The goal of the Commission on Missions and Outreach is to educate people for mission, to inspire people for mission, to elicit generosity for mission, and to send people forth in mission. If the members of the commission can assist you in any of these ways, please contact us. It is our prayer that each layperson, pastor, and local congregation will grow in the grace of learning, caring, giving and serving.

OUTDOOR AND CAMPING MINISTRIES, COMMISSION ON

The simple gifts of God are all around us: bright sunshine, refreshing rain, a smile, a gentle touch, the cross, a flower, a rock, a bird soaring in the wind, a rainbow, our fingerprints. Our theme for summer camp 1995 is "Simple Gifts." In the summer and throughout the year, camping ministry provides a multitude of ways to draw closer to God, to discover the simple gifts of God to us in creation, in one another and within ourselves. We rejoice in the growth of our camping ministry while we look forward to increased support of and participation in our camping ministry from our local UM Churches.

In 1994, we had 1548 participants in the summer camping programs at Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee and Rockfish. Usage of Camp Kerr Lake, summer camping and year around retreat group usage of Camps Chestnut Ridge, Don Lee and Rockfish brought a camper day total for 1994 to 66,371. Our camps continue to see increased usage of camp facilities throughout the year by retreat groups, civic and community groups, and school groups. Camp Chestnut Ridge has expanded its program into working with school groups. The completion and consecration of the Morris Center at Chestnut Ridge took place in 1994 and affords a grand facility for groups to use. Camp Don Lee air-conditioned the dining hall and held the consecration for the Don Lee memorial cabin. Camp Rockfish has experienced growth in use by church and civic groups. Two yurts offer opportunity for a unique camping experience. Camp Kerr Lake continues to be filled to capacity for each of the summer holiday weekends and many weekends inbetween. A new outdoor chapel area done by a local Eagle Scout adds to the Camp Kerr Lake facility.

We are blessed with the leadership we have in our camping ministry through manager/directors: John Farmer, Bill Howington, and Dennis Tawney. In addition each camp has valuable support staff and other personnel contributing to their ministries. The hard work and dedication of each camp's local committee is truly appreciated. We are also thankful for the leadership offered from the Commission on Outdoor and Camping Ministries and the Board of Directors. Much time and effort over the course of 1994 and continuing into 1995 has been put into the establishment of comprehensive policies with regard to our camps and their operation as well as a fully documented and developed risk management plan. The Board of Directors will continue in this effort. The Commission will continue with efforts to connect our camping ministry with the local churches of the Conference.

While many positive things have been happening in camping ministry over the last year, our camps continue to have very real needs which local UM Churches can help to meet. Support of our camping ministry by local churches having retreats, meetings and outings at our camp facilities will be a blessing to all. Encouragement of children and youth from churches to come to summer camp and promoting camp as a place of summer employment for faithful college students and young adults are ways local churches can support our camping ministry. Local church groups can also support camping ministry through participation in spring or fall workdays at camp, by adopting camp buildings for care and upkeep, and by financial contributions to the camps (directly to a camp or through the Advance Special). We look to the continued faithful support of the NC Annual Conference for camping ministry.

PRISON MINISTRY AND PRISON REFORM, COMMITTEE ON

The 1994 conference year proved to be an active one in the life of our Committee. The Committee met a total of three times throughout the year. One of our most memorable meetings occurred in May when the full committee met at Central Prison in Raleigh. Following our business meeting we were provided a tour of the facility ending in their chapel. There we met several former death row inmates who shared their journeys of faith and related how volunteers had made a difference in their lives. Numerous heart-felt appeals were expressed for more Christian witness in our prisons and jails across NC. This proved to be a very inspiring fellowship session for all involved and helped our Committee sense new visions in this field of ministry.

We are happy to report that during 1994 seven of our districts were able to conduct workshops on prison ministry where both veteran volunteers and perspective volunteers were able to hear of the many opportunities in the prison and jail ministry field. We will be actively promoting the continuation of these workshops across the Conference during 1995.

One very promising new ministry in our state got its start during 1994. KAIROS of NC, an ecumenical ministry which is patterned very much like the Methodist Emmaus Walk, conducted two different weekend sessions in our prisons. Another ministry which some may not think of as a prison or jail ministry, the Steven Ministry, did in fact become active in at least one jail and one prison in 1994.

Our Committee speakers bureau was active all year presenting the needs of this ministry to our churches and civic groups whenever possible. We hope you will consider inviting our Committee to provide or help you present a prison or jail ministry program for your church group. Please contact the Conference office with any questions or requests you may have about our supporting role in this ministry.

We acknowledge all those faithful servants who are currently active in this ministry all across our Conference as this Committee continues to pledge its support toward your efforts. May God bless all our efforts in this important ministry.

RELIGION AND RACE, COMMISSION ON

1. Racial and Ethnic divisions are in the news every day and it is increasingly clear that concerned people of faith must lead the way in bridge building. If only those who are angry or fearful or bigoted address problems of race, problems increase. We urge United Methodists to take the lead in opening conversations or starting projects that cross racial/ethnic barriers.
2. We have made cash grants to several new cross-racial projects and hope that more such good works will emerge. They are:
   a. SEJ Native American Ministries
   b. Marcus UMC, Sanford District, Multi-racial Youth Ministry
   c. Anderson UMC, Elizabeth City District, Music Team Ministry
   d. Good Shepherd UMC, Durham, UM Church Immigration Workshops
3. Our Commission would welcome invitations to conduct workshops in districts or local churches. But this fact was made known in our last report and NO invitation has come.
4. It is still true that most local churches do not have a chairperson of Religion and Race and show little or no interest in changing anything. When will we get started? 1995 is late enough.
5. We plan to have a Workshop on Racism on Saturday, October 7 at Camp Chestnut Ridge for local church and district Religion and Race chairpersons, Church and Society chairpersons, pastors, and presidents of the UMW, UMM and UMY. We know if this should be well attended, it would not be possible to have this workshop at Chestnut Ridge, but we will be thankful for 100 people. Advanced registration will be needed. Look for registration forms. We have to make final arrangements by September 20.
6. Monitoring of all Conference boards, agencies and institutions is an on-going part of our work. We are grateful for all the good faith efforts made by our people in working for fair racial/gender representation in their organizations.
7. We participate in several General Board evaluations of NC Conference area projects that have applied for funding.
8. We appeal again to all the District Superintendents to encourage and support efforts by your District Chairperson of Religion and Race. He/she is the one to initiate cross-racial/ethnic projects in the district including whatever will be done in the observance of Martin Luther King Day.

Progress toward becoming a truly inclusive church has to be local. Conference pronouncements and high level resolutions do not mean much. The Discipline sounds great, but local North Carolinians are very slow to change.

Samuel D. Brown, Chairperson

SOCIAL AND ECUMENICAL MINISTRIES, COMMISSION ON

There are two main foci for the Commission on Social and Ecumenical Ministries. One part of our work centers on how we as United Methodists live out the gospel's demand to minister to the least of our brothers and sisters in Christ's name. Rather than social ministry being something we "do to" others, we are learning to see ministry as God's gift to all of us as we work together to address the spiritual problems of our hurting world and its people. This year the Commission supported the work of SEJANAM, a ministry with Native Americans, CITCA, a ministry with persons in Central America, Yokefellow Prison Ministry, and the Land Stewardship Council.

Through the special offerings for Peace With Justice Sunday, we supported the Peru Covenant and The Goodson House, a ministry to the homeless. We also supported projects by local congregations working to improve understanding of immigration procedures and to expand ministries to persons with handicapping conditions.

Our ecumenical work this year has been a time of reflection as we have sought to discuss and discern what membership in an ecumenical body might encompass and what, if any, boundaries might prohibit that work. Several members attended a workshop for an Anglican-Methodist dialogue, where we discussed ways we might worship together and barriers to that worship, such as disagreement about the form of apostolic succession in ordination. Several congregations across the state are exploring ways to recognize our common history with Anglicans. Study materials are available from Carol Hayes' office. Also, our commission sponsored a retreat where persons gathered in worship to explore the nature of our possible relationship with the North Carolina Council of Churches. We sought through this endeavor to frame questions of ecumenical life and witness within the context of confession and healing, recognizing that persons who claim the same confessional stance and the same scripture come to different decisions about how that stance and scripture influences and shapes our decisions. The process of discernment is a long journey.

We continue in prayer and watchful openness for the Spirit's leading in regard to our commission's work and witness to the Annual Conference. We also continue to share in ministry with those for whom violence, poverty, brokenness and pain is an everyday reality.

Claire Clyburn, Chairperson

STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN, COMMISSION ON

The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (1992) outlines two major functions for the Commission on the Status and Role of Women: fostering an awareness of the meaning of the Church's continuing commitment to the full and equal responsibility and participation of women in the total life and mission of the Church; and recommending program opportunities for worship, fellowship, witness, study, nurture, and service with persons and groups which confirm anew the liberating message of Jesus Christ that recognizes every person, woman or man, as full and equal part of God's human family. (¶262.9).

The fifth goal for the Commission reads: Become familiar with sexual harassment guidelines and monitor use of guidelines in local churches, districts, and conference. The 1992 General Conference through the approval of a resolution charged the Commission on the Status and Role of Women to work cooperatively with church bodies to address the issues of sexual harassment. Stephanie Anna Hixon, in responding to the question Sexual Harassment - Why Do We Care, said "We're not responding only because of legal liability , but because we are called to live in a community of Christian Love where no one need fear". Sexual Harassment is defined by the UM Book of Resolutions as a sin, specifically "any unwanted sexual advance or demand, verbal or physical which is perceived by the recipient as demeaning, intimidating or coercive." Members of the Commission participated in a downlinked teleconference on "Healing Broken Lives" in May, a story of clergy misconduct and behavior and the impact on congregations.

We were fortunate in 1994 to have Rev. Mary Trum and Ms. Toni Small successfully complete training as advocates for Victims/Survivors of Clergy Sexual Harassment. Mary and Toni came back prepared to work as advocates for persons in this Conference who may have experienced such harassment by UM clergy or other church professionals in the ministerial or supervisory relationship. Mary and Toni believe that the church is a place for sanctuary, a place where it is safe to be vulnerable. We go to church to restore our souls. Clergy misconduct is soul stealing in the sanctuary of the church. Any time a minister crosses sexual boundaries, he/she has betrayed a sacred trust.

Rev. Edith Gleaves, made a report and showed slides of her visit to Zimbabwe, Africa at the opening of Africa University in the September 1994 meeting. Rev Gleaves pointed out the changing roles of women in the leadership of the churches and rapid membership growth in many churches.

At the Annual Conference meeting at Methodist College in June of 1994, COSROW hosted members of the Conference as they invited persons of all walks of life to come in and experience God's Vision of Shalom at a table spread with bread and wine.

The clergy women in the pulpit emphasis continues to sensitize the Conference and churches to the reality of appointing women as pastors in all kinds of churches and congregations being open to accepting women in their respective churches. We promote the provision of child care policy and provided child care services for one of our regular meetings and will continue that service upon request. District representatives received packets of materials for celebrating the International Year of the Family. The theme for the emphasis was "Family: Resources and Responsibilities in a Changing World." The official emblem, a heart within a heart sheltered by a roof, indicates that the family is the heart of any society.

Several members of the Commission have had great achievements in the Conference since our last report. Rev. Mary Trum has gone before the Board of Ordained Ministry for her Elders Orders. Carolyn Woriax has been approved for Deacons' Orders. Kay Johnson has passed the Board of Ordained Ministry seeking Deacons Orders. Toni Small, was named Lay Person of the Year for the Durham District in February, 1995. Bernice D. Johnson was named Lay Person of the Year for the NC Annual Conference in June 1994. Annie Fairley went to the Holy Land in February of 1995.

The Commission will spend the rest of the year working on the Ethnic Women's Seminar to be held September 16, 1995 at Methodist College in Fayetteville. The Theme is: Ethnic Women: Living Dreams and Visions. We invite all women to participate in this Seminar as we proclaim anew the vision of God in our lives.

Bernice D. Johnson, Chairperson

STEWARDSHIP, COMMISSION ON

Good Christian Stewardship is a spiritual discipline. It is a discipline because it involves developing patterns of living that are consistent. It is spiritual because it involves elements of faith and faithfulness as we receive, use, and manage our God-given resources. It is Christian if we apply the principles brought forth in the teachings of Jesus Christ. And it is good if we are wise and responsible in the application of those principles.

We on the NC Annual Conference Commission on Stewardship seek to discern the principles of good Christian stewardship, to apply them to our own lives, and then to teach them to others. We are fortunate to have good resource persons on a national level, on an annual conference level, on a district level, as well as on a local church level to assist us. As a Commission, we are very pleased to share these resources when asked to do so. In fact, one of our main functions is to be a resource for persons and groups in our Annual Conference.

In the past year, we have equipped our District Stewardship leaders with the most current resources. We also have made available Stewardship Specialists to work with local churches who have requested assistance. The first two visits of our Specialists are at no cost to the local church with further visits mutually agreed upon. This opportunity has been and continues to be a valuable resource for small churches who have limited resources. Mr. Bill Norton, at The UM Building, is the person to contact for more information about our Stewardship Specialists.

The Commission on Stewardship has been a resource for teachers for January Training Workshops as well as other district training events. In addition, we are working with the Reverend Douglas Byrd, Executive Director of the Office of Planned Giving, to provide workshops on planned giving and gifts and wills.

We also are working with other leaders in Stewardship from across the SEJ to establish effective training events that maximize resources.

These are exciting times for us as more and more people are discovering the joy of a disciplined lifestyle of Stewardship.

Stephen Nelson Little, Vice-chairperson

WORSHIP, COMMISSION ON

Again it was the privilege of the Conference Commission on Worship to plan and conduct the 11 worship services presented at the 1994 session of the NC Annual Conference. Working with the Vision 2000 committee, the commission attempted to offer a variety of worship styles, including the first use of a song leader at annual conference worship in several years. A futuristic worship setting was designed in conjunction with Mr. Kirk McNeill of Charlotte, a meetings specialist who also designed the worship setting for The Gathering of United Methodists in Houston, TX, two years ago. The commission carried out its plan to make the services ethnically and gender inclusive, and to represent a wide spectrum of worship traditions within Methodism.

The Conference Commission on Worship began 1995 by continuing its efforts to publicize and interpret The United Methodist Book of Worship in the January Workshops at the district level. Worship Training Teams were also available to local churches upon request. An additional privilege was given to the commission in March when it was asked by the Committee on the Bishop's Seminar to plan and conduct the eight worship services designed to reflect their theme: Windows for Preaching: Communicating the Gospel Through the Christian Year." The preachers, John Ed Mathison, Rosemary Brown, and Tallulah Williams, preached in services that were representative of every season of the Christian liturgical calendar. The intention of the commission was to present services that were neither so elaborate nor expensive to produce that they would be out of the reach of an average UM congregation, and still to reflect many different levels of formality. A number of innovative musical worship elements were also presented by Mr. Bill Weisser of Edenton Street UMC in Raleigh.

The goal of the Commission on Worship as it plans the worship services for the 1995 session of the Annual Conference is to offer services with variety, integrity, and inclusiveness, which will bring worshippers into the presence of the risen Christ. In the creation of these services we seek to follow the example of Mr. Wesley in uniting experiential and sacramental piety. At the same time, we seek to be sensitive to the current budgetary restraints facing the NC Annual Conference and to serve as examples of good financial stewardship.

The Commission on Worship thanks the NC Annual Conference for its support, and is delighted to continue to offer its services to the Conference and to the risen Christ.

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS, COMPOSITE REPORT OF

The Conference year 1994-95 has been a challenging year for the Cabinet. Among the issues with which we have dealt are pension funding, open itinerancy, apportionments and Vision 2000. Along with these concerns we have tried to be faithful to the directives of the Into The 21st Century Committee, especially those having to do with District Superintendents spending more time with local churches and pastors.

In light of this we are pleased to make the following report. At the Cabinet's initiative a financial campaign among the clergy was begun to reduce the unfunded liability of our pension program. To date over $110,000 has been pledged for 1995 with 432 of our clergy colleagues participating. We are thankful to each person for his or her support and hope others will soon join the effort.

Concerning open itineracy, 10 cross-racial appointments have been made and others will follow in 1995. We call on all churches in the Name of Christ to break down every barrier that separates us one from another. We are fully aware that such a call upon our lives and churches means struggle and perhaps some loss but we believe that it will be better to lose some of our body than any of our soul.

In regard to our Mission and Service Giving, we, as District Superintendents, have covenanted together to give special attention and help to those churches unable to meet their "fair share" apportionments. We believe that improvement will come as pastors and key lay persons interpret clearly to their congregations the missional work we do together as NC UM Christians.

Perhaps the most positive word we can give for this year is Vision 2000. The 12 districts of our Conference have embraced this movement with enthusiasm and dedication. Much has already been accomplished and we believe that many more lives will be touched for Christ.

The following reports have been gleaned from the districts and proclaim that visioning has already been taking place among us.

BU: The district has been very active with many ministries and building programs over the year of 1994-95. Camp Springs and Fairview UM Churches built new fellowship halls. Evergreen UMC continues construction on its first unit. Complete new facilities and Consecration was held at First UMC, Elon College. A Headstart Program for migrant children was begun in Caswell County. A work team from the district to Russia is preparing to depart in July. The Caswell County churches conducted a three-day study mission as to the future of Methodism in the county.

DU: Aldersgate and Pleasant Green purchased new parsonages. Resurrection UMC had a 20% increase in membership. Good Shepherd purchased land and buildings for $275,000. The Mission Saturation Event has raised money for six new churches in Zimbabwe and one full scholarship for Africa University.

EC: New construction has begun on Perkins UMC fellowship hall. The Hatteras and Avon parsonages were rebuilt after Hurricane Emily, and a new parsonage was built at Mt. Olivet, Manteo.

FA: Parkers Church on the Raeford-Hoke Charge is beginning a building project. The cost is about $500,000, and most of the money has already been raised. Haymount UMC gave about $25,000 above their apportionments for mission. The District has set up a District Board of Missions to help establish new congregations and help old ones in the district. The Fayetteville District has set up a District Scholarship Fund at Methodist College. We continue to contribute to it.

GO: 30 Methodist Churches of the Goldsboro area joined with 40 other churches for the Ralph Bell Crusade in May of 1995. Seven district persons went to Jamaica to work on a Sunday School building for Walkerswood Methodist Church. LaGrange, Zion, and Faison UMCs provided more than $3,000 for relief efforts after a devastating storm in eastern NC in January of 1995. Zion UMC has completed construction of a parsonage in preparation for going station in June, 1995.

GR: Several of the churches have made improvements in their physical properties: Engelhard has made corrections and improvements in its brickwork, mortar has been repointed, and the building painted. Robersonville is occupying its new educational space and fellowship hall, which is almost debt-free. Covenant has grown in its membership to above 600 members. Salem has enlarged its sanctuary and continues to grow. Vanceboro was given a house and property adjacent to its church, and this property is being utilized as church office and child-care space. Ayden has recently purchased a house and it is being fitted to become the new parsonage. The additional space and facility ramp at Woodington has been completed and was consecrated in March.

NB: Garber UMC received 62 new members during 1994! Trinity UMC in Jacksonville is averaging 125 youth in UMYF each Sunday evening! A new fellowship hall and educational unit was consecrated on October 2, at Bethlehem UMC. New Bern District UMs have contributed over $20,000 toward their third District Habitat House.

RA: The Raleigh District celebrates excellent growth. New members: Cary:White Plains, 242; Cary:First, 190; Raleigh: Asbury, 178; Cary:St. Francis, 113; Raleigh:Edenton Street, 98; Raleigh:St. Marks, 97; and Apex, 94. Professions of Faith: Cary:White Plains, 56; Cary:First, 42; Raleigh:St. Marks, 37, Raleigh:Edenton Street, 30. Land has been purchased in Raleigh for the Raleigh Korean Church. Building projects completed were: Cary:Genesis (first unit); Shiloh (fellowship hall and classroom), Raleigh:Benson Memorial (parsonage); Raleigh:Soapstone (classrooms). 26 congregations have been involved in workteam projects in this country and abroad.

RO: Prospect UMC continues to lead the district in Professions of Faith. First UMC in Laurinburg and First UMC in Rockingham sponsored Youth Mission Work Teams. Salem UMC and Cedar Grove UMC in Rowland are involved in an exciting merger to form a new congregation called New Hope UMC. Branch Street UMC has renovated some of its facilities. The district has 228 Certified Lay Speakers.

RM: South Rosemary UMC, Roanoke Rapids, became a station appointment in June, 1994, celebrating a 46 year dream. Englewood UMC, Rocky Mount, sold their parsonage and remodeled another larger house for the senior pastor. Clark UMC of Rocky Mount closed in May of 1994. A Clark Street Ministry opened in the facility in August , 1994. Special programs are serving the immediate community neighborhood. A Family Life Center and Child Care Center are to be in place by the end of the year.

SA: During this Conference year several building projects have been completed. McQueen's Chapel and Broadway Church have remolded their sanctuaries, additional work has been completed on the Hispanic Center in Siler City, and Pleasant Hill Church, damaged by fire, has been restored. A highlight of our district occurred in November at the District Conference when the note on the district parsonage was burned four years early. During the year preparations have been made to begin a new church in Pinehurst. A pastor will be appointed in June, 1995. The Sanford District had a successful year with Mission and Service Giving payments. Over 98% was given.

WI: Wrightsville UMC received 42 new members and made major parsonage renovations. Ocean View UMC began its third worship service in March. They have experienced a 15% increase in worship attendance and a 38% increase in Sunday School attendance. Zion UMC completely renovated the sanctuary including installation of stained glass windows. Wesley Memorial UMC added 35 adult members on Confession of Faith and gave an additional $72,558 to missions above their apportionments. Epworth UMC provided quarterly financial help for an African-American congregation in the district. Pine Valley purchased a new parsonage and property on which to construct a Christian Life Center.

For these victories and others which will follow, we give thanks to God.

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

When Mr. James B. Duke signed the Indenture creating The Duke Endowment on December 11, 1924, it caught the news media and the people in North and South Carolina and the whole country by surprise. The magnitude of the gift was unbelievable. The initial gift was for $40 million, $6 million of that for the construction of Duke University. Less than a year later Mr. Duke died, leaving an additional $67 million to The Endowment, $11 million of which was to go for the construction of Duke University.

Thus, The Endowment started with $90 million. The market value of The Duke Endowment on December 31, 1994, was approximately $1,260,000,000. What's even more unbelievable is that in the ensuing 70 years The Duke Endowment has made grants totaling $1,134,378,000.

The expressed purpose of The Endowment was "to make provision in some measure for the needs of mankind along physical, mental and spiritual lines..." In the Indenture Mr. Duke was very specific in who the beneficiaries would be. Those beneficiaries include four named institutions - Duke University, Johnson C. Smith University, Davidson College and Furman University, not-for-profit hospitals and child care institutions in North and South Carolina, rural UM churches in NC, and superannuated preachers in NC.

Because of his concern for the Methodist churches, particularly those in rural areas, Mr. Duke provided that funding be available for building and maintaining and operating rural churches and for providing assistance for retired pastors and widows and children of deceased pastors. Mr. Duke, a Methodist, was raised in a rural church as was his father and grandfather before him. Mr. Duke often remarked, "My old daddy always said that if he amounted to anything in life, it was due to Methodist circuit riders." Feeling this indebtedness to his background, he provided in a marvelous way for the building and strengthening of rural churches in NC.

In the 70 years since Mr. Duke's death, the Rural Church Division of The Duke Endowment has been at work to fulfill that commitment. The purpose of this report is to indicate how funds have been distributed throughout the NC and WNC Annual Conferences and to indicate very briefly any new or significant activities that have taken place during the past year.

Mr. Duke was concerned for the well being of churches in the rural parts of NC. He specified that grants could be made only to churches in communities of 1,500 or less, incorporated or unincorporated. In the Indenture he specified that help could be provided in three ways.

Rural UM churches in NC are eligible to receive grants in two areas. Churches involved in new construction and in renovations to existing church buildings are eligible to request grants. Over the year, the Trustees of The Duke Endowment have established certain guidelines that must be met before churches can apply for grants. These guidelines assure the churches of quality buildings. Since its inception, The Duke Endowment has made grants totalling $27,697,759 for building rural churches.

Not only did Mr. Duke want churches to have excellent facilities, he also was interested in assisting churches through what he called the Maintaining and Operating Rural Churches Program. The Trustees of The Duke Endowment, from the beginning, have determined that the most important way to maintain and strengthen rural churches was by training clergy for those churches. Most of the programs to train pastoral leadership are through Duke University Divinity School. Grants to be applied to tuition are made to student pastors as well as to students in summer and winter field placement. Grants also are made to Duke University Divinity School to assist pastors attending continuing education events. Under the Maintaining and Operating Rural Churches Program, grants are made available for new and innovative programs that will strengthen the local congregations. Since its inception, The Duke Endowment has made grants totaling $18,322,437 for maintaining and operating rural churches.

The third provision concerning rural churches in the Indenture was to provide for retired pastors. Pastors who have served in either of the Annual Conferences in NC or who have served five years in either of the NC Annual Conferences and subsequently transferred to and retired from another Annual Conference will receive a grant from The Duke Endowment each December. Presently, each pastor receives $30 per Service Year. Widows of deceased pastors receive 75% of what the pastor would have received if alive, and children of deceased pastors receive 25%. Since its inception, The Duke Endowment has made grants totaling $13,777,329 to retired preachers and widows and orphans of deceased preachers.

One of the most exciting programs in which The Duke Endowment has been involved in recent years was the Weatherization Program. In 1985 the Rural Church

Division of The Duke Endowment, in cooperation with the Energy Conservation Fund of the NC Alternative Energy Corporation, started a program by which we would help churches become energy efficient. The Alternative Energy Corporation was responsible for determining what needed to be done in each church and assisting with the training of the lay people in the churches to actually do the work while The Duke Endowment provided the materials necessary for the projects. In 10 years The Duke Endowment made grants for materials to 478 churches in the two Annual Conferences at a total cost of $1,134,971.22. The cost savings to the churches have been significant.

EPISCOPACY, COMMITTEE ON

It is my privilege to report to you on behalf of the Annual Conference Committee on Episcopacy. This committee serves as a liaison between the Bishop and the Annual Conference, much like the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee does in your local church. The Discipline indicates seven specific responsibilities to this Committee: 1) to support the Bishop in the spiritual and temporal oversight of the Church; 2) to be available to the Bishop for counsel; 3) to make determination of needs of an area; 4) to advise the Bishop of special situations that may affect relationships within the Conference; 5) to interpret to the people the nature and function of the office of Bishop; 6) to make an annual appraisal of the work of the Bishop in implementing the agenda of the church; and 7) to report to the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy on special needs and concerns especially when it is time for a change in leadership.

As chair of this Committee and also your lay representative to the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy, I would like to introduce the other members of this Committee and have them stand as I call their names: Flossie McNair, Ruth Cade, Becky Ballentine, J. D. Gwyn, Jr., Ernie Wendell, Judson Rouse, Lisa Brown Cole, Susan Lindblade, Jesse Brunson, Kay Huggins, Bill Gattis, Ned Hill, Robby Lowry, Gwen Henderson, Emily Workman, and Reggie Ponder.

The Committee has met twice since last Annual Conference. At the October meeting an open letter to the laity and clergy of the NC Annual Conference was drafted. Because we anticipate the retirement of Bishop Minnick in 1996, responses are being solicited concerning the qualities of leadership we need for our Conference. Copies of this letter are to be distributed today and Dr. Reginald Ponder, the clergy representative to the Jurisdictional Committee, and I, welcome your response, either by writing or conversation.

We of the Committee are aware of the enormous task that is before us. Bishop Minnick has given exceptional leadership in all areas of his work. We commend him for the renewal leave for two months last summer which included work among the poor of Harland Co., KY. We are appreciative for his study leave later in Vermont. The response to his Bible studies here is just one indication of the value he places on study and preparation. He has been a part of the life of the Annual Conference from participation in the work of UMW and UMM to support of Pilgrimage, the major youth "happening" where over 1,700 youth gathered in praise, fellowship, and growth in their spiritual journey. He listens carefully to the concerns of our people. He has sought to move the church in prophetic ways to combat racism and sexism. He has given keen oversight to the spiritual and temporal affairs of our Conference.

We are grateful that 45 years ago, God laid his hand on a young man by the name of C. P. Minnick. He was working in an electrical company in his hometown of Lynchburg. At 23 years of age, he and his wife, Mary Ann, were already known for their commitment to the work of Christ, especially among young people. Because he had only one year of college, he enrolled at Lynchburg College and took a student appointment. After finishing college, he entered Union Seminary, where he received two advanced degrees. Interestingly enough, his first appointment out of seminary was in Ferrum, VA, where he served both as pastor and teacher of Bible at Methodist-related Ferrum Junior College. His interest in serious Bible study has marked his ministry through all these years in various places. We are thankful for the 11 years he has invested in the life of this Annual Conference. Bishop Minnick, I would like to recognize Mary Ann, your fellow laborer in the gospel and helpmate. Will you pause as I lead us in a prayer:

> O God, whose claim upon our lives is realized in diverse and unique ways, thank you for C. P. and Mary Ann Minnick. We offer sincere appreciation for the patience and care given to our people. Undergird and strengthen our Bishop and his wife, and may the radiance of Christ continue to shine through their work. Through Christ our Lord we pray. Amen.

Cashar W. Evans, Jr., Chairperson

LAY PERSON OF THE YEAR PRESENTATION

Again this year, the Executive Committee was overwhelmed with the outstanding examples of servants who are answering the call of God to serve faithfully in the community and to reach out to the world with the good news of hope.

Laity in this Conference have been truly blessed and from all walks of life. The Commission is pleased to present the Lay Persons of the Year: BU-James Davis of Union Grove UMC; DU-Toni Small of Good Shepherd UMC; EC-Erma Turner of Elizabeth Cityh: First UMC; GO-Sue Woodard of Westwood UMC; GR-Rick Hebert of St. James UMC; NB-Patricia Floyd Smith of Broad Creek UMC; RA-Lee Hines of Garner: First UMC; RO-Walter T. Jackson of Galilee UMC; RM-J. William Tyson, Jr., of Wilson: First UMC; SA-Daniel A. Jones of St. Luke UMC; and WI-Linda Patterson Gregson of Pine Valley UMC. Each of these individuals are indeed "Servants Extraordinary."

"Servants Extraordinary" exist even more in the Fayetteville District. The District Board of Laity chose TWO persons to share the Lay Person of the Year honors. The Distict Lay Leader stated, "This was necessary to acknowledge the depth and breadth of the lay leadership in the Fayetteville District and its three subdistricts." The District Committee on Laity, after learning that this would indeed disqualify the district from the Conference level award this year; withdrew the district nominations after a great deal of deliberation. We congratulate you upon your decision, for we know it was a tough one. Thank you, Tommy Smith, the district superintendent, and Randy Harrison, the district lay leader, for the fine leadership each of you provide to our Conference.

This year's Conference Lay Person of the Year touches people in many ways without holding membership in organizations, by annually planting a corn crop and inviting anyone in the community to help themselves to it, loaning his trucks for Boy Scout trips, youth hay rides, and to area churches for moving landscaping and building materials.

Our honoree has a unique expertise and ability developed from his many years in the family's house moving business. He shared his talents with the church and its ministries. When volunteers at his church fell behind in installing the new nursery school playground equipment, he came to the rescue with installation of the equipment and building of fencing and other yard construction needs. When the mission team sold chicken dinners to raise funds for its trip to Costa Rica, he was there early to set up tents and cookers, and lead the workers in coordinating the hundreds of chickens that were sold. More than $8,000 was raised. Beyond that, he was the last person there taking down the tents and completing the clean up.

A very active member of Volunteers-in-Mission who gives freely of his time, talents and money to the multitude of mission projects completed each year; and serving as project coordinator for the mission team, he uses his expertise as a house mover to lead the building teams working on projects in Jamaica, Costa Rica, Florida, Selma, and around the Wilson County area. Working under the direction of the Conference Mission Board, he leads groups to repair our churches, camps, and homes.

Our honoree is a glowing example of God's vision becoming our vision. In his local church he serves as an usher and is the mainstay of the trustees property committee, either personally or using his employees and equipment to complete renovations/repairs on the church buildings.

He has been described as, "A man you can really love, because he gives his all and asks nothing in return." Since so much of what he does is done anonymously, it is hard to know all of the things he does for people. He has no title nor does he want any recognition, but he is the driving force that allows an active group of volunteers to accomplish an unbelievable amount of needed work in a professional manner. Professionally, he is the chief operating officer of J. W. Tyson & Sons, House Moving Contractors, and is married to the former Fran Avery. They have two children, Donna Dishman and Bill III.

I am pleased to announce that the 1995 NC Conference Lay Person of the Year is J. William Tyson, Jr. of the Rocky Mount District. I invite you to join me in thanking him for his special service and ministry.

Gwen C. Henderson, Conference Lay Leader

SOUTHEASTERN JURISDICTIONAL ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

The SEJ Administrative Council (SEJAC) is grateful for increased conference support again, envisions a more faithful covenant connection for the 21st century and commits to helping annual conferences and congregations call, equip, and send persons into the world as servant disciples of Jesus Christ. Composed of our 13 bishops, 16 council directors, three elected persons from each conference, and designated leaders of jurisdictional units, SEJAC is commissioned by the SEJ Conference to...study the changing missional needs of the jurisdiction...give direction to jurisdictional programs and agencies...provide oversight and care for Lake Junaluska Assembly and the Atkins House...help make effective the work within the jurisdiction of boards and agencies of The UMC.

Study Changing Missional Needs

Intentional listening to church members, pastors, diaconal ministers, conference leaders, and program participants along with information from denomination studies data has disclosed concern for: 1) Focusing efforts on Evangelism and Spiritual Growth, 2) understanding our Biblical and Wesleyan Heritage, 3) Creating a more intentional ministry with and to marginalized persons, 4) Learning to discern and articulate shared motivational visions for the church in all places, 5) Increasing skills for leadership in Christian community, and 6) Discovering ways to restructure for authentic and effective mission.

Seeking to respond to these needs, the Council is reviewing its purpose within the mission of Christ's Church, checking alignment of policies and programs, pursuing more effective communication systems, and insuring that resources are used to nurture and enable disciples and vital congregations.

Give Direction to Jurisdictional Programs and Agencies

Program Division: During 1994, 11,269 persons registered for learning and nurturing events: 4,975 youth, 155 pastors of small and midsize churches, 834 in Bible study and prayer activities, and 835 in outreach events, along with lay leaders, urban workers, recreation leaders, pastors of larger churches, district superintendents, and others. 16,000 persons participated in the traveling Lay Ministry Center.

Working with the General Commission on Religion and Race, SEJAC was intentional in planning for broader inclusivity in both program leadership and participation as well as among employed persons.

In leader development, a pilot project in Covey Leadership (7 Habits...) training has led to three workshops planned for 1995, along with sessions in "Transformational Leadership in the Church," "Supervisory Leadership for a Missional Church (DS), and "Transformational Consulting by Conference Staff..." Conferences, districts, and local churches will be offered on-site help from a team of consultants in Health Ministries, Congregational Development, Leadership Behavior, and Continuous Improvement. Staff at all levels of SEJAC and the Assembly have participated in Covey, Quality, and Team training.

Agency Division: The ministry of the eight SEJ agencies spans 73 years, profoundly touching multitudes in Christ's name. Missional Fund giving through the annual conferences totaled $353,950 in support of these agencies which provided far reaching, inclusive ministries such as the listed examples as follows:

Archives and History: The Heritage Center Museum welcomed over 900 guests, plus 17 confirmation classes and 52 research visits. Direct consultation was provided to six annual conferences and all were contacted during 1995. Aided by the SEJ Historical Society, $200,000 Endowment Fund goal was passed.

Gulfside Assembly: A center known for spiritual renewal and justice ministries, it welcomed 5,257 persons to nurture, education, and leader development programs in 1994. New thrusts included hosting training to combat substance abuse and providing students with mission tours of UM black colleges and institutions.

Hinton Rural Life Center: A resource and training for small membership churches and rural ministry welcomed 800 youth and adult volunteers, sent staff into 14 annual conferences and trained almost 2,000 lay and clergy leaders in planning, evangelism, cooperative ministry and other topics.

The Intentional Growth Center: IGC ministered through research and 50 programs which included...900 adults in Bible study and renewal...16 pastors meeting 12 days over 13 months to improve preaching skills...30 diaconal ministers meeting for spiritual growth...40 church secretaries enhancing their skills.

The Protestant Hour: Celebrating 50 years of uninterrupted broadcasting in 1995, it provides ecumenical religious programming through 250 stations in the USA, Canada, West Indies, and Africa. The program reaches a potential audience of nearly 2,250,000 listeners each week.

SEJANAM: The SEJ Agency for Native American Ministries, provided consultation, training and other support to annual conferences, helped host 600 attendees at the National Native American Family Camp, and assisted in forming two new congregations and two study-fellowship groups in four episcopal areas.

SEMAR, INC.: This agency aids annual conferences through training, education, and consultation with regard to issues of accessibility, development of direct services, and finding funding sources. Conference facilities valued at $7.5 million exist with annual budgets of over $750,000, while eight new group homes are being planned.

United Methodist Volunteers in Mission: UMVIM reports that 9,250 persons served on 278 teams in 29 countries, including the US and contributed $3,832,000 toward disaster relief, construction, medical services, and other needs. New work included that in Russia, Estonia, Cuba, India, and Rwanda.

Give Oversight to Lake Junaluska Assembly and Atkins House

Continuing its historic mission to provide a place for spiritual renewal and learning how the Church can fulfill its mission to spread the Good News throughout the world, Lake Junaluska Assembly hosted 78,000 persons in 919 groups ranging in size from small retreats to annual conference sessions. 36,468 persons spent 140,953 guest nights in Assembly facilities and availed themselves of a wide range of facilities and services. Renovation of Jones Cafeteria was complemented by a comparable menu to Lambuth and Terrace as food service personnel sought to meet needs more effectively. Improvements were made at Atkins House where facilities are provided for IGC and housing is available for retired and visiting missionaries. Since May, a majority of Assembly personnel participated in 10 weekly awareness sessions and other continual improvement activities.

Other advances in Assembly property and facilities included beautification of the grounds by staff and numerous volunteers. The project to pave more than 20 miles of roads proceeded ahead of schedule. Improvement continued on the second nine holes of the golf course and the tennis courts. Municipal services were provided to 645 property owners who share proportionate costs. Painting of Shackford Hall, 30 apartments, and other facilities was completed as SEJ Laity volunteers assisted staff workers. A new cross at Missionary Point, Asbury Trail lighting and many other improvements resulted from gifts through the Junaluska Associates and volunteer services of The Junaluskans and others.

In 1995, a new swimming pool will be constructed, Lambuth Inn painted and repaired, the dam checked to insure safety, renovation of the Kern Youth Building begun, and new equipment installed in the Lambuth dining room, as missional fund expenditures further enhance the Assembly's effectiveness.

Coordinate and Make Effective...Agencies of The UMC

SEJAC maintained communication with and joined in programming and resourcing with various general agencies and hosted gatherings such as those of the Council of Bishops, the Commission on Religion and Race, the National Association of Annual Conference Lay Leaders, the GCOM Connectional Issues Task Force, and the annual training of new district superintendents and council directors.

Support and Executive Services

The Public Relations, Marketing and Development Department communicated our common vision and ministry through The SEJ United Methodist sent to 13,000 church leaders, promoted the use of facilities and services, and sought long-range for this ministry. 1995 should bring the development of an expanded data base of information and a marketing manager for added service.

Again this year, the Business Department provided treasurer functions for both the SEJ Conference and the SEJAC, administered a $6,000,000 budget for the Assembly and other SEJAC units, coordinated services to 645 property owners, provided personnel support to 120 year-round full or part-time and over 200 summer employees and maintained an extensive data processing network.

During 1994, the executive director was within all 16 conferences and consulted with appropriate leaders. For the opportunity to share this ministry with over 3,000,000 UMs in the SE and beyond, we are grateful and, with you, look forward to greater days of faithful discipleship and service.

Gordon C. Goodgame, Executive Director

TRUSTEES, CONFERENCE BOARD OF

The Conference Board of Trustees has received the following closed church properties since the 1994 Annual Conference:

CLARK STREET, Rocky Mount District - currently being used for special program called "Clark Street Ministries" in coordination with the Rocky Mount District.

WINTON and SAINT FRANCES, on the Aulander-Harrellsville Charge, Elizabeth City District.

PIREWAY, on the Old Dock Charge, Wilmington District.

Several church properties held by the Conference Board of Trustees currently are being considered for sale purposes:

LIGHTHOUSE, near Aberdeen, Rockingham District - an offer from The Lighthouse Baptist Mission Church has been accepted, with payment pending.

WINTON and SAINT FRANCES, Elizabeth City District - offers currently under consideration.

The Board of Trustees adopted some guidelines for the disposition of closed, abandoned or discontinued church property, and distributed these guidelines to district superintendents. The guidelines are based on provisions outlined in The Book of Discipline.

Routine maintenance for the United Methodist Building has been on-going during the year. Plans for 1995 include several projects of a capital nature: resurfacing of the parking lot, and renovation/refurbishment of the main lobby and hallway areas in the East Wing (where the United Methodist offices are located).

We are pleased to report that all rental space in the Building is filled.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INCORPORATED

The year 1995 marks the 40th Anniversary of United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated. Since 1955 the Foundation has grown from three (3) initial accounts with total assets of $330,000 to three hundred twenty-six (326) accounts with assets of almost $40,000,000.

This past year (1994) has been a very difficult one for investors. After three years of falling interest rates, rates began to rise sharply. The Federal Reserve felt the need to raise the interest rates several times to keep inflation low. Although we had a very strong economy, the stock and bond markets were hit by rising interest rates. The net effect was very poor performance by our investments.

For the year ending December 31, 1994, net income paid to unit holders was $1,813,735. This was $34,535 more than 1993. Although this was a very modest increase, it was a step in the right direction.

Our net realized and unrealized gain (loss) on investments was ($1,663,444). This reflects the volatility of the market and the very poor investment climate that existed most of 1994 due to rising interest rates.

Our total in net assets on December 31, 1994, was $39,431,424 or $1.76 per outstanding unit.

We are still pleased that we diversified into Global Investing in 1992. This long term decision will continue to show positive results in the future. All of the investment markets are growing closer and closer together, and by investing globally we are certainly reducing our risks.

Oxford Mortgage Corporation is our investment counselor for mortgage loans. The niche in the real estate market in which the Foundation invests has become more competitive. This competition has come from banks and some insurance companies. Due to our very conservative credit policy, we have been very limited on the real estate loans we make and are under-weighted in this area. The Investment Committee will take a strong look at this in 1995.

During 1994 seventeen (17) new permanent endowments and six (6) new life income trusts were created, benefiting many causes of the Church. Thirty-six (36) new investment accounts were opened by churches, institutions, and other organizations of the Church which chose to participate in the investment partnership of the Foundation. The total number of accounts in the Foundation increased by 21% in 1994.

Planned Giving Handbook for Churches of the North Carolina Conference was published by the Foundation in 1994, and a copy has been given to each pastor for use in the local churches. Many churches have been assisted by the Foundation in establishing planned giving and endowment programs through the placement of this Handbook, the publishing and distribution of the quarterly newsletter (Legacies) and other stewardship resource materials, and through consultation and assistance provided.

In churches where planned giving and endowment programs are in place there is a noticeable increase of interest in planned giving and long-term funding for the Church, which has in turn resulted in increased giving from accumulated assets. Response of churches across the Conference has been very favorable to Estate and Gift Planning Workshops, Creative Gift Planning Seminars, stewardship sermons, and special programs and presentations by the Executive Director.

With assistance from the Foundation many persons have included the Church and causes of the Church in their gift and estate planning. These gifts and gift plans which were put in place during 1994 range is size - from a small endowment established to receive future assets at the death of the donor - to a current gift of stock valued at $6,800 to assist a local church in meeting its mission and service giving goals - to a life income trust with assets over $100,000 - to an estate plan that will transfer assets estimated at more than $2 million to an endowment to benefit causes of the Church. Charitable life insurance policies with total death benefits of $1.25 million are also held by the Foundation to benefit various causes of the Church.

Files in the Foundation office reveal that some of the gift plans which are in place extend beyond currently listed assets of the Foundation. These confidential files contain information about persons who have included benefits to local churches, institutions, and other causes of the Church in their estate plans. It is interesting to note that many local churches and institutions of the Conference reported the receipt of significant bequests and planned gifts during 1994.

We are pleased to report that the long-range funding plan for the Foundation's operating budget is on schedule. This plan calls for the Foundation to be totally self-funded in 1998 and from that time on to require no financial assistance from the NC Conference. On behalf of the Foundation we express to the NC Conference our deep appreciation for its trust and support which have been a vital part of the success of this stewardship ministry.

Douglas L. Byrd, Executive Director

UNITED METHODIST MEN

As of January, 1995, there were 217 active chartered United Methodist Men's fellowships in the NC Conference, representing approximately one-fourth of the total number of churches.

Founded on evangelism, mission and spiritual life, UMM seek to build a Christian community among themselves and witness to the world their faith in our Lord and Savior. We work both to serve the congregations of which we are a part, and to do God's work in the larger society that surrounds us. We share with others the Good News of God's Grace, we respond to the cries of the needy where possible, and, through fellowship with each other, we nurture the Holy Spirit within each of us.

Priority conference goals for this year are:

1. To increase the number of active chartered fellowships in each district.
2. To increase participation in district and conference events and projects.
3. To increase EMS memberships from the present number of 275. EMS members are men who support connectional UMM programs through annual membership fees of $15, which include a subscription to the national UMM publication, Men's News.
4. To further underwrite the Meals for Millions project of the Society of Saint Andrew. This is a program to provide low cost potato meals to hungry people across the US, which is being accomplished at an amazing one cent per serving. Local UMM groups are being asked to accept a challenge fellowship of $10 per member per year and to distribute Meals for Millions lapel pins throughout their congregations and elsewhere in exchange for a small donation.
5. To promote attendance at the SEJ UMM's quadrennial convocation at Lake Junaluska on June 23 - 25, 1995.
6. To support the work of the Upper Room Prayer Center in Nashville.
7. To support the SEJ church building program by sending work teams in August 1995 to construct a new church building in Lewisville, NC.
8. To continue and increase our support of the scouting movement through sponsorship of Boy Scout and Cub Scout units.

We look forward to the UMM continuing to be a vital organization within The UMC, and invite men of all ages to join us in our work and fellowship.

Samuel C. Hodges, Jr., President

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

GLIMPSES OF GOD - REFLECTIONS OF CHRIST is the quadrennial theme for the NC Conference UMW. Each of the four years will have a sub-theme, and 1994 was IN OTHERS. This challenge expanded our vision of God and reflections of Christ were found in new and unexpected places.

During 1994 the Conference sponsored events were received with enthusiasm, attendance, and financial support.

JANUARY: This was the month for District Training of local officers. Four new members of the Committee on Nominations went to Chicago for training. The Conference Executive, Program Planning, and District President's Committees met at NC Wesleyan.

FEBRUARY: The 13 Conference-elected officers met for a weekend retreat at Atlantic Beach for renewal, recentering, and refocusing on ways to implement the 1994 plans and events. The Finance Committee met in Greenville for financial analysis.

MARCH: The Women's Division led a weekend workshop on Christian Disciplines. The '39 and Under Event was held at Methodist College.

APRIL: 120 members attended the National Assembly in Cincinnati.

MAY: The Christian Personhood Retreat was held at Louisburg College. The Scholarship and Membership Committees met prior to this event.

JUNE: The 13 elected officers attended Regional School at Millsaps College, Jackson, TN. The 1995 Mission Studies were taught, and we received a myriad of ideas that were used at our Conference Summer School.

AUGUST: Our involvements in Conference Summer School were varied and many. The Finance Committee met at Methodist College.

SEPTEMBER: The Planning and Executive Committees met at Methodist College the 9th and 10th. Two Mother\Child Retreats were held 16-18. As there were over 75 registrations that could not be filled, for lack of space, we will hold three retreats in 1995.

OCTOBER: Annual Meeting was held at Methodist College on the 14th and 15th. There were over 500 registered.

NOVEMBER: An overnight District Training Event, led by representatives of the Women's Division, was held at Methodist College. Excellent response from those attending.

Our total pledge for 1994 received by the Conference was $525,527.48. We sent to the Women's Division $391,115.42.

Local units are reaching out in many ways in their communities as: Tutorial and literacy volunteers, working with incarcerated women through Prison MATCH, tape ministries to shut-ins, making health and school kits for migrant and needy children, making kits for children who come to Domestic Violence Centers, support for battered wives and their children. These just scratch the surface of all their involvement. All this we do to fulfill our PURPOSE.

UNITED METHODIST YOUTH

"YES!" was the response to youth ministry across the NC Conference in 1994. This "yes" came as many people and churches responded to the "Youth Ministry Alive" evangelism model of Vision 2000 and as over 1,700 youth and adults attended the new Conference youth event, Pilgrimage. Many other positive things impossible to detail here took place in youth ministry across local churches and in our districts to empower youth through Jesus Christ.

The 10 Conference youth events sponsored in 1994 drew close to 2,700 youth and adults from across the Conference. These events included Global Vision, Kaleidoscope, Appalachian Trail Hike, Summer Breakaway-Junior High, Summer Breakaway-Senior High, Annual Conference Session for Youth, Rally Day, International Mission Workteam, and Pilgrimage. The National Mission Workteam planned for 1994 was not held due to lack of response. We do rejoice in that many of our local church youth groups are already involved in mission opportunities in such a way that this event was not needed. Pilgrimage made its debut in 1994 as a weekend event for youth groups to attend as a group. Pilgrimage has as its purpose to challenge and invite youth and adults to a new or deeper relationship with Jesus Christ. We celebrate with thanksgiving and rejoice in God's goodness to us through the overwhelming response to this new event. The Conference youth events to be held in 1995 include Global Vision, Rally Day, Appalachian Trail Hike, Summer Breakaway, Annual Conference Session, Youth Mission Workteam and Pilgrimage.

Vision 2000 has involved youth through Pilgrimage as well as the "Youth Ministry Alive" model offered at the Launch Event and Training Event. The Transformation 2000-Youth Committee has sponsored a new avenue for youth ministry as well. YES! standing for Youth Empowered by the Savior is a ministry of faith sharing and leadership development among youth. YES! Ministries offers teams of youth and an adult leader who join with local church youth groups for a weekend experience of fellowship, group building and faith sharing. YES! teams were trained in late 1994 and have begun ministry in local churches in 1995.

Youth Service Fund (YSF) is an avenue of mission and giving for UM Youth. Support of YSF through Conference youth events has been very good. Local church youth group support of YSF has declined over recent years. Each year far more grants to mission and ministry are requested than monies are collected to give. Efforts to better spread the word about YSF are being made in 1995. For YSF monies collected in 1994 the following ministries received grants: CONDUIT Day Camp for Oxford Manor, Highland Service Project, Caring Christian Carpenters, Asbury Basketball Camp, Society of St Andrew Harvest of Hope, Carolina Cross Connection, Confrontation Point Ministries, SEJANAM Native American Youth Intern program, and the Open Door Community House. Our goal continues to be $15,000. UMYF groups of every local church can be involved in mission through Youth Service Fund. We appeal to UM Youth to take part in supporting YSF!

Brantley Sawyer, President

VISION 2000 offers each local church a comprehensive process for capturing God's will for their future ministry in bringing people to Christ, to church membership, and to deepened discipleship. It is a process that is working well. Over 4,000 persons gathered in the Raleigh Civic Center for the October 22 VISION 2000 Launch Event. It was a wonderful day of inspiration and introduction to eight evangelism models for local church consideration. On January 7, 3,200 individuals returned to the Civic Center for a day of intensive training in evangelism model chosen by their church for implementation. These exciting days have captured the essence of God's Spirit moving throughout Methodism bringing a renewal of energy and vision for God's work with God's people.

The Launch Event and Training Event were merely the prelude for much more that was and is to come. In May, Dr. Norman Shawchuck, spent three days with pastors and laity in a Regional Church Leadership Conference. On October 28, over 6,500 persons are expected to fill the Cumberland County Civic Center in a joyous celebration, called the Great Event, of the first anniversary of the VISION 2000 movement. On November 10-12, 2,000 youth will gather for Pilgrimage, a spiritual growth retreat for UMYF groups. On November 17-18, and major laity event will be held offering training and inspiration for emerging leaders from each local church within the Annual Conference. Exciting days are ahead as churches continue to ask God for a vision of their ministry in their particular setting.

Day by day reports are being compiled of VISION 2000 stories of churches where renewal is well underway. God is doing great things in the NC Annual Conference.

Let perpetual light shine upon them; and help us so to believe where we have not seen, that your presence may lead us through our years, and bring us at last with them into the joy of your home, not made with hands but eternal in the heavens;

JACK WARREN MOORE

Dr. Jack Warren Moore, age 81, professor emeritus of philosophy and religion and former academic dean and vice president of North Carolina Wesleyan College, died of congestive heart failure at his home in Rocky Mount, July 28, 1994.

An academic memorial service was conducted in Leon Russell Chapel on the campus of NC Wesleyan College, Rocky Mount. The burial service followed at Straits UM Church Cemetery in Gloucester.

Dr. Moore was graduated from high school in Beacon, NY, received his BA degree from Olivet Nazarene College, Kankakee, IL in 1934, his BD degree from Duke Divinity School in 1946, and his PhD from the Graduate School of Religion in 1958. He was a Kearnes Fellow of the University.

Born January 22, 1913 in Danville, IL, the son of Paul Fisher and Ruth Jones Moore, Dr. Moore was an ordained minister in the Church of the Nazarene, serving churches in Bennettsville, SC, Greensboro, and Raleigh, before becoming a member of the NC Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Over 40 years of his professional life was devoted as an educator in church-related colleges. He was assistant professor of philosophy and religion at Southern Nazarene University in Bethany, OK, also its chairman. He served on the Board of Trustees of Trevecca Nazarene College in Nashville, TN, and was academic dean of Kendall College in Evanston, IL from 1952 to 1960.

In 1960, Dr. Moore came to Rocky Mount to help start NC Wesleyan College, creating its first faculty and curriculum, and serving as academic dean until 1973. In 1962 and in 1965, he was invited as delegate to the Oxford Institute on Methodist Theological Studies in Oxford, England.

He retired in 1981, becoming Wesleyan's first professor emeritus. In retirement, Dr. Moore pursued a study of medical bioethic problems and was published. The Moores also spent their retirement years enjoying grandchildren and traveling throughout the US and Europe.

Dr. Moore was married September 5, 1936, and is survived by his wife of 58 years, Nina Ray Browning Moore of Rocky Mount; a son, David W. Moore of Denver, CO; three daughters, Dorcas Lyon of Arlington, VA, Camilla Moore of Upper Montclair, NJ, and Martha Riggan of Nashville, TN; six grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Eleanor Westmoreland of Bethany, OK.

I took a walk with God this morning while the dew lingered on the grass, the flowers, and the trees.

The beauty I beheld was breathtaking and I fell upon my knees.

"Thank you, Lord," I cried from the depths of my soul, "thank you for this day."

And I heard the Voice of God say to me, "Show Me your gratitude by walking in My Way!"

"O Lord," I cried, "I am so weak and unable to stand; I need the strength, the guidance of Thy Holy Hand!"

And then, with tenderness and compassion, the Lord placed His Arms around me,

And quietly said, "Come walk with Me, I will strengthen, guide and keep thee!"

"Oh, Blessed Assurance, Jesus is mine, what a foretaste of glory divine!"

So I reached out and He took my hand - the strength came, and now I can stand!"

"My God and I" from The Hand of God and Other Poems
by William Albright Seawell, Vantage Press, Inc., 1964

William Albright Seawell was born in Moore County on June 30, 1915. He was the son of Asa H. and Julia Mae Albright Seawell. He died at his home in Snow Camp of a massive heart attack on August 9, 1994. The funeral service was conducted on August 12, 1994 at Bethel UMC in Snow Camp. Officiating at the service were his pastor, the Reverend Rose Conner; District Superintendent George W. Johnson; his long-time friend, the Reverend Vassar W. Jones; and his "son-in-the-ministry," the Reverend Dr. James Donald Phillips. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Bill is survived by his wife of 57 years whom he married August 15, 1936, Mrs. Claudia Louise McPherson Seawell, and three children: Mrs. James (Sharon) Vassil of the home, Mrs. Michael (Kathy) Evans of Greenville, SC, and Mr. William A. Seawell II of Snow Camp. Other relatives include a half-sister, Mrs. Junius (Judy) Bunn of Raleigh, seven grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

After the start of World War II, Bill volunteered to represent his country by enlisting in the Army where he was sent to Officers Candidate Training School. He was among the first married men to be sent into service from Alamance County. During his training he was injured, and as a result underwent two operations on his back. He spent nine months in the hospital before he was honorably discharged. Bill later would undergo eight back operations which left him with constant pain, a limp, and a stiff neck and back as a result of spinal fusions.

When his call came to enter the ministry, Bill owned his own business. Since the call came late in his life, he faced the obstacles of giving up a successful private business, financial loss, and no education. With faith, enthusiasm, and hard work, which would be the hallmark of his ministry, and the support of his wife and family, he was graduated from Elon College and admitted into full connection in the NC Conference after having completed the Course of Study Program at Duke Divinity School.

Bill went on to serve the following pastorates: Pittsboro, Salem Chapel, Hillsboro, Grace-Longhurst in Roxboro, Carr in Durham, Grace in Wilmington, First Church in Elizabeth City, Millbrook in Raleigh, and Asbury in Durham.

As a member of the NC Conference of The UMC, Bill labored with loyalty, enthusiasm, and effectiveness, and was well loved and respected in each of his appointments. He was on several District Committees of the Ministry (Durham, Elizabeth City, and Raleigh) and on the Committee on Investigation. He also was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. He was elected by our Conference to be a delegate to the 1972 Jurisdictional Conference. He was a member on the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry and was a member of the executive committee, later serving as vice-chairperson and chairperson.

Bill's humor, faith, and work ethic caused people to respond positively to him in each of the churches he served. Many congregations conducted building and/or parsonage projects under his leadership. All of them grew spiritually because of his great preaching ability.

His work with the Lions Club won him many recognitions as well. While he was pastor of Asbury in Durham, he was honored for having received the most "eye wills" from persons wishing to donate their eyes upon their deaths.

His favorite hymn, "Because He Lives," reads: "Because He lives, I can face tomorrow; because He lives, all fear is gone; because I know He holds the future, and life is worth the living just because He lives."

The writer of this memorial was claimed by Bill, and claims to be Bill's "son-in-the-ministry because this writer accepted His call to enter the ministry while Bill was pastor of Grace UMC in Roxboro. Having known Bill and his family for many years, this writer reflects on Bill's love for his family, his ministry, and his love for Jesus Christ.

Because He lives, Bill had the strength to stand. Because He lives, Bill had vision. Because He lives, Bill heard the call and walked in the Way of the Lord. Because He lives, Bill will, too. Son, brother, husband, father, pastor, poet, and friend - A Hand of God.

Born in a parsonage of the NC Conference in Bynum on April 2, 1923, J. Paul Edwards gave his life in service to The UMC. His parents were the Reverend John Robert and Mrs. Gertrude Florence Selby Edwards. When he was a senior in high school, Paul announced to his parents that he had been called into the ministry. In 1947, after completing undergraduate and Divinity School at Duke University, Paul began his ministry of nearly 40 years throughout which his love of the Lord never wavered.

Paul's sermons were often a well-meshed series of personal stories and narratives that invariably illustrated the positive teachings of Christ. His persuasiveness as a pulpiteer stemmed not just from the carefulness of his craftsmanship, but more especially from the integrity and incisiveness of his Christian commitment. A speech professor on the NC Wesleyan faculty stated that Paul Edwards was as accomplished a platform speaker as he had ever heard. His close relationship with God was evidenced by the depth and passion of his Sunday morning prayers. The messages of his sermons were always well received, and even in retirement, churches often requested that he preach in revivals, homecomings, and other special events. Paul loved all people equally, regardless of their wealth or position, and one of the resulting strengths of his ministry was his ability to relate to people from all walks of life.

Paul had a keen wit, and he much appreciated a good joke. He loved to jest with his friends, but more often than not, and most often in his preaching, he liked to poke fun at himself. He was an avid reader with a passion for history. He enjoyed sports of all kinds, and like his father before him and his son after him, he was a staunch supporter of Duke University, including its athletic program. He also spent many contented hours gardening during his years of retirement.

While enrolled as a student at Duke, Paul met Geraldine (Gerry) Bostic, of Warsaw, whom he married on June 19, 1947. Paul's love of his wife seemed to grow with each passing year, and they remained as much in love at the end of their marriage as in the beginning. Paul often stated that the motivation for his retirement in 1985 was his desire to have a few years to spend closely with his wife. The couple had two children, Beth Edwards Ross of Boston, and John P. Edwards, Jr., of Mount Olive, both of whom were deeply loved and befriended by their father. Paul never allowed his busy schedule to interfere with family time, and he set aside substantial time to play and study with his children. In a like manner, he treasured time later spent loving and teaching his six grandchildren.

After his ordination, Paul was appointed to preach at Bethesda UMC in Robeson County. Thereafter, he served churches in Roseboro, Carrboro, Troy, Raleigh (Highland UMC), Rocky Mount (First UMC), and Goldsboro (St. Paul UMC). He also served six years as the Goldsboro District Superintendent. During his retirement, he filled interim pastorates at First UMC in Clinton and Westwood-Ebenezer.

Paul served on and chaired various committees of the NC Conference. In addition, he served on the boards of the Methodist Home for Children, the Methodist Retirement Homes, and NC Wesleyan College, which presented him with a doctoral degree in 1979. He was elected to both the General and Jurisdictional Conferences of The UMC. Paul and Gerry made many lifelong friends at each of the churches they served, and Paul never expressed a preference for his appointments, whether large or small, rural or urban. Paul always thought that the most important church in the Conference was the church that he was serving.

He exhibited leadership in expanding the physical plants of many of the churches he served, with parsonage construction at Bethesda UMC and Carrboro UMC; educational facilities construction at Trinity UMC in Troy; sanctuary construction at Highland UMC in Raleigh, and sanctuary renovation at St. Paul UMC in Goldsboro.

After his death August 29, 1994, friends and colleagues filled the sanctuary at St. Paul UMC in Goldsboro in a final service of celebration of the life of J. Paul Edwards on September 1. The Reverend John S. Paschal and the Reverend H. Gray Southern officiated, with assistance from the Reverend Bob Bame and the Reverend Ellen H. Metcalf. Interment followed in the Devotional Gardens Cemetery in Warsaw.

We, as Christians, take much solace from the words of Saint John: For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

THOMAS MARVIN VICK, JR.

Thomas Marvin Vick, Jr. was a man of exceptional good will, warm and generous in his concern for others, and an excellent pastor whose contributions to The UMC and the NC Conference are well recognized. He died October 13, 1994 at Duke Hospital, leaving his wife, Catharine; two sons, Thomas Marvin III of Fayetteville, and Paul Allen of Durham; two daughters, Catharine Anne of Rutherford, NJ, and Sally Lou of Maggie Valley; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at First UMC in Cary by the Reverend Douglas Jessee and the Reverend John K. Ormond. A memorial service led by Dr. Reginald Ponder and the Reverend Diane Blanchard was held at St. John's Chapel at the Methodist Retirement Community. Interment was in Raleigh Memorial Park in Raleigh.

Born June 15, 1916 in Cisco, TX, the son of Lula Hand Vick and Thomas Marvin Vick, he moved to Dallas, TX as a small child. He was graduated from Southern Methodist University in 1936. While studying for the ministry at Duke University, he married Catharine Allen in Albany, NY on August 27, 1938. In September they moved to their first appointment, East Roxboro-Longhurst, and he was admitted to the NC Conference in November of that year. He was graduated from the Duke University School of Religion in 1939.

After four years in Roxboro, where he organized the Ca-Vel UMC, he entered the Army as a chaplain and served in the European Theatre. Returning to NC in 1945, he served as pastor of the Bahama Circuit - Mt. Bethel, Mt. Sylvan, Mt. Tabor, and Ellis Chapel. He subsequently served as pastor of Jonesboro Heights and Lemon Springs in Lee County, the Mebane Church, Queen Street in Kinston, Edenton Street in Raleigh, and as administrator of the Methodist Home for Children, from which he retired to Cary in 1979. He moved to the Methodist Retirement Community in Durham in April 1992.

The most significant word in his life was LOVE. He loved God, his family, the Church, and especially people. His experiences in the war made him deeply aware of the need for counseling. Always a peacemaker, he developed a strong program for working with families and was instrumental in organizing the NC Family Life Council. He was a teacher and lecturer on family life issues and a counselor who was constantly in demand. After retiring from the Conference, he was a counselor at the Center for Growth and Development in Raleigh.

Always involved in local concerns, Reverend Vick was an energetic leader on behalf of children, youth, and the elderly. While in Raleigh he was an important part of starting Walnut Terrace Child Development Center and in starting a Child Development Center at Edenton Street Church. At the same time he helped to establish a Senior Citizens program at both Edenton Street and at Jenkins Memorial churches. He amplified his outgoing, fun-loving spirit by his commitment to new church development in the Conference and by his influence on the young people from each of his pastorates who went into the ministry and other areas of Christian service.

In the course of his labors to proclaim the Christian ethic, he was valued as an outstanding preacher, with his radio ministry reaching beyond the borders of NC. He manifested his global concerns in his service as president of the Conference Board of Missions. In addition, he organized and led two mission work teams to Bolivia.

In a lifetime of service to the Church, he was a builder of churches as well as of lives. After organizing a church at Ca-Vel, he and the laymen built the facility for worship. At Mt. Bethel he initiated the building of the sanctuary with lay help, at Jonesboro Heights an education building, and at Mebane a parsonage.

In 1964 High Point College awarded Reverend Vick the DD degree.

He loved NC, especially the coast. A summer on the Duke Endowment introduced him to it and he was forever enthralled with this creation of God. He was a photographer whose pictures of the lighthouses were a symbol of life.

His charge would be "Lead on O King Eternal," and his challenge to us:

"Brightly beams our Father's mercy from His lighthouse evermore,
But to us He gives the keeping of the lights along the shore.
Let the lower lights be burning, send a gleam across the wave,
Some poor fainting struggling seaman you may rescue, you may save."

ESTER MAXWELL McNAIR

One of God's children who was called home has left a void that can be filled only by our Lord and Savior until the day He calls us home. Ester loved to serve the Lord and touched many lives by preaching His word and doing His will.

Ester Maxwell McNair was born January 27, 1922 in Scotland County at Laurinburg. He was the son of the late Henry and Sally Watson McNair.

Ester was married to Flossie M. Gillespie, October 15, 1949, in Bennettsville, SC, who survives him. She cooperated and encouraged him in every endeavor of his study and ministry. She was a most dedicated wife to his every need during his illness.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by four sons: (one preceded him in death), Samual McNair, Wallace McNair, Roy Dean McNair, and Sheldon McNair of Laurinburg; four daughters: (one preceded him in death), Mrs. Bonnie L. Wells of Spring Lake, Mrs. Olivia M. Brown, Mrs. Cara Etta M. Thomas, and Mrs. Jacqueline M. Gillis, all of Laurinburg; 15 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren; two sisters: Mrs. Jessie Hill and Mrs. Frances McGill, both of Laurinburg; and not to forget a twin brother, Lester Lowell McNair of Laurinburg.

Ester confessed Christ at an early age and joined Cool Spring UMC. As a youth he was a member of the choir, the Youth organization, and also was a Sunday School teacher. When he became a young adult, he served as superintendent of the Sunday School and was choir director.

He attended Laurinburg Institute and was graduated in 1941. After graduation, he joined the US Army and served from 1942 until 1945. After his tour of duty, he attended A & T State University for three years. Ester received the UMC Ministerial Course of Study Certificate from Duke University, Durham, July 19, 1979, and also the Advanced Course of Study Certificate, July 21, 1983. He was ordained deacon in The UMC at the June 1978 Annual Conference, Fayetteville.

Ester (affectionately known as "Mack" by fellow clergy), pastored the following churches in the NC Conference: Goldsboro: St. John, 1968; New Zion-Pleasant Grove, 1971; Rowland: Cedar Grove-Salem, 1973; Pembroke Circuit (Beauty Spot, New Zion, and St. James), 1983; and Wilmington: St. John-Smith Chapel, 1985.

Ester retired from the ministry in 1986, but he was called back to the ministry and served Goldsboro: St. John, 1989, and Fletcher's Chapel-St. Peter, 1991.

Death came on October 19, 1994. He was memorialized at Cool Spring UMC, October 21. The Reverend Doris Fox gave the eulogy. Interment was at Nazareth Cemetery in Wagram.

These words surely exemplify the life of Ester Maxwell McNair: "If I can help somebody as I pass along, if I can cheer somebody with a word or song, if I can show somebody he is traveling wrong, then my living shall not be in vain."

Jesse F. Minnis was born June 10, 1895 in Orange County. He was the son of Morgan and Betty Minnis. He received a BA degree from Elon College in 1919, and BD degree in 1922 from Westminster Theological Seminary, and a MA degree from Drew University in 1943. He also completed advanced studies at Cornell University. Jesse married Helen Meryl Stokes on July 6, 1922, and two sons and a daughter were born to this union.

Jesse was ordained deacon and elder of the Methodist Protestant Church in 1922, joining the Conference at the same time. Later that year, the Minnis family went to India where Jesse served as a missionary of the Methodist Protestant Church. He served as superintendent and treasurer of the mission at Dhulia, Bombay Province. Except when he was on furlough, he was superintendent of the mission until it united with the Bombay Annual Conference of the Methodist Church in Southern Asia. Jesse then was named superintendent of the Dhulia Puntumba District. After the 1939 unification of the Methodist denominations, his appointments included superintendent of the Nagpur and Bombay Districts, and supervisor of building construction in the Bombay Annual Conference. While in India, Jesse wrote a booklet entitled, Financing the Real Church, and he is included in the Encyclopedia of World Methodism.

Due to Mrs. Minnis' declining health, they returned home in 1955. Jesse then served the following appointments in the NC Annual Conference: Pembroke: First; Sanford: Trinity; and Lucama. He retired in 1961, and served his home church, Chestnut Ridge as a retired pastor for two year.

In retirement, he was active in civic affairs such as the NC Grange, Hillsborough Historical Society, Hillsborough Museum, and the Red Cross. Some of his hobbies included music, woodworking, and gardening, especially his rose garden. He believed in being active and enjoyed being involved with people.

Jesse continued as a volunteer associate pastor at Chestnut Ridge, visiting the sick, advising and shepherding the student pastors serving the church, and singing in the choir. During these years Mrs. Minnis also remained as active in the church as her health allowed. She died October 13, 1981, after a lengthy illness.

In 1986 Jesse was honored at a special ceremony at Chestnut Ridge UMC, where he was appointed minister emeritus. In 1990, Brother Minnis entered the United Methodist Retirement Community in Durham.

Reverend Jesse Minnis was called home on October 24, 1994. Funeral services were held at Chestnut Ridge UMC by the Reverend David Cumbest. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Jesse is survived by a daughter, Ms. Betty Jean Minnis of Bradenton, FL; and two sons, Dr. J. F. Minnis, Jr., of Palo Alto, CA; and James M. and (daughter-in-law) Mary Jo Minnis of Hillsborough. He also is survived by three grandchildren: James Morgan Minnis III, Miss Jo Linda Minnis, and Frank Joseph Minnis.

Jesse Minnis always was a strong supporter of the Methodist Protestant Church. He kept its history before the student pastors assigned to Chestnut Ridge UMC in a loving and helpful way. On the last Sunday of his earthly life, he attended the worship services at his home church where he assisted in serving Holy Communion. Throughout his entire life, Jesse Minnis was a Christian, wearing the mantle of Christ with great dignity, love, and loyalty. A friend to all, he radiated God's love in various ways, both large and small.

A service for the celebration of his life was conducted by the Reverends Donnie L. Jones, Lacy Joyner, Walter McLeod, and Theodore Carter. Interment was at the Spells Family Cemetery in Clayton.

He served in the US Navy from 1943 to 1946, and was graduated from North Carolina A & T State College in 1950 with a BS degree in agriculture.

During this period, Reverend Spells pastored churches in Sanford, Lillington, and Broadway, all in the Sanford District. He built a new church structure for the Union Grove UMC in Broadway. Under his leadership, the Mt. Olive UMC at Lillington was rebuilt. He also greatly improved McQueens Chapel UMC of Lemon Springs.

He was past commander of the American Legion-Hester Crews Post No. 166, the Golden Link Masonic Lodge No. 205 of Smithfield, and member of Henderson Consistory No. 195, A.A.S.R., Prince Hall, and Imran No. 168, A.E.A.O.N.M.S., Prince Hall Affiliation.

Those whom we love go out of sight, but never out of our hearts and minds. They are cherished in the hearts of those they have touched and leave behind. Always willing to help, loving and kind in all his ways, upright and just to the end of his days, sincere and true in heart and mind, are beautiful memories he leaves behind.

John Robert Poe, son of Addie and Robert Poe, was born in Chatham County on May 2, 1908. He was the third born of nine children.

While growing up on the farm, John attended Lowes Grove School. He received his high school diploma (11 grades in those days) when he was 16 years old. In the early 1920's the future for a boy on the farm was not generous. Young John had a brilliant mind which needed to be developed. His parents offered faith, food and family ties, but could not support John beyond the farm life. God does work in mysterious ways even in the depths of an open well.

When John was 18 years old, while in a country store, the door to Christian ministry opened through the need of others. Someone came into the store pleading for help as there was a man trapped in a well. John responded by being lowered into the well. There were two men rescued by John Poe that day. One man lived and the other died.

This became a major turning point in John's life as his name was submitted to the Dale Carnegie Foundation, which declared him a national hero. The Foundation paid for John's education at Duke University. He remained after completing undergraduate school and entered the Divinity School, which was free in those days. After receiving his MDiv degree, the soon-ordained Reverend John Robert Poe joined the NC Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, where he served for 38 years before his retirement in 1973. His appointments were: Hatteras, 1935; Aulander, 1937; Newport, 1941; Trenton, 1944; Swepsonville, 1946; West Burlington, 1950; Fuquay Springs, 1961; Durham: St. Paul, 1965; and Raleigh: Trinity, 1966.

On November 24, 1936, John married Sallie Smith Gattis of Durham. John and Sallie were blessed to have two children: John, Jr., of Chapel Hill, and Susan Faye of Arlington, VA. Sallie Poe preceded her husband in death on August 21, 1992.

John died November 18, 1994. The celebration of his life was conducted at St. Paul UMC in Durham by the Reverends Richard L. Stone, Jerry T. Smith, William C. Townsend, Jr., and Vickie S. Pruett. Burial was beside his wife in Old Maplewood Cemetery, Durham.

Many people loved John Poe for his humor and evangelism. He always had a joke to tell and his own laughter was generally as funny as the joke. The overwhelming emphasis of John's ministry was offering Christ. Christian ministry was a privilege and high honor for him. The community of faith will remember him for soul-saving sermons and the joy of Christian commitment. To him, the most exciting line in the Conference Journal was the number received on profession of faith. The ministry of John Robert Poe will live on in the lives of those privileged to be a part of his life.

Thanks be to God that I could receive his strong hand of faith in my life.

JOHN MALLOY OWEN III

In Goldsboro early in the morning of December 1, 1994, a thing precious in the sight of the Lord took place, as the Reverend John Malloy Owen III passed on after a brave struggle with bone marrow cancer. Malloy Owen died as he had lived, praising the One who had made him and then made him whole.

Surviving him are Pat, his wife of 36 years; daughter, Tricia Palardy, who lives with her husband Mark, and their daughters, Annesley and Elizabeth, in Charlotte; son, John, who lives with his wife, Trish, in Brunswick, ME; and son, Judd, who lives with his wife, Marion, in Chapel Hill.

Malloy was born on February 4, 1927, in Fayetteville, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. John Malloy Owen, Jr. He accepted Christ as his savior at age nine under the preaching of Dr. Jimmie Johnson, and very soon felt called into the ministry. A family employee once reported seeing little Malloy standing on a tree stump preaching to an imaginary audience, "Ye must be born again."

Such was the message he proclaimed tirelessly throughout his career. His sermons typically had at their heart a call to rebirth through Jesus Christ. He always preached from a biblical text, and his message was that Christianity was truly good news for the world. Like the early Methodists he so admired, he was energetic and resourceful in spreading the gospel: he was an organizer, leader, and innovator.

While at Fayetteville High School, Malloy was president of his church's Methodist Youth Fellowship. At Davidson College, where he earned a BS in philosophy, he helped found the Campus Club, a Christian fraternity, and was president of the NC Methodist Student Movement. At Duke Divinity School, where he earned a BD. He chaired the committee that brought Billy Graham to Duke Chapel, and organized a group that met regularly to pray for revival at Duke.

Malloy was ordained an elder in the NC Conference in 1953; his first appointment was at St. James UMC in Greenville. He was one of the first churchmen in the country to see the evangelistic potential of television, and in 1954 began his weekly program, "The Circuit Rider." The program ran continuously until 1978, first on WNCT in Greenville, then on WRAL in Raleigh. During his appointment at St. James he met and later married Vivian Patricia Smith on April 26, 1958.

Malloy and Pat moved to Clayton in 1959 to serve at Horne Memorial. In 1964 they moved to St. Mark's in Raleigh, where they served for 16 years, during which time the church grew from approximately 200 members to nearly 1,700. Malloy chaired the ecumenical group of ministers that brought Billy Graham to Raleigh in 1973; helped lead the local "I Found It" evangelistic campaign; and was active in a number of battles in the state legislature over moral issues. In 1980, Malloy was appointed superintendent of the New Bern District, where he served for four years. In 1984 the Owens returned to Greenville, serving at Jarvis Memorial for four years. Malloy ended his 41 years of official ministry as Goldsboro District Superintendent, from 1988 to 1994.

A staunch believer in the biblical Christianity of the Wesleyan tradition, Malloy was a powerful conservative presence in Conference and Cabinet. He never left any doubt as to his stance on doctrinal and moral issues. He served for several years on the national board of Good News, an evangelical forum within the Church, chairing the National Convocation in 1976. He combined this dedication to orthodoxy with an affability and sense of humor that endeared him even to those who disagreed with him. Nicknamed "Sunny" as a boy for his happy disposition, he had a booming laugh that was a familiar sound around the Conference. He was fiercely loyal to his country, his state, the towns and cities in which he lived, and Duke and Davidson.

Malloy was a true pastor who cared deeply about each individual in his churches and districts. Particularly during his years at St. Mark's, he profoundly influenced many who are now in the ministry or missions.

He was an affectionate and engaged husband and father who showed his love for his family in a thousand ways. Nightly suppers at the Owen house were lively times of discussion, always followed by scripture reading and prayer. His sense of humor and creativity were inexhaustible: he had a silly nickname for almost everyone and a musical jingle for any situation.

Malloy Owen was one who never appeared discouraged; he held fast to the hope that while heaven and earth will pass away, God's Word lives forever. He was animated not by negativity and opposition, but by the positive, unshakable hope that God would triumph, and had in fact already triumphed through the incarnation, atoning death, and physical resurrection of His Son. Malloy would pray at any time, any place, because he knew the God who dwells in unapproachable majesty had come to us in Christ. In the words of his favorite hymn:

Christ, by highest heaven adored, Christ, the everlasting Lord,
Late in time, behold him come, offspring of a virgin's womb!
Veiled in flesh, the Godhead see, hail the incarnate Deity!
Pleased as Man with men to dwell, Jesus our Immanuel.
Hark! the herald angels sing, Glory to the newborn King!

Malloy's funeral, held at St. Paul Church in Goldsboro, was a triumphant commemoration of his going home to be with the One he had served so faithfully to the end. Eulogizing Malloy were the Reverend John Paschal, Reverend David Banks, and Bishop C. P. Minnick. Malloy Owen was interred at Cross Creek Cemetery in Fayetteville.

Malloy's final project was to organize local churches of all denominations to bring evangelist Ralph Bell to hold a crusade in Goldsboro. The Ralph Bell crusade took place in May 1995. Thus the ministry of Malloy Owen continues even as he now is with yonder sacred throng, falling at Jesus' feet and crowning Him Lord of all.

HYMAN LEROY HARRIS

The Reverend Hyman LeRoy Harris of Carolina Beach died at age 97 on Thursday, February 2, 1995, in Davis Health Care.

He was born in Pitt County on November 30, 1897, the son of the late James Samuel and Ida Proctor Harris. Chester was the son of the recently deceased Mrs. Lillie Grissom Brown of High Point, and the late Mr. Walter Raymond Brown. He received his AB degree from High Point University in 1950 and MDiv degree from Duke Divinity School in 1953. He joined the NC Conference in 1951, was ordained deacon in 1952 and elder in 1953.

He is survived by his loving wife of 40 years, Catherine Mashburn Brown of Goldsboro, to whom he was married on March 13, 1954; his son, Darroll Andrew "Andy" and daughter-in-law, Martha Ann, of Hillsborough. He also is survived by three sisters, Margie Craven of Thomasville, Irene Joyce of High Point, and Florence Hill of Lexington; one brother, Billy Brown of Winston-Salem; and a nephew, Charles Brown of High Point.

Chester served his Lord with great love and gentleness. He loved the church of Jesus Christ, and he pastored churches in the NC Conference for 36 years. He cared for the people and their relationship with Jesus Christ. His appointments were Glendon, 1951; Durham: Branson, 1955; Havelock: First, 1958; Laurel Hill, 1960; West Burlington, 1963; Bethesda (Fairmont), 1968; Vass, 1970; Trinity (Lenoir Co.), 1975; Goldsboro: Pine Forest, 1980; and Goldsboro: Salem in 1984, before his health failed. Chester served the community in Goldsboro with his dedicated work to the United Church Ministries, an organization that helps those who need food and related resources. He also was a member of the Lions Club, and he truly enjoyed the fellowship and the purpose they served with his commitment and time. He always will be remembered by many as an individual with a smile and a joke or story that he would gladly share.

The funeral service was held on Saturday, February 11, at Providence UMC in Goldsboro. The pastor, Reverend James Hobbs, conducted the service, and he was assisted by Reverend Walter W. Gaskins, Jr. Interment was at Highfalls UMC cemetery in Highfalls.

Chester always served the cause of Jesus Christ with faithfulness and honesty. Many people remember him because he was a person who was alive with the presence of Jesus Christ in his life.

Facts cannot carry the freight of our feelings. James Worth Lineberger was born February 14, 1908, in Rock Hill, SC, son of Andrew Pierce and Eldora Nunn Lineberger; was married to Mary Allene Gable on December 5, 1931; was ordained deacon in 1935 and elder in 1937; retired in 1974; and he died February 25, 1995, in Raleigh. He was buried in Montlawn Memorial Park in Raleigh. Those facts become only the hooks upon which we hang our memories.

How is he to be remembered? As a family man. More than 63 years of marriage did not dilute the sparkle and verve of his relationship with Allene. He took pride when their son, James Worth, Jr., began his journey into ordained ministry; and when an accident moved Jim toward honorable location, Worth rejoiced in his son's faithful daily witness as a lay person.

How is he to be remembered? As a servant of the Church. After appointments at Stem, St. John-Gibson, Faison-Kenansville, Chadbourn, Fuquay Springs, Dunn: Divine Street, and New Bern: Centenary, Worth began a 12 year ministry with the Methodist Home for Children. Year after year he brought the shaping influence of the gospel into the lives of children and youth.

How is he to be remembered? As a person of mission and outreach. He and Allene helped form the camping ministry of the Conference. In 1956, they forever became "Mom and Pop" when they led a caravan of 10 youth for three months of mission in war-struck Europe. In retirement, for 21 years his warmth brought grace and affirmation to "everybody in sight" at Edenton Street Church in Raleigh.

How is he to be remembered? As a person of steadfastness. He stayed in tune with God's call from the time he was licensed to preach at the age of 17. He maintained loyalty to Wofford College long after his graduation in 1929. He remembered and appreciated Duke Divinity School in the decades following his four years of study there. He was a long-time trustee of Louisburg College. He kept an active relationship with the Rotary Club for 51 years.

How is he to be remembered? As a person who knew how to die well (as John Wesley said of the Methodists). In the closing days of his life, Worth talked without fear, with no regrets, and with a live curiosity about his upcoming death. He was prepared and he wanted all those around him to be prepared. His faith bore the calm assurance about which Isaac Watts wrote: "I'll praise my Maker while I've breath; and when my voice is lost in death, praise shall employ my nobler powers."

At Worth's funeral, the preacher testified, "We have come together because of Jesus Christ. That's the way it has been with Worth. In the life of Worth Lineberger, the light of Jesus Christ has shone brightly. It's more than friendship that brings us here. It's more than good memory that brings us here. We don't always know it, but it's a resurrection presence that overcomes our weaknesses and shortcomings. It's a resurrection presence that brings us here. That's the way it is when God is in charge of a life."

A celebration of life and resurrection was held February 27, 1995, at Edenton Street UMC in Raleigh. Bishop C. P. Minnick, Jr., Dr. William C. Simpson, and Dr. F. Belton Joyner, Jr. were worship leaders. Worth is survived by his wife, Allene, who now lives in the Methodist Retirement Community in Durham; son, Jim, who with his wife Mary Jac, lives in Cary; two grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Let us plead for faith alone, faith by which our works is shown;
God it is who justifies, only faith the grace applies.
Let us for this faith contend, sure salvation is the end;
Heaven already is begun, everlasting life is won. - Charles Wesley

Reverend Dwight Sapp Martin went to be with his Lord on February 25, 1995. He was staying with family members in Cincinnati, OH, and being treated at Bethesda Hospital. While in the hospital, an inoperable brain tumor was found.

Dwight was born in Cincinnati, OH on November 6, 1952, son of Edward and Hilda Lewallen Martin. He received his BA degree from Asbury College in Wilmore, KY in 1976. He accepted the call to full-time ministry in June of 1981, enrolled at United Seminary in Dayton, OH, and received his MDiv degree from Emory University, Candler School of Theology, Atlanta, GA in 1984.

Dwight was the associate pastor at Worthington, OH, serving the Linworth UMC from 1984-1986. He transferred to the NC Conference in June, 1986, and served Person Street in Fayetteville, 1986-1988; Rehoboth-Harris Chapel, 1989; and Selma: Edgerton, 1990. He loved to serve and was instrumental in preaching and counseling. Dwight was a great encourager and always tried to help people come to know the Savior personally and to trust Him for their needs. He worked effectively within the church, and also was very concerned about those outside who might be influenced by Christ. Dwight was active in several neighborhood outreach programs in the communities he served. He enjoyed reading and studied to understand more about his God and the people entrusted to his care. Continuing education was important to Dwight, and he enrolled at Asbury Seminary for further studies during the summer of 1984.

He was an avid runner throughout his college days and continued an exercise program until health would not permit strenuous activity. He ran in the Atlanta Peachtree Run several times while serving his churches.

In Dwight's final months at the Edgerton Memorial UMC in Selma, he was remembered as being a "teacher" as well as pastor, friend, and brother in Christ. He spoke quietly, with conviction and was an example to everyone around him. His kindness to others and his smiling face will be remembered in the hearts of those who knew him.

A memorial service was held at Edgerton Memorial on March 5, 1995 with Goldsboro District Superintendent Jim Lee officiating. A service celebrating Dwight's life was held in Cincinnati, OH on February 28, 1995 at the Sharonville UMC, with Reverend Greg Stover officiating. Dwight had been on the building committee at the Sharonville Church before entering the ministry. His name is listed on a plaque in the church signifying his service to the local congregation.

Dwight was buried at Rest Haven Cemetery in Cincinnati, OH. He is survived by and will be sorely missed by his parents, Edward and Hilda Lewallen Martin; a sister, Diann Martin of Cincinnati; two brothers, Dana Martin of Cincinnati and David Martin of Riverside, CA.

JOSEPH BENJAMIN BETHEA

Bishop Joseph B. Bethea demonstrated great abilities of building bridges of understanding among all people in his pioneering efforts as the first African American to serve as the Bishop of the South Carolina Conference.

Bishop Bethea was born in Dillon, SC on September 9, 1932, the son of a Methodist minister, Rufus Emory and Ella Johnson Bethea. He died in his home in Columbia, SC, on Sunday, March 12, 1995.

A graduate of Claflin College and Gammon Theological Seminary, he was ordained a deacon in October, 1954 and elder in 1956 in the SC Conference (CJ) by Bishop J. W. E. Bowen, a prominent black bishop in the Methodist Church.

Bishop Bethea started his ministry in 1953, serving the Walhalla and Ninety-Six charges in the SC Conference (CJ). He later served the following charges: Elkin Charge (NC Conf/CJ); St. Paul UMC in Reidsville (NC-VA Conf/CJ). He served as district superintendent of the Virginia District in the NC-VA Conference of the Central Jurisdiction. In 1968 he transferred to the WNC Conference (SEJ) and was appointed to St. Matthews UMC , Greensboro. The itinerant ministry also took him to Duke Divinity School as the first director of Black Church Affairs. In 1977 he was appointed district superintendent of the Rockingham District of the NC Conference. In 1983 he was appointed administrative assistant to the bishop of the Raleigh Area and conference coordinator of ministerial relations. In 1986 he was appointed district superintendent of the Raleigh District. Bishop Bethea was elected a bishop and assigned to the Columbia Area in July 1988. He was an honorary member of the NC Conference.

Two services were held for Bishop Joseph B. Bethea. The first was held March 16, 1995 at Shandon UMC in Columbia, SC. The service participants were Bishop L. Scott Allen, Bishop William R. Cannon, Bishop H. Hasbrouck Hughes, Bishop Woodie W. White, and Dr. Ted H. Walter. The second service was held March 17, 1995 at Centenary UMC in Winston-Salem. The service participants were Bishop S. Clifton Ives, Bishop C. P. Minnick, Bishop Woodie W. White, Dr. James W. Ferree, and Dr. Samuel E. NeSmith. Bishop Bethea was buried in the First Presbyterian Church cemetery in Boonville.

He is survived by his daughter, Josefa, of Greensboro. His wife, the late Shirley Ann Cundiff Bethea, preceded him in death on September 19, 1992, and also is buried in the Boonville cemetery. He is survived by a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, dear in-laws, and many dear friends. His sister, Mary F. Bitting, and brother, Lee Henderson, preceded him in death.

Bishop Bethea received several honors during his lifetime. He held honorary degrees from Gammon Theological Seminary/Interdenominational Center, Claflin College, NC Wesleyan College, and Columbia College. In April 1983 Bishop Bethea was honored with the presentation of the Order of the Palmetto by former SC Governor Carroll Campbell. The award was given "in grateful recognition of his interest in and friendship to the State of South Carolina and her people."

In May 1984 he was elected chairman of the Board of Trustees of Gammon Theological Seminary and elected to the Interdenominational Theological Center Board of Trustees. He also served on the Board of Trustees of Emory University. He was very active at every level in the life of the church. He was a delegate to the General Conference and SEJ Conference in 1984 and 1988. In addition to serving on several boards of the SC Annual Conference, he served on the General Board of Church and Society, which is concerned with social justice issues. Most recently he served as president of the General Commission on Religion and Race, which is concerned with racial inclusiveness within the life of the church and the world at large. He also was a member of the World Methodist Council, a worldwide organization of churches that trace their heritage to John Wesley, the founder of Methodism.

He stated at times that he did not want to be remembered as one who always worked on race relations in the church. He believed that as children of God we should not have to be reminded to be inclusive; it should be the natural order. He felt he was a great historian, which he was, but God also made him a great bridge builder. He was dedicated to the work of reconciler, peace maker, partisan of the forgotten, apostle of possibilities, instrument of change, and wellspring of courage and hope.

Don't rest until you find it, There's a bright side somewhere.

The Reverend William Junius Neese was born June 23, 1914 in Graham, the son of Alfred Newton and Sallie Florence Neese. He attended schools in Graham and was a graduate of Elon College and Westminster Theological Seminary in Westminster, MD. He died on April 11, 1995 in Sanford.

He served student appointments in Virginia and then served the following appointments in the NC Conference: Eno Church, West Hillsborough (1940-1941); Marvin-St. Paul Charge in Rocky Mount (1941-1943); Elm City Charge in Elm City (1943-1947); Ellerbe Circuit in Ellerbe (1947-1952); Jonesboro Heights Charge in Sanford (1952-1957); Fifth Avenue in Wilmington (1957-1959); First Church in Roanoke Rapids (1959-1965); Haymount in Fayetteville (1965-1971); the Wilmington District (1971-1975); and St. Paul Church in Goldsboro (1975-1980). After his retirement he served as minister of visitation and pastor emeritus of the Jonesboro UMC in Sanford.

His funeral was held on April 13, 1995 at the Jonesboro UMC by the Reverend Terry Bryant, pastor, and the Reverend Jeff Davis. Burial followed in the Jonesboro Cemetery.

Junius married Anna Belle Warfield on November 24, 1942, and of this union came two daughters: Betsy (Mrs. Keith Moore) of Concord, and Ann (Mrs. Pat Osburn) of Efland. In addition to his wife and daughters, he is survived by his sons-in-law and four grandchildren: Laura and Susan Moore, Leigh and Daniel Osburn; and a sister, Laura Jane Wimbish of Eden. A brother, Bryce Neese, preceded him in death.

In the Conference Junius served as a member and chair of the Council on Finance and Administration. He also served as a member of the Board of Ordained Ministry on two different occasions and as chair of the Board prior to his appointment as a district superintendent. He also was a delegate to two General and Jurisdictional Conferences. He gave quiet but effective leadership in the churches he served and in the Annual Conference.

Wherever Junius served he endeared himself to laity and clergy alike. He was a concerned and compassionate pastor who genuinely loved to preach the gospel. He enjoyed visiting his members and did so diligently. He appreciated church history and served as president of the NC Conference Historical Society and wrote papers on Nicholas Snethen and Thomas Hamilton Lewis of The Methodist Protestant Church in which he was nurtured.

Junius Neese was a model pastor who loved Christ and gave his life in complete service to the church. He was aware of God's grace at work in his life. He was appreciative of that grace when it came through his faithful helpmate, Anna Belle, and through his children and grandchildren. He was grateful for God's grace when it came through kind and thoughtful church members as they affirmed the effectiveness of his ministry. He once wrote, "In my retirement, I truly miss the people I have served through the years and I cherish the remembrances of them."

Those who came under his care and influence will also cherish the remembrances of him.

TRYON DELTON LOWRY, SR.

The Reverend Tryon Delton Lowry - to know him was to love and appreciate him and to desire a "double portion" of his spirit. His was a spirit of unselfish, outreaching love, affirming the dignity and worth of all and each of The Creator's children, a spirit of radiant and winsome joy and abundant life, a spirit of balance between personal piety and social justice, a spirit of effective personal and pulpit evangelism, and his spirit of vision and leadership for Native American ministry in the Conference, the southeast and throughout the nation. His ministry was brief, but powerful and lasting. "Oh, for a double portion of his spirit."

Tryon was the grandson of Methodist ministers, one in our denomination. He was born on January 4, 1943, the son of Delton H. and Shirley Smith Lowry of Pembroke, both public school teachers.

On August 25, 1966, Tryon married Brenda Harrell, and they had three children: Tryon D., Jr., of Sofia, Bulgaria; Julia Nicole Lowry Brooks of Pembroke, Evan H. of the home; and added to the family was son-in-law, Brian Brooks. He also is survived by his mother of Wesley Pines in Lumberton; three sisters: Deanna L. Warner of Florida; Julia L. Russell of Lumberton; and June Lowry of Pembroke. Tryon was devoted to his family, and his sudden death at age 52 on April 17, 1995, was a painful shock and loss for them, his parishioners, Native American ministries, this Conference, The Church, and for all who knew him.

The wake was at the Zion UMC of Rockingham, and his funeral was held at the Mt. Olive Pentecostal Holiness Church in Pembroke. Bishop C. P. Minnick, Superintendent Ben Rouse, and Reverends Simeon F. Cummings, John Parker, his brother-in-law, Timothy Creel, Bill James Locklear, and Robert Mangum participated in the funeral. Interment was at Hopewell Methodist Church cemetery near Rowland.

After graduating from Pembroke High School, Tryon enlisted in the US Navy and served four years. He then received his BS degree in business administration from Pembroke State University in 1973 and worked in NC government administration until 1976. He then owned and operated two businesses until 1981. Something transforming happened to "Brother Ty" that year. He wrote: "My life was changed in April, 1981. I accepted Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior. I sold the businesses and a process that would lead me into the ordained ministry had begun."

Soon after April, 1981, Tryon answered the call to ministry and became a part-time local pastor in 1984 while working as purchasing officer and director of Central Stores at Pembroke State University. He then became a student pastor and graduated in 1993 from Duke Divinity School with a MDiv degree. He was ordained deacon and received into Conference probationary membership. His family received his elder's orders certificate and the "pastoral servant-leader stole" posthumously at the 1995 Annual Conference.

In nearly 11 years of pastoral ministry, the Reverend Tryon Lowry effectively served UM churches: Fairview, Pleasant Grove, Collins Chapel, New Philadelphus and Zion and Trinity in the Rockingham District, and Gray Rock and Bethel of Oxford while in seminary. He also served unselfishly on boards and committees, such as: General Council on Ministries Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee; General Board of Global Ministries Indigenous Community Developers National Policy Committee, as chair, Native American International Caucus, executive committee of the SEJ Agency for Native American Ministries as personnel and nominations chair, NC Council of Churches Racism Committee, NC Conference Commission on Social and Ecumenical Ministries, NC Conference Commission on Religion and Race, as chair, NC Conference Council on Ministries and chair of NC Conference Native American Concerns Committee.

In 1994, Tryon spearheaded the founding of his dream for perpetuating Native American ministry growth in the SEJ, "The Simeon F. Cummings Native American Endowment," of the NC Conference United Methodist Foundation, Inc. He had suggested memorial gifts be directed to the endowment; ironically, his were the first memorials to the fund.

Tryon would have been appointed to the new Native American congregation in Charlotte. He, his family, and congregation were excited about the appointment, but God had an appointment more exciting, the "eagle's flight" to hear, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

MARY ALENE HALL CLIVE

Mary Alene Hall Clive was born March 17, 1945 in Washington, DC, to loving Christian parents - William Travis Hall, Sr. and Neota Silvers Hall. M.A., the name she was called by friends, had her early schooling in Arlington, VA, where she graduated from Wakefield High School in 1963. She married Donald Clive in 1963 in Arlington, postponed the completion of her own education, and worked to help put him through college. Later she graduated with honors from NCSU in 1982 and received a MDiv degree from the Duke Divinity School in 1985.

M.A. battled with major health problems for many years, but received the call to the ministry under Hope Morgan Ward while a member of White Plains UMC in Cary, and persevered against all odds to complete her education, become ordained, and receive appointment as a UM minister. She joined the NC Conference in Fayetteville in 1984, was ordained a deacon in 1984, and an elder in 1989. Her first appointment was to the CPE program at UNC-Chapel Hill in 1985. Other appointments included: Broadway, 1986; Bladen Charge, 1987; Mt. Sylvan Associate, 1990; Brookland-Brooksdale, 1991; and Red Oak, 1994. She gave up her home, her freedom, and her security to become a traveling minister in The UMC. She experienced the joys and frustrations of being a single parent. She showered her children with love, set them a goodly example, and delighted in the birth of her granddaughter. Many pastors have served larger churches, but none have served the Lord and his flock with more love, compassion, or dedication to their task. She was active in Hospice and was the founder of the Bladen County Chapter of Hospice.

M.A. died on Tuesday, April 18, 1995, in NC Memorial Hospital at the age of 50, succumbing to complications from heart disease and diabetes. A service of thanksgiving and celebration of her life and ministry was held at White Plains UMC, where she had sung in the choir and where she had answered the call to the ordained ministry. Officiating at the service were Reverend Ray Warren, Reverend Tom Loftis, and Reverend Sam D. McMillan, Jr. Both clergy members and lay persons present stood to testify to the impact of M.A.'s life and ministry on them and others. The following prayer was offered by Sam McMillan:

Almighty God, thou from whom cometh every good and perfect gift,
We thank You for the life of Your Faithful and Loving Servant, M.A. Clive.
For her honoring of her father and mother,
For her close relationship to her brother and sister,
For her loving devotion to her children, Rob and Kirsten, and
For her delight in her granddaughter, Jennifer,
We give Thee thanks, O Lord.
For her keen mind, for her loving spirit,
For her big and generous heart, for her joyous sense of humor,
For her broad smile, for her warm hugs, and
For her caring and compassionate life,
We give Thee thanks, O Lord.
For her love of life, animals, and people,
For living life to its fullest,
For her tireless energy and enthusiasm,
For her gift of love, joy, and perseverance to her children,
For her valiant and victorious struggle to be the head of a single parent family,
For her tireless efforts and strong leadership with Hospice,
For her devotion to You, Your church, and the service of others, and
For her service as a choir member in this church,
We give Thee thanks, O Lord.
For her commitment of her life to Jesus Christ,
For her accepting of the terms of costly discipleship,
For her answering the call to the ordained ministry,
For her deep and tireless commitment to being the best pastor she could be, and
For the effective and loving way in which she touched the lives of so many persons,
We give Thee thanks, O Lord.
O Lord of Life, we are confident that M.A. is enjoying fellowship with You at this very hour.
Give us grace, we pray Thee, also to demonstrate love, joy, compassion, friendship, courage, and perseverance in our earthly pilgrimage,
So that we may with Your Servant, Mary Alene Clive, come to live the abundant, victorious, and eternal life. Amen.

Interment was at Raleigh Memorial Park. M.A. is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Kirsten and Samuel C. Dew of White Oak; a son, Robert Clive, of Raleigh; brother, William Travis Hall, Jr., of Annandale, VA; sister, Neota Hall, of Alexandria, VA; and a granddaughter, Jennifer Dew, of White Oak.

M.A. gave an overflowing measure of love and devotion to her Lord, to her children, and to her ministry; and she leaves for her children and granddaughter an outstanding example of motherhood and ministry. All these attributes we have mentioned here were an inspiration to her children and to all who knew her. We will miss M.A.'s hugs, laughter, and friendship; but we rejoice that her trials and tribulations are behind her, and that she is now in perfect health, enjoying life and laughter with her Lord, Jesus Christ.

BLANCHE ANNISE SMITH CRAWFORD

Blanche Annise Smith was born in Pitt County to Charles Edward and Annise Cox Smith, May 6, 1906. She grew up with her five brothers and two sisters in Ayden. After graduating from Ayden High School, she attended East Carolina Teachers' College (now ECU) and was graduated with a degree in elementary education in 1926.

While teaching school in Bunn, she met Reverend Eugene Carson Crawford, a native of Orange County and a member of the NC Conference. They married May 10, 1929. To this union were born Dr. Eugene C. Crawford, Jr., recently retired from the University of Kentucky in Lexington; Joan C. Brady, former elementary teacher in Durham City Schools who died in 1979; and Sara C. Williams, retired secondary science teacher of Williamston.

As the wife of a Methodist minister and the mother of three children, my mother's days were busy, full, and varied - as varied as her many interests and talents which she applied to her roles of homemaker and pastor's wife with a creative and experimental spirit as well as a marvelous practicality. She often expressed regret that she had lacked the musical ability which she felt would have been such a help in the ministry. But she had something more valuable - a love for people to whom she spontaneously opened her heart and home.

Upon retirement in 1961, my mother and father moved to Durham where they joined Duke Memorial UMC. Mother was secretary of the Lillie Duke Sunday School Class and a member of UMW. She served her community as a member of the Retired Senior Volunteers Program and the Voluntary Service Program for the Veterans Association. She also supported my father in his duties as state commander of WWI Veterans' Association, and in his activities as a volunteer field worker for peace through the Department of American Friends Service Committee. Their home was always open to friends, relatives, and former church members whose loved ones were patients in the nearby hospitals.

In 1980 Mother and Daddy moved into the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham due to the advanced state of Alzheimer's disease my father was suffering by then. Mother met many of her old friends there, and made as many more. She adjusted to this new style of living, and participated in an Alzheimer's disease support group. When my father died on January 17, 1983, she made new adjustments with the help of others, her own courage, and her faith in God's unfailing love. There were difficulties and pain aplenty for Mother in her last years, but there were also new experiences, friendships, love, laughter, and joy which she shared and cherished.

As for me - I remember most her sense of humor and adventurous spirit; her love of knowledge, particularly of history and geography; her curiosity and appreciation of nature; her love of literature, especially poetry; her great love of the Bible with its awesome stories, wonderful truths, and precious promises. And I remember sitting beside her Sunday mornings with my hand in hers listening to my father's sermons when I was still too young to understand the truths he preached, but not too young to feel the warmth of her hands and the fervor in his voice.

Blanche "Smitty" Crawford died on June 22, 1994. The Reverend Dr. Mark Wethington, her pastor, and the Reverend Diane M. C. Blanchard, her chaplain, conducted a beautiful and comforting service in St. John's Chapel at the Methodist Retirement Home. Mother was buried beside Daddy under the oak trees in the cemetery of his boyhood church, Clover Garden UMC in Orange County. A couple of weeks later at a birthday celebration for my father's youngest sister, 90 years old, in the fellowship hall of the same Clover Garden Church, one of my father's nieces said, with a teary sparkle in her eyes, "We don't need to feel sorry for Aunt Blanche when she's in heaven with Jesus having a wonderful time." AMEN!

In addition to my brother and myself, Mother is survived by a brother, Marvin E. Smith of Ayden; a sister, Mrs. Lucinda S. Lester of Wendell; six grandchildren - Carl W. Brady of High Point; Russell C. Crawford of Lexington, KY; Mrs. Leslie C. Campbell of Mars Hill; Mrs. Julie W. Ellis of Durham; John Wesley Williams of Daytona Beach, FL; Mark C. Williams of Williamston; and three great-grandchildren - Michael Brady, Alexander Campbell, and Jessica Ellis.

RUTH MYRTLE MELTON GOLDSTON

Ruth Melton Goldston was born October 22, 1911 in Halifax County. She was the daughter of George N. and Frances W. Melton. She died August 31, 1994 in Rocky Mount. Services were conducted by the Reverend William Snotherly, pastor of St. Paul UMC. Interment was at Battleboro Cemetery in Battleboro.

Ruth is survived by her husband of 55 years, the Reverend C. Wade Goldston. Many know Wade as a retired member of the NC Conference. Wade currently resides at the Methodist Retirement Community in Durham. Also surviving Ruth are a daughter, Bonnie G. Carr of Spartanburg, SC; a son, Joseph W. Goldston of Lumberton; two grandsons, two granddaughters; and four great-grandsons.

Her early childhood was not like most children. By the age of six, Ruth had lost both parents. She came to live with relatives and received her early education in the Batttleboro public schools. After she was graduated from high school, she attended Louisburg College in Louisburg. She returned to live with her sister in Battleboro after she finished Louisburg.

Ruth and her sister's family attended Battleboro Methodist Church. It was there she met Wade while he served as pastor of that church. They were married on November 14, 1939.

The couple started married life in Stantonsburg. Other appointments carried them to Evansdale Church near Wilson, Daniels Memorial and Pine Forest in Goldsboro, Louisburg College, Apex, and finally St. Paul Church in Rocky Mount. Even after Wade "retired," he served churches in Conetoe and Pinetops with Ruth ever at his side. Said one district superintendent to Wade, "She was the best part of your ministry."

Active in the UMW at the local, district, and conference levels, Ruth organized a new morning circle at St. Paul Church. She later was honored by having the circle named "The Ruth Goldston Circle."

Ruth never sought self-recognition, but served her church families and friends with love and humility. She was a confidante, a friend to all. Her warm personality and friendliness was genuine and emanated from her through her actions and deeds. If you were in need, she was there. Her home was open to those who required physical, spiritual, or mental support. Even if you didn't tell her your problems, those sensitive eyes and ears heard and saw. Her response was one of quiet caring and unselfish devotion.

In her immediate family as wife, mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, great-grandmother, and aunt, we were shown God-given traits. She listened, loved, hugged, shared joys and sorrows, counselled wisely, judged, and criticized lovingly with deep devotion and understanding. The best part was being the child, because she looked after us all. How fortunate we were to be a part of her family. Surely from her life, we have been blessed and our lives enhanced, because we saw firsthand how one of God's children served her family and others. The simple phrase, "To know her is to love her," tells it all. She was a beautiful person inside and out. We like to think that God has looked on her life and said, "Well done, good and faithful servant, Ruth."

HELGA OLIVIA OMAN GARRIS

The earthly pilgrimage of Helga Olivia Oman Garris began on November 14, 1908, and came to its close on September 15, 1994. Helga's bout with cancer for about five years was borne with much strength and courage, just as she had lived her life. When she was visited in her home with the intention of bringing a smile to her face, acquaintances often left discovering she probably helped them more than they had helped her. She was an inspiration for us all and she made her suffering a witness for her Lord.

Helga was born in Brooklyn, NY, one of the nine children of Victor F. and Anna Kaupp Oman of Finland. Her schooling was at St. James, a small community on Long Island, NY. Her family remembers how much she loved to read, and how she greatly entertained her siblings doing so. She had a keen intellect and devotion to the Church, and lived with a quiet and unassuming demeanor.

She was married to Horace Stanford Garris on March 5, 1933. They met while he was working in New York. They soon moved west and served for five years at Belt Valley Parish in Belt, MT, and Grace Church in Salt Lake City, UT. Horace was a native of Grifton, and dedicated as they were to the Lord's work, they returned to NC in 1953 for Horace to complete his education for the ministry. He received an AB degree from Atlantic Christian College in 1955, a MDiv degree from Duke Divinity School in 1958; and while he attended school, they served appointments at Mattamuskeet and Apex-Holly Springs.

Despite Horace's later health problems, both he and Helga made a great contribution, church-wide as well as conference-wide for over 28 years, and faithfully served our Conference churches: Apex, Pittsboro, Roseboro, Richlands, and First Church in Washington.

They were a special team together and Helga was so supportive of her husband. She always followed anywhere duty called. Traditionally, most clergy visit shut-ins and the hospitalized unaccompanied by their spouses, but Helga believed this ministry was hers as well. She sped through household chores to be ready to visit by Horace's side. Possessing a sincere native ability and pleasantness, along with her good training and experience, she made her life count positively wherever she lived. She seemed to possess a tireless inner energy that few of us ever find.

Horace's declining health required retirement in 1976. They made their retirement home in Warsaw where she remained after Horace died on November 25, 1980.

For almost 10 more years, Helga continued to be active in the church and community; her faith was strong and complete, and she handled any and every matter with extreme kindness. Behind her every kind word was the gentlest spirit.

When at last her own health failed, she moved in with their son, Victor, born November 11, 1943, who resides in Fayetteville, and is employed at Womack Army Hospital at Ft. Bragg. Helga and Horace had worked diligently with their son to see that he was properly educated and trained for a good life when they were gone.

Her life was celebrated at the funeral at St. James Episcopal Church on Long Island. She also was buried there beside her husband in the church cemetery.

Surviving are her son, Victor; two sisters, Mrs. Helen Howell and Mrs. Elsa L'Hommedieu of St. James, NY; one brother, Ronald Oman of Davenport, NY; numerous nieces and nephews.

MARY MOZELLE HODGE FELTMAN

1914 - 1994

Mary Mozelle Hodge Feltman, wife of the Reverend Walter C. Feltman, was born on October 6, 1914 in Spencer. She was the daughter of Joseph Allen Hodge and Hester Webster Hodge. She was raised in Rowan County, and later moved to Burlington. It was there that she married Walter Clarence Feltman on August 4, 1934. Together, Walter and Mary served several appointments in the NC Conference for a total of 31 years. They retired from the Trinity UMC in New Bern in 1978. They faithfully continued their service to Christ through that church for these last 14 years.

Mary departed this life and went home to be with Christ on December 25, 1994. Her memorial service was held on December 28, 1994 at the Pollock-Wells-Best Funeral Home in New Bern. Mary's pastor, the Reverend Horace L. McLaurin, conducted the service.

Mary is survived by her husband, Walter, and three children: Donald Feltman of Waltham, MA, Shirley Bailey of West End, and Sandra McKnight of Huntsville, AL.

Mary, known as "Momma" to family and church members alike, was a very strong member of the ministry team in each church to which Walter was appointed. She loved her husband and her family very deeply, and spent much time seeing that their needs were met.

Mary had a special gift from God, evidenced in the fact that she always looked for the positive in each situation of life, as well as lifting up the positive traits in everyone she knew.

Her personal faith led her to be a student of the Bible. She read the entire Bible more than 15 times, and had a disciplined devotional life consisting of Bible reading and prayer. Her prayer lists were filled with names of family members and many friends and their various concerns.

We all give thanks to God for blessing our lives with the true Christian love and friendship of Mary Mozelle Hodge Feltman. Our loss is Heaven's gain.

ELMA LILLIAN HENSLEY STEVENS

1907 - 1995

Elma Lillian Hensley Stevens, wife of the Reverend Willis R. Stevens, was born September 10, 1907 at Carmen in Madison County, the first daughter of Roscoe and Mollie Franklin Hensley. When still a young girl, she moved with her family to Tennessee where she grew up in the college community of Tusculum College.

She was married to the Reverend Willis R. Stevens on October 26, 1935, and he preceded her in death on December 8, 1984. Elma died on January 1, 1995. A memorial service was conducted on January 6, 1995 at Centenary UMC in Smithfield by the Reverend Paul Phillips. Burial was in the Willow Dale Cemetery at Goldsboro.

Elma is survived by three children: Willis R. Stevens, Jr., of New Bern; Betty Anne Stevens Jordan of Charlotte; and Franklin Hales Stevens of Matthews; one sister, Mary Helen Hensley Paxton. Elma has six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

After graduating from Doak High School, Elma attended Tusculum College, where in 1930 she earned an AB degree with majors in English and Biology. She furthered her education at The Biblical Seminary of New York, earning a Masters of Religious Education in 1935. Her plans for her doctorate were curtailed when she fell in love, married Willis Stevens, and became a dedicated minister's wife in the NC Conference. She, beside her husband, served faithfully for nearly 40 years.

Elma and Willis began their service to the Methodist Church in 1935 when they received the appointment to serve six churches of the Bladen Circuit. Their other appointments were as follows: Wesley Memorial in Wilmington; Goldsboro Circuit in Wayne County; Rosemary in Roanoke Rapids; Trinity in Jacksonville; Chestnut Street in Lumberton; First in Rockingham; Trinity in Wilmington; Centenary in New Bern; the Greenville District; Fairmont in Raleigh; Home Memorial in Clayton; and, upon their retirement in 1972, Asbury in Smithfield.

Elma Stevens truly served the Lord through her service to the Methodist Church, even though she grew up a Presbyterian. As a specialist in childhood education, she served as a certified laboratory instructor of the NC Conference. Among her many other endeavors, Elma was a member of the NC Kindergarten Association, the UMW, and a member of the NC Conference Kindergarten Commission to determine goals and standards for weekday kindergarten programs and education.

During the summer of 1959, Elma and Willis were counselors of the NC Conference European Youth Caravan, sponsored by the Board of Missions. They, with eight college-age young people, lived and worked with members of Methodist churches in England and Europe, helping them to rebuild and repair their churches which had been ravaged by war. This experience resulted in the formation of lasting friendships across the Atlantic.

Elma has touched many lives but none so much as those of her children. She truly has been the wind beneath their wings. She was there to give that extra boost to get them going.

To Willis, the eldest son, she is remembered by her giving with no thoughts of her own needs: money from the "wedding fees" to buy a pair of pants, that little check when he was away at college, letters she wrote every day when he was in the Navy, that loving smile and tender touch that came from the love of God, and so much more.

To Betty Anne, the only daughter, burning the midnight oil to finish an Easter dress, "a little something" enclosed in greeting cards on special occasions, letters written from college returned noting spelling errors, her gentle encouragement to never give up and to always try to do your best, and her constant and unfailing faith in the Lord.

To Frank, the youngest son, she is remembered for the special kindness and caring shown every day of her life, the notes she wrote when she left the house, encouragement given with his art work, staying up half the night preparing for the holidays, letters she wrote him in art school and the Army, and prayers at special times of need. From her, he learned how to care for others and the importance of faith.

Elma Hensley Stevens was a true child of God who touched so many with her spiritual beliefs that only can inspire us all to go forth and make this a better place.

We miss you, Mama, but know you are in good hands.

Your loving children - Willis, Betty Anne, and Frank

Cora Lawrence Guthrie was born on October 19, 1944 in Otway, NC, the daughter of Gordon and Belva Lawrence.

On June 1, 1963, I was so blessed by God to have received her as my wife. She was the mother of our two children: Wendy, who resides in Otway, and Shane, who resides at Harkers Island.

Together in 1979, we left home to serve our very first church as a parsonage family. We served Perkins, the Chowan Charge, the Straits-North River Charge, and Woodland UMC.

What a blessing Cora was to me at each appointment. Wherever I went everybody fell in love with her Christian spirit. She was just that kind of person, you couldn't help but love her. She was beautiful both inside and out. What a blessing for any preacher to have had the kind of wife she was to me.

Then there would come our greatest trial, the battle with cancer. For three years she fought with a determination, a love, a faith, and a will to still be all that she needed to be as a wife, a mother, and a faithful servant to the Lord she loved so much. What a testimony she gave as she would go to church on Sunday after Sunday, at times hardly able even to walk! And still she kept going, until all of her life energy was completely gone.

On March 24, 1995, Jesus called her home for joy and celebration in heaven, but there was a great sadness here on earth because she is missed so much.

Her funeral service was held at the Harkers Island UMC, conducted by the Reverend David Harrington and the Reverend Clyde Cheezem. Her body was placed at rest in the Vergie Mae Cemetery at Harkers Island, and her soul is at rest now with Jesus.

Pure love is a gift that is meant to be shared. Few find it. I was blessed to receive that love when I found Cora. She was the good wife any man would have been very proud of, she was the good mother any children would have been very proud of, and she was the good friend to all who were blessed to know her. She was one of God's special children, given as His gift to help brighten life's way.

On her grave reads the words: "She was one of God's best, always to be remembered and loved." Her special memory will live on through me, through her children, and through all of those who knew her.

Forever, Sherman

BERTHA LEE ROSE GARDNER

Bertha Lee Rose Gardner, wife of the Reverend Matthew Ransom Gardner, was born into a Christian family of eight children in Goldsboro on January 5, 1911. She was the daughter of Silas Lucas and Bertha Hodgin Rose. She went to be with the Lord on April 6, 1995 at Duke University Medical Center. She had been a resident of the Coble Health Care Center at the Methodist Retirement Community in Durham for 12 years. The funeral services were conducted on April 9, 1995, Palm Sunday, at St. Mark's UMC in Raleigh by Dr. Brian Gentle, her pastor, the Reverend C. Maness Mitchell, and Dr. Herbert Carter. Burial was in the Willowdale Cemetery in Goldsboro.

Bertha received her education in the Goldsboro public schools, Hardbarger Business College, and Marion College in Marion, IN. Her parents reared her in first the Quaker and then in the Free Will Baptist Church. She was blessed with a wonderful talent in music, which she developed as a vocalist and pianist, and used for God's glory all of her life! She accepted Christ as her personal Lord and Savior in her early teens at a Ham-Ramsey tent revival, and thereafter, helped with the music of many of the revival meetings in the surrounding country churches in the Goldsboro area.

It was at one of these revival meetings that she met the young seminary student, Matthew Ransom Gardner. They were married on December 15, 1935, and for more than 38 years pastored Methodist churches in Kitty Hawk, Roper, Aulander, Pinetops, Rocky Mount, Garysburg, Roanoke Rapids, Selma, Clinton, Durham, and Oxford.

To Bertha, being a minister's wife was a call to Christian service right along with that of her husband. She was a great joy and blessing, sharing of herself and her talents wherever she was needed. She lived her life for Christ in a beautiful unassuming way without self praise. She loved life and loved people, and in her own words, "tried to be a good preacher's wife," and she was!

Upon retirement the couple lived in Raleigh where her husband served as associate pastor for three years at St. Mark's UMC and where they were active together in visitations, the Walter Anderson Adult Bible Class, and Bertha in the choir and the Women's Society.

Bertha was a devoted Christian wife, mother, and grandmother to her husband, two daughters, and grandson who survive: Reverend Matthew Ransom Gardner of the Methodist Retirement Community in Durham; Martha Rose Wilson, Mary Ruth Gardner, and George Pavlides of Raleigh.

During the last 12 years of her life in which she suffered a stroke, several illnesses and surgeries, she never complained. She committed her pain and loneliness to Christ, and He gave her grace and strength to bear it while bedridden. In the evenings, she and her husband shared in a devotion time together which included God's Word, prayer, and singing. This brought God's peace and joy to her heart and a smile to her face. In her strong faith in Christ she was full of praise by the Holy Spirit, truly walking on the mountain top with her Lord!

Often during these devotion times she expressed her deep faith and love of God with sayings such as these: "All praise, honor, and glory be unto Jesus, the Christ-child born to be our Saviour and Redeemer." - "The Holy Spirit is our Comforter and Guide, and helps us in whatever may come to pass." - "I want my life to be in God's will." - "When we wake up at night, we can talk to God and tell Him our needs. He is with us as we live in this big old world." - "The good Lord has come to me and told me He wants us to be strong and happy in Him."

Her happy transition from this life to Jesus was joyous, peaceful, and without pain.

In loving memory by her husband, daughters, and grandson,
Matthew, Martha Rose, Mary Ruth, and George

ANNIE ALDA WEBB WILSON

1931 - 1995

Annie Alda Webb Wilson died May 4, 1995 after a year-long battle with cancer.

She was born July 27, 1931 to the late James and Lillian Webb of Austinville, VA.

Funeral services were held at the West End UMC in West End. Participating in the service were the Reverend Clark Barfield, the Reverend Lowell Keeney, the Reverend Robert Poulk, and the Reverend Richard Stone. Annie was laid to rest at the Seven Lakes Cemetery at Seven Lakes.

Annie met her husband, the Reverend Ben Horace Wilson III, during their childhood in Wythe County, VA. They continued their courtship as students at Jackson Memorial High School. Upon finishing high school, Annie married Ben, her "childhood sweetheart." Had she lived to May 10, Annie and Ben would have celebrated their 43rd Anniversary.

Annie is survived by her husband, Ben; a daughter and son-in-law, Marcia and Craig Massengill of Albany, GA; a daughter, Kimberly R. Wilson of Laurinburg; a son, Jonathan P. Wilson, also of Laurinburg; two brothers, Harvey and Edward Webb, both of Ohio; two sisters, Betty Austin and Rachel Fortner, both of Virginia; and four grandchildren, Mabry, Erin and Caleb Massengill, all of Albany, GA; and Tristan A. Wilson of Laurinburg.

During the years of their ministry, Ben and Annie served the following charges: Lebanon Circuit, Lebanon, VA; Middlesex; Pleasant Grove, Raleigh; Duke's Chapel, Durham; Warsaw; Clinton: First; Centenary in Smithfield; Laurinburg: First; Chestnut Street in Lumberton; Hamlet: First; West End-Doubs Chapel at West End; and Moncure.

Annie always was active in the service of her husband's churches, most notably with her undying support of the UMW.

Aside from her duties as a pastor's wife, Annie was employed as a teacher's assistant for many years and later as a day care teacher. Her love for children was strong and everlasting. She lived so that she might love and nurture another one of God's tiny creatures. Anyone who ever met Annie was touched by her special warmth. People knew that she would do anything to fulfill the needs of others. Those that she encountered, felt comfort through her gentle and trusting ways.

No matter what her personal troubles or pains were, her main concern fell with the welfare of her family. Annie is best known for her unselfishness and her pleasant, gentle manner. The Wilson Family has been extremely blessed by such a phenomenal woman who meant so much to us as a wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend.

Upon her passing, Erin Massengill, one of her granddaughters, composed the following poem:

TO MY GRANDMA

Many people seem to say, We are alike in many ways.
Even though we are far apart, People always will see you in my heart.
I stand tall and try not to cry, As I whisper to you my last good-bye.
Your life on earth now is through, But I want to say how much I love you.

1995-1996 ASSOCIATE MEMBERS, ROLL AND PASTORAL RECORDS OF

NOTE: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference associate members, both effective and retired. These records include only service in the North Carolina Conference. Please note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right hand column indicate the number of years service under episcopal appointment to the North Carolina Conference after being received into the Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration
North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets, liabilities and fund balances - modified cash basis of North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, as of December 31, 1994, and the related statement of revenue, expense or distribution and changes in fund balances - modified cash basis for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Conference's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As described in Note 1 of the notes to financial statements, the Conference's policy is to prepare its financial statements on a modified cash basis. Consequently, certain supplemental appropriations and other revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets, liabilities and fund balances of North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church, at December 31, 1994, and its revenue, expense or distribution and changes in fund balances for the year then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Business and Significant Accounting Policies

The Conference is the fundamental body of the United Methodist Church which under Episcopal leadership provides the mechanism for admitting and ordaining clergy, appointing itinerant pastors to churches, and supplying them with mutual support. The Conference is composed of ministerial and lay members and other individuals as required in "The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church" which in an annual meeting defines the programs and responsibilities of the Church as a whole. Fund transactions included within this report represent all funds administered by the Conference Treasurer, except for the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. and the Board of Missions, Inc.

A summary of the Conference's significant accounting policies follows:

Basis of presentation: The Conference's financial statements are prepared on a modified cash basis of accounting. Consequently, certain supplemental appropriations and other revenue and related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned.

Fund accounting. To ensure observance of limitations placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, the accounts of the Conference are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purposes.

The assets, liabilities and fund balances of the Conference are reported in two Council on Finance and Administration designated self-balancing fund groups:

- Central Fund, which includes various departments whose budgets are determined by the Annual Conference. These funds are raised by member churches.
- Special Funds, which are funds created by the Conference for special purposes.

Other accounting policies: Land, buildings and equipment are recorded at cost since 1983. Prior to 1983, if historical costs were unavailable, another reasonable basis was used.

Church properties assumed by the Conference as well as land donated to the Conference are stated at their estimated fair value at the time of receipt.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

	Years
Buildings	30 - 40
Improvements to buildings	10 - 40
Furniture and equipment	5 - 15

Investments are recorded in the financial statements at the lower of aggregate cost or fair market value. Gains are recognized when securities are sold and losses are recognized either when securities are sold or the aggregate cost exceeds aggregate fair market value. The cost of securities sold is determined using the specific-identification method.

The expenditures for each year are financed principally by funds received from revenue from apportionments of the previous year. Accordingly, the revenue shown in the accompanying Statement of Revenue, Expense or Distribution and Changes in Fund Balances will be available for operations budgeted for the ensuing year.

Note 2. Cash

Arrangements with banks for investment of excess funds require minimum cash balances of $300,000 to be maintained. All cash deposits are legally subject to withdrawal without penalty. Funds are invested in this program each business day. The amount invested in this program at December 31, 1994 was $984,000. The Conference places its cash with high quality financial institutions. At times this cash is in excess of the FDIC insurance limits.

Note 6. Pensions

In 1981, the Conference began participating in multiemployer pension plans provided by the General Board of Pensions. Two defined contribution plans provide benefits for Clergy as follows for all service after December 31, 1981.

The Ministers Pension Plan provides monthly retirement benefits for bishops of The United Methodist Church elected by a Jurisdictional Conference, clergy members of an Annual Conference and local pastors of The United Methodist Church under Episcopal appointment or those eligible for appointment to a charge. Funding in 1994 is based on 12% of plan compensation.

The Comprehensive Protection Plan provides death, disability and educational benefits for all individuals eligible to participate in the Ministers Pension Plan. Funding is based on 4.4% of actual plan compensation.

Beginning January 1, 1990, the employers of plan participants collect the required contributions for the defined contribution plans described above from the plan participants and remit all collections directly to the General Board of Pensions.

The plans also provide defined benefits in accordance with their predecessor plan, The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund. All plan participants as of December 31, 1981 entitled to receive benefits from The Ministers Reserve Pension Fund will receive upon retirement a monthly retirement benefit, disability, surviving spouse and surviving children benefits. Benefits are based on years of service and an approved pension rate. The pension rate is based on a percent of the Conference Average Salary. Benefits are subject to certain reductions if the participant retires before reaching age 65.

The Conference agreed to fund the prior service liability for service years prior to 1982. On January 1, 1995, the net unfunded liability based on a pension rate of $336 was $27,226,017. Current expense for prior service liability was $2,136,640. The amount paid to fund the unfunded prior service liability is determined annually by the General Board of Pensions. The Conference amortizes prior service cost over a 30-year period

Note 7. Related Party Transactions

United Methodist Foundation, Inc.. The United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established primarily as an investment pool available for organizations, churches and agencies related to the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The United Methodist Church. Included in accounts receivable is $61,607 due from the Foundation.

Board of Missions, Inc.: The Board of Missions, Inc was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repair of existing facilities by providing financial assistance to Churches established in Eastern North Carolina. The net amount due from the Board is $49,735.

Note 8. Commitments

The Conference provides group health, life and dental plans for Conference employees and local church pastors and lay employees. The Conference has elected to self-insure the health and dental plans with an administrative services only (ASO) contract. Under this program the Conference paid claims of $4,307,925 in 1994 As of December 31, 1994, the Insurance Fund has designated fund balance in the amount of $2,179,785 for incurred but unreported claims.

Note 9. Future Reporting Requirements

The Financial Accounting Standards Board has issued SFAS No 117, Financial Statements of Not-For-Profit Organizations, which the Conference has not been required to adopt as of December 31, 1994. The Statement, which will be in effect for the Conference's fiscal year beginning January 1, 1995 will require the presentation of financial information in a format different from that currently permitted for not-for-profit organizations. The Conference currently utilizes a "fund balance" approach for accounting and reporting its financial information. SFAS No. 117 requires the presentation of a statement of financial position and a statement of activities that displays three classes of net assets; permanently restricted, temporarily restricted, and unrestricted, and their changes during the period. SFAS No. 117 will also require the presentation of a cash flows statement Although the Statement will require a radical departure from the Conference's current financial statement presentation, SFAS No. 117 does not require any new accounting treatment for the recognition or measurement of financial elements.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations: United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was established in 1955 by the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church to provide a management-investment pool for long-term and permanent funds of the North Carolina Conference and of local churches, institutions, and ministries of the Church and to encourage and receive planned gifts in support of local churches, institutions, and special ministries of The United Methodist Church and to assist donors in placing their gifts.

A summary of the Foundation's significant accounting policies follows:

Valuation of securities: Investments in fixed income securities and common stocks are stated at market value, based on closing prices reported on National Securities Exchanges on December 31, or at the last bid price, for over-the-counter securities. Short-term investments are stated at market value. Investments in real estate mortgages are stated at the lower of aggregate cost or market.

General: The Foundation follows the accounting practice of "equalization" whereby undistributed investment income per unit is unaffected by sales or redemptions of units.

Security transactions are accounted for on the trade date. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Realized gains and losses from security transactions are reported on the first-in, first-out basis.

Note 2. Securities Transactions

Purchases and sales of investment securities for the year ended December 31, 1994 and 1993 were as follows:

	1994	1993
Cost of purchases:
Short-term investments	$ 24,127,524	$ 8,557,767
Other securities	18,910,276	5,967,732
	$ 43,037,800	$ 14,525,499
Proceeds from sale:
Short-term investments	$ 21,455,934	$ 8,785,740
Other securities	18,216,643	6,733,822

Note 3. Restricted Assets and Obligations

During 1990, the Foundation established a separate Annuity fund to record the investment of funds upon which certain restrictions have been placed. In connection with these investments, the Foundation purchased three annuity contracts and established an annuity payable representing the present value of the payments to the annuitants over their remaining life expectancies.

The Foundation also established during 1990 a separate Cash Surrender Value fund for 16 life insurance policies which place certain restrictions on the use of the proceeds at the death of the donor. Three additional policies were recorded during 1991 and five additional policies were recorded during 1992.

In 1994, the Foundation established a separate Real Estate fund for a donation of an apartment dwelling in an irrevocable charitable remainder unitrust. Net income from the fund is to be paid to the unitrust recipient until death of the recipient occurs.

Since the earnings on these investments are not available to all unitholders, they have been accounted for as restricted assets, liabilities and fund balance.

Note 4. Net Asset Value Per Outstanding Unit

The net asset value per outstanding unit was $1.76 at December 31, 1994 and $1.83 at December 31, 1993.

Note 5. Income Taxes

The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Note 6. Credit Risk

The Foundation places its cash with a high quality financial institution. At times, such cash is in excess of the FDIC insurance limit.

Note 7. Donated Services

The United Methodist Foundation, Inc. receives accounting services from the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the United Methodist Church. Because of the difficulty in placing a value on such services, no contribution revenue or related expense has been recorded.

UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC. STATEMENT OF INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND POLICY

Investment Objective

The investment objective of the United Methodist Foundation, Incorporated is to maintain a balance between the current income needs of the Foundation and growth of principal and income in the future.

Safety of Principal

Although safety of principal is an important consideration, bonds or other debt instruments are to be used primarily for current income and common stocks are to be used primarily for principal enhancement.

Specific Quantifiable Objective

The specific quantifiable return of objectives of the Foundation shall be a minimum total return of 6% per year, net after expenses, over a reasonable period of time, which, under normal market conditions, is expected to be achieved over any cumulative five year period. Current income on an annual basis shall not be less than 6 percent.

Directed Commissions

The use of directed commissions is a helpful and sometimes necessary mechanism in order for the Investment Manager to secure information from outside sources, and it is not the intention of the Foundation to hamper the Investment Manager's use of these resources.

Asset Distribution

Except as noted under "Prohibited Transactions", investments are to be made in quality securities which, in the opinion of the Investment Manager, can best achieve the expected investment performance. The Foundation feels that a normal Equity-Debt ratio of 50/50 would be appropriate for their needs. However, this ratio may be varied at the discretion of the Investment Manager as long as the specified quantifiable objectives are realized. Any major shift of 20% or more must be discussed with the Investment Committee in advance. Fixed income securities are to be used to the extent necessary to provide relative portfolio stability and a high stream of current income. The bond portfolio should be strengthened to a maximum level of 60% of the total portfolio. Equities are to be used to provide potential for growth in principal and income.

Diversification

Although the Investment Manager has full discretion over the portfolio, the Foundation feels that individual investments, on the basis of cost, should not exceed 30% of the portfolio in any one industry or 10% of the portfolio in any single security. At the discretion of the Investment Manager, investments that have appreciated above these limits may continue to be held.

Delegation of Authority

It is expected that the portfolio under the Investment Manager's control will be invested in a manner consistent with the expressions in this statement. Within those limits, he has full control of assets. The Foundation does not expect to direct the purchase or sale of investments, but may advise when it has information regarding specific situations.

Quality of Securities

Only new purchase of bonds or other instruments of debt which are rated by Moody's and/or Standard & Poor's as "A" quality or above are to be used. Common stock holdings and/or common stock equivalents should be in (1) companies that have been rated in quality as "B" or above by Standard & Poor's, or (2) companies that are actively followed by the Investment Manager and are rated on a quality basis equal to or greater than Standard & Poor's rating of "B".

Measurement of Return

Investment performance should be measured in terms of total return, and not dividend and interest income alone. It is recognized that realized losses will occur in individual securities, even though each investment in the Foundation was made in the expectation of dividend income and /or capital appreciation. However, the measure of fund performance will be a total realized rate of return figure. The total Foundation, as well as the fixed income component and equity component, will be measured by using the time-weighted rate of return method.

Liquidity
From an investment standpoint, (i.e. accumulating cash equivalents in anticipation of better investment opportunities), the Investment Manager may invest up to 25% of the account in short term liquid assets.

Prohibited Transactions
Investments or trading in private placements, letter stock, commodities, venture capital, puts, calls, straddles, hedges, shortsales, or transactions on margin are specifically prohibited. Covered options trading on no more than twenty (20) percent of the equity portfolio may be used at the discretion of the Investment Manager. No investments are to be made in companies whose principal business is gambling, or the manufacturing or distribution of tobacco products or alcoholic beverages.

Investment Review
The Investment Manager shall meet semi-annually with the Foundation and may meet quarterly with the Investment Committee with time and place of meetings to be designated by the Foundation. Special meetings may be called as necessary.

Payment of Income
Income to be generated by the account is to be paid to the Foundation quarterly. At any time the income is insufficient, the Investment Manager will be advised.

Realized Losses
The maximum realized losses may not exceed $75,000 in any one year.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Nature of Operations and Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of operations: The Board of Missions, Inc. was established primarily to encourage the construction of new churches and the remodeling and repairing of existing facilities by providing financial assistance to churches established in eastern North Carolina. All loans are collateralized by a first deed of trust on the Church property.

A summary of the Board's significant accounting policies follows:

Fund accounting: The accounts of the Board of Missions, Inc. are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting.

Other accounting policies:

Cash: The Board places its cash with high quality financial institutions. At times this cash is in excess of the FDIC limit.

Investments: Investments are represented in the financial statements in the aggregate at the lower of cost or fair market value. Gains are recognized when securities are sold and losses are recognized either when securities are sold or the aggregate cost exceeds aggregate fair market value The cost of securities sold is determined on a specific-identification basis.

Property: Property is capitalized at cost or at fair market value as of the date acquired when received by gift. Depreciation of buildings is computed using the straight-line method over the assets' estimated useful lives.

Note 2. Investments

All investments are deposited with the United Methodist Foundation, Inc. Cost and market values as of December 31, 1994 and 1993 were as follows:

	1994	1993
Cost	$ 713,366	$ 825,155
Market value	713,366	846,148

During the year ended December 31, 1994, investments were written down to market and the resulting charge to investment income amounted to $3,422.

Note 3. Property

A summary of property is as follows:

	1994	1993
Undeveloped land	$ 882,335	$ 882,335
Land	340,845	340,845
Buildings	85,210	85,210
	1,308,390	1,308,390
Less accumulated depreciation	7,456	5,326

Note 4. Notes Payable

Line of credit: During 1991, the Board of Missions entered into a one-year financing agreement with a bank to borrow up to $1,000,000, subject to review and renewal annually. The agreement was renewed in 1993. The agreement was modified and renewed during 1994 to borrow up to $500,000. This agreement is collateralized by deeds of trust on certain real property located in eastern North Carolina and by various loans receivable.

These funds are to be utilized by the Board of Missions for the specific purposes of granting loans to churches for building programs and acquiring undeveloped land for future church sites. The bank must approve the use of the loan proceeds which the Board distributes.

At December 31, 1994 and 1993 the balance on the line of credit was $-0- and $183,000, respectively. Interest on the outstanding balance is paid at prime plus .5%. The rate was 9.0% and 6.5% at December 31, 1994 and 1993, respectively.

Note payable: In addition, in 1991 the Board issued a note payable with a face amount of $350,000, collateralized by property in the Fayetteville district with a carrying value of $418,599 at December 31, 1994. The note is due in six annual installments plus interest at the rate of 8% per annum.

At December 31, 1994 and 1993, the unpaid balance on the note payable was $92,418 and $167,980, respectively. Aggregate maturities during the next two years are 1995 $75,607; 1996 $16,811.

Note 5. Donated Services

The Board of Missions receives all management and administrative services from the North Carolina Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of the United Methodist Church. Because of the difficulty in placing a value on such services, no contribution revenue or related expense has been recorded.

Note 6. Commitments

As of December 31, 1994, the Board of Missions had approved approximately $902,100 in new loans to churches which had not been disbursed.

Note 7. Future Reporting Requirements

The Financial Accounting Standards Board has issued SFAS No. 117, Financial Statements of Not-For-Profit Organizations, which the Board has not been required to adopt as of December 31, 1994. The Statement, which will be in effect for the Board's fiscal year beginning January 1, 1995 will require the presentation of financial information in a format different from that currently permitted for not-for-profit organizations. The Board currently utilizes a "fund balance" approach for accounting and reporting its financial information. SFAS No. 117 requires the presentation of a statement of financial condition and a statement of activities that displays three classes of net assets; permanently restricted, temporarily restricted, and unrestricted, and their changes during the period. SFAS No. 117 will also require the presentation of a cash flows statement. Although the Statement will require a radical departure from the Board's current financial statement presentation, SFAS No. 117 does not require any new accounting treatment for the recognition or measurement of financial elements.
